Dear Sir,

On behalf of Daniel K. Inouye Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies (DKI APCSS), the Office of Defense Cooperation (ODC) would like to invite the Indian Ministry to nominate ten (10) senior-level positions from the foreign affairs, economic or defense ministries focusing on cooperation with ASEAN, India. Five (5) from MoD, two (2) from MEA two (2) from MHA and one(1) from NDMA.

The Daniel K. Inouye Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies and Carnegie India will host a multilateral workshop March 20-22, 2018. The workshop will explore the areas of strategic convergence between India's "Act East" policy, ASEAN's "Look West" policy and U.S. regional engagement.

Participants should be able to speak confidently on the following workshop objectives:

- Identify geopolitical and transnational security issues that bind the U.S., ASEAN and India, and determine viable courses of action to address challenges and capitalize on opportunities;
- Identify opportunities and gaps in policies and strategies which impede bilateral, trilateral and multilateral cooperation in economic integration, regional connectivity, institution-building, and regional security.
- Harmonize interests, policies and actions amongst ASEAN countries, the United States and India to foster peace, stability and prosperity and counter attempts to upend the rules-based global and regional order.
- Recommend specific ways to promote greater trilateral and multilateral interactions and cooperation among India, ASEAN and the U.S. in Southeast Asia.
