Annexure-D

Principles to be followed while determining the IAS, IPS & IFS cadre strength of the States of residual Andhra Pradesh and Telangana.

1. Existing IAS, IPS & IFS cadre strength of Andhra Pradesh to be bifurcated without any change in the overall cadre strength.
2. Bifurcation of cadre strength will be in the ratio of 13:10 for residual Andhra Pradesh and Telangana which is the ratio of number of districts in the newly formed States.
3. 25% of the Senior Duty Posts (SDP) constitute State Deputation Reserve (SDR) and utilized as ex-cadre posts. The State Governments may have the flexibility to create ex-cadre posts subject to the following:
 - i) The number of ex-cadre posts at the Apex level shall not exceed the number of cadre posts.
 - ii) Overall State Deputation Reserve (ex-cadre posts) shall not exceed 25% of the senior duty posts in a cadre.
4. No upgradation or downgradation of cadre posts shall be allowed.
5. The Central Deputation Reserve (CDR) should not exceed 40% of Senior Duty Posts in a cadre. The Training Reserve and Leave Reserve & Junior posts Reserve should not exceed 3.5% and 16.5% of the Senior Duty Posts respectively.
6. Generic nomenclature may be used to define the posts at various levels so that the State Governments shall have the flexibility to use in order to meet their requirement.
