shall, on conviction by a Security Force Court, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

42. Any person subject to this Act who attempts to commit any of the offences specified in sections 14 to 41 (both inclusive) and in such attempt does any act towards the commission of the offence; shall, on conviction by a Security Force Court, where no express provision is made by this Act for the punishment of such attempt, be liable,- Attempt.

- (a) if the offence attempted to be committed is punishable with death, to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned; and
- (b) if the offence attempted to be committed is punishable with imprisonment, to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to one-half of the longest term provided for that offence or such less punishment as is in the Act mentioned.

43. Any person subject to this Act who abets the commission of any of the offences specified in sections 14 to 41 (both inclusive) shall, on conviction by a Security Force Court, if the Act abetted is committed in consequence of the abetment and no express provision is made by this Act for the punishment of such abetment, be liable to suffer the punishment provided for that offence or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Abetment of offences that have been committed.

44. Any person subject to this Act who abets the commission of any of the offences punishable with death under sections 14, 17 and sub-section (1) of section 18 shall, on conviction by a Security Force Court, if that offence be not committed in consequence of the abetment, and no express provision is made by this Act for the punishment of such abetment, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to fourteen years or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Abetment of offences punishable with death and not committed.

45. Any person subject to this Act who abets the commission of any of the offences specified in sections 14 to 41 (both inclusive) and punishable with imprisonment shall, on conviction by a Security Force Court, if that offence be not committed in consequence of the abetment, and no express provision is made by this Act for the punishment of such abetment, be liable to suffer imprisonment for a term which may extend to one-half of the longest term provided for that offence or such less punishment as is in this Abetment of offences punishable with imprisonment and not committed.

Act mentioned.

46. Subject to the provisions of section 47, any person subject to this Act who at any place in, or beyond India, commits any civil offence shall be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this Act and, if charged therewith under this section shall be liable to be tried by a Security Force Court and, on conviction, be punishable as follows, that is to say,-

- (a) if the offence is one which would be punishable under any law in force in India with death, he shall be liable to suffer any punishment, assigned for the offence, by the aforesaid law and such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned; and
- (b) in any other case, he shall be liable to suffer any punishment, assigned for the offence by the law in force in India, or imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned.

Civil offences.

47. A person subject to this Act who commits an offence of murder or of culpable homicide not amounting to murder against, or of rape in relation to, a person not subject to this Act shall not be deemed to be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall not be tried by a Security Force Court, unless he commits any of the said offences,-

- (a) while on active duty; or
- (b) at any place outside India; or
- (c) at any place specified by the Central Government by notification in this behalf.

Civil offences not triable by a Security Force Court.

Punishments
awardable by Security
Force Courts.

48.(1) Punishments may be inflicted in respect of offences committed by persons subject to this Act and convicted by Security Force Courts according to the scale following, that is to say:-

- (a) death;
- (b) Imprisonment which may be for the term of life or any other lesser term but excluding imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months in Force custody,
- (c) dismissal from the service;
- (d) imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months in Force custody;
- (e) reduction to the ranks or to a lower rank or grade or place in this list of their rank in the case of an under-officer;
- (f) forfeiture of seniority of rank and forfeiture of all or any part of the service for the purpose of promotion;
- (g) forfeiture of service for the purpose of increased pay, pension or any other prescribed purpose;
- (h) fine, in respect of civil offences;
- (i) severe reprimand or reprimand except in the case of persons below the rank of an under-officer;
- (j) forfeiture of pay and allowances for a period not exceeding three months for an offence committed on active duty;
- (k) forfeiture in the case of person sentenced to dismissal from the service of all arrears of pay and allowances and other public money due to him at the time of such dismissal;

- (1) stoppage of pay and allowances until any proved loss or damage occasioned by the offence for which he is convicted is made good.
- (2) Each of the punishments specified in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be inferior in degree to every punishment preceding it in the above scale.

49. Subject to the provisions of this Act, a Security Force Court may, on convicting a person subject to this Act of any of the offences specified in sections 14 to 45 (both inclusive) award either the particular punishment with which the offence is stated in the said sections to be punishable or, in lieu thereof, any one of the punishments lower in the scale set out in section 48 regard being had to the nature and degree of the offence.

Alternative punishments awardable by Security Force Courts.

50. A sentence of a Security Force Court may award in addition to, or without any one other punishment, the punishment specified in clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 48, and any one or more of the punishments specified in clauses (e) to (l) (both inclusive) of that sub-section.

Combination of punishments.

51. When on active duty any enrolled person has been sentenced by a Security Force Court to dismissal or to imprisonment whether combined with dismissal or not, the prescribed officer may direct that such person may be retained to serve in the ranks, and such service shall be reckoned as part of his term of imprisonment if any.

Retention in the Force of a person convicted on active duty.

52. Punishment may also be inflicted in respect of offences committed by persons subject to this Act without the intervention of a Security Force Court in the manner stated in sections 53 and 55.

Punishments otherwise than by Security Force Courts.

53. Subject to the provisions of section 54, a Commandant or such other officer as is, with the consent of Central Government, specified by the Director-General may, in the prescribed manner, proceed against a person subject to this Act, otherwise than as an officer or a subordinate officer, who is charged with an offence under this Act and award such person, to the extent prescribed, one or more of the following punishments, that is to say:-

Minor punishments.

- (a) imprisonment in Force custody upto twenty-eight days;
- (b) detention up to twenty-eight days;
- (c) confinement to the lines upto twenty-eight days;
- (d) extra guards or duties;
- (e) deprivation of any special position or special emoluments or any acting rank or reduction to a lower grade of pay;
- (f) forfeiture of good service and good conduct pay;
- (g) severe reprimand or reprimand;
- (h) fine upto fourteen day's pay in any one month;
- (i) deductions from his pay of any sum required to make good such compensation for any expense, loss, damage or destruction caused by him to the Central Government or to any building or property as may be awarded by his Commandant.

Limit of punishments under section 53.

54. (1) In the case of an award of two or more of the punishments specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 53, the punishments specified in clause (c) or clause (d) shall take effect only at the end of the punishment specified in clause (a) or clause (b).

(2) When two or more of the punishments specified in the said clauses (a), (b) and (c) are awarded to a person conjointly, or when already undergoing one or more of the said punishments, the whole extent of the punishments shall not exceed in the aggregate forty two days.

(3) The punishments specified in the said clauses (a), (b) and (c) shall not be awarded to any person who is of the rank of an under officer or was, at the time of committing the offence for which he is punished, of such rank.

(4) The punishment specified in clause (g) of section 53 shall not be awarded to any person below the rank of an under-officer.

55. (1) An officer not below the rank of the Deputy Inspector-General or such other officer as is, with the consent of the Central government, specified by the Director-General may, in the prescribed manner, proceed against a person of or below the rank of a subordinate officer who is charged with an offence under this Act and award one or more of the following punishments, that is to say:-

Punishment of persons of and below the rank of subordinate officers by Deputy Inspectors General and others.

- (a) forfeiture of seniority, or in the case of any of them whose promotion depends upon the length of service forfeiture of service for the purpose of promotion for a period not exceeding twelve months, but subject to the right of the accused person to the award to elect to be tried by a Security Force Court;
- (b) severe reprimand or reprimand;
- (c) stoppage of pay and allowances until any proved loss or damage occasioned by the offence of which he is convicted is made good.

(2) In every case in which punishment has been awarded under sub-section (1), certified true copies of the proceedings shall be forwarded, in the prescribed manner, by the officer awarding the punishment to the prescribed superior authority who may, if the punishment awarded appears to him to be illegal, unjust or excessive, cancel, vary, or remit the punishment and make such other direction as may be appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

56. (1) Whenever any weapon or part of a weapon, or ammunition, forming part of the equipment of a unit of the Force, is lost or stolen, an officer not below the rank of the Commandant of a battalion may, after making such enquiry as he thinks fit and subject to the rules, impose a collective fine upon the subordinate officers, under-officers and men of such unit, or upon so many of them as, in his judgment, should be held responsible for such loss or theft.

(2) Such fine shall be assessed as a percentage on the pay of the individuals on whom it falls.

CHAPTER-VARREST AND PROCEEDINGS BEFORE TRIAL

57. (1) Any person subject to this Act who is charged with an offence may be taken into Force custody, under the order of any superior officer.

Custody of offenders.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), an officer may order into Force custody any other officer, though such other officer may be of a higher rank, engaged in a quarrel, affray or disorder.

58. (1) It shall be the duty of every Commandant to take care that a person under his command when charged with an offence is not detained in custody for more than forty-eight hours after the committal of such person into custody is reported to him, without the charge being investigated, unless investigation within that period seems to him to be impracticable having regard to the public service.

Duty of Commandant in regard to detention.

(2) The case of every person being detained in custody beyond a period of forty-eight hours, and the reasons therefor, shall be reported by the Commandant to the Deputy Inspector General under whom he is serving or such other officer to whom an application may be made to convene a Security Force Court for the trial of the person charged.

(3) In reckoning the period of forty-eight hours specified in sub section (1), Sundays and other public holidays shall be excluded.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Central Government may make rules providing for the manner in which and the period for which any person subject to this Act may be taken into and detained in Force custody, pending the trial by any competent authority for any offence committed by him.

Interval between committal and trial.

59. In every case where any such person as is mentioned in section 57 and as is not on active duty, remains in such custody for a longer period than eight days without a Security Force Court for his trial being convened, a special report giving reasons for the delay shall be made by his Commandant in the manner prescribed, and a similar report shall be forwarded at intervals of every eight days until a Security Force Court is convened or such person is released from custody.

Arrest by civil authorities.

60. Whenever any person subject to this Act, who is accused of an offence under this Act, is within the jurisdiction of any magistrate or police officer, such magistrate or police officer shall aid in the apprehension and delivery to Force custody of such person upon receipt of a written application to that effect signed by his Commandant or an officer authorised by the Commandant in that behalf.

Capture of deserters.

61. (1) Whenever any person subject to this Act deserts, the Commandant of the unit to which he belongs, shall give information of the desertion to such civil authorities as, in his opinion, may be able to afford assistance towards the capture of the deserter; and such authorities shall thereupon take steps for the apprehension of the said deserter in like manner as if he were a person for whose apprehension a warrant had been issued by a magistrate, and shall deliver the deserter, when apprehended, into Force custody.

(2) Any police officer may arrest without warrant any person reasonably believed to be subject to this Act, and to be a deserter or to be travelling without authority, and shall bring him without delay before the nearest magistrate, to be dealt with according to law.

Inquiry into absence without leave.

62. (1) When any person subject to this Act has been absent from duty without due authority for a period of thirty days, a court of inquiry shall, as soon as practicable, be appointed by such authority and in such manner as may be prescribed, and such court shall, on oath or affirmation administered in the prescribed manner, inquire respecting the absence of the person, and the deficiency, if any, in the property of the Government entrusted to his care or in any arms, ammunition, equipment, instruments, clothing or necessaries, and if satisfied of the fact of such absence without due authority or other sufficient cause, the court shall declare such absence and the period thereof and the said deficiency, if any, and the Commandant of the unit to which the person belongs shall make a record thereof in the prescribed manner.

(2) If the person declared absent does not afterwards surrender or is not apprehended, he shall for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a deserter.

63. (1) The Director-General or any prescribed officer may appoint persons (in this Act referred to as Force police) for discharging the functions specified in sub-section (2) and (3).

Force police officers.

(2) The duties of a person appointed under sub-section (1), are to take charge of persons confined for any offence, to preserve good order and discipline and to prevent breaches of the same by persons serving in, or attached to, the Force.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 57, a person appointed under sub-section (1) may, at any time, arrest and detain for trial any person subject to this Act who commits, or is charged with, an offence, and may also carry into effect any punishment to be inflicted in pursuance of a sentence awarded by a Security Force Court or by an officer exercising authority under section 53 but shall not inflict any punishment on his own authority:

Provided that no officer shall be so arrested or detained otherwise than on the order of another officer.

CHAPTER-VI

SECURITY FORCE COURTS

Kinds of Security Force Courts.

64. For the purposes of this Act there shall be three kinds of Security Force Courts, that is to say:-

- (a) General Security Force Courts;
- (b) Petty Security Force Courts; and
- (c) Summary Security Force Courts.

Power to convene a General Security Force Court.

65. A General Security Force Court may be convened by the Central Government or the Director-General or by any officer empowered in this behalf by warrant of the Director-General.

Power to convene a petty Security Force Court.

66. A Petty Security Force Court may be convened by an officer having power to convene a General Security Force Court or by an officer empowered in this behalf by warrant of any such officer.

Contents of warrants issued under sections 65 and 66.

67. A warrant, issued under section 65 or section 66 may contain such restrictions, reservations or conditions as the officer issuing it may think fit.

Composition of General Security Force Court.

68. A General Security Force Court shall consist of not less than five officers, each of whom has held the post of Deputy Superintendent of Police for not less than three whole years and of whom not less than four are of a rank not below that of a confirmed Deputy Superintendent of Police.

Explanation:- For the purposes of this section and section 69 “Deputy Superintendent of Police” includes any post of a higher rank and any post declared by Central Government by notification to be an equivalent post as also any post higher in rank than the post so declared.

Composition of a petty Security Force Court.

69. A Petty Security Force Court shall consist of not less than three officers each of whom has held the post of Deputy Superintendent of Police for not less than two whole years.

70. (1) A Summary Security Force Court may be held by the Commandant of any unit of the Force and he alone shall constitute the Court.

Summary Security Force Court.

(2) The proceedings shall be attended throughout by two other persons who shall be officers or subordinate officers or one of either, and who shall not as such, be sworn or affirmed.

71. (1) If a Security Force Court after the commencement of a trial is reduced below the minimum number of officers required by this Act, it shall be dissolved.

Dissolution of a Security Force Court.

(2) If, on account of the illness of the Law Officer or of the accused before the finding, it is impossible to continue the trial, a Security Force Court shall be dissolved.

(3) The officer who convened a Security Force Court may dissolve the same if it appears to him that the exigencies of the service or necessities of discipline render it impossible or inexpedient to continue the said Security Force Court.

(4) Where a Security Force Court is dissolved under this section, the accused may be tried again.

72. A General Security Force Court shall have the power to try any person subject to this Act for any offence punishable thereunder and to pass any sentence authorised thereby.

Powers of a General Security Force Court.

73. A Petty Security Force Court shall have power to try any person subject to this Act other than an officer or a subordinate officer for any offence made punishable thereunder and to pass any sentence authorised by this Act other than a sentence of death, or imprisonment for a term exceeding two years.

Powers of a Petty Security Force Court.

74. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), a Summary Security Force Court may try any offence punishable under this Act.

Powers of a Summary Security Force Court.

(2) When there is no grave reason for immediate action and reference can without detriment to discipline be made to the officer empowered to convene a Petty Security Force Court for the trial of the alleged offender, an officer holding a Summary Security Force Court shall not try without such reference any offence punishable under any of the sections 14, 17 and 46 of this Act, or any offence against the officer holding the court.

(3) A Summary Security Force Court may try any person subject to this Act and under the command of the officer holding the court, except an officer, or a subordinate officer.

(4) A Summary Security Force Court may pass any sentence which may be passed under this Act, except the sentence of death or of imprisonment for a term exceeding the limit specified in sub-section (5).

(5) The limit referred to in sub-section (4) shall be,-

- (a) one year, if the officer holding the Security Force Court has held either the post of ¹Superintendent of Police or a post declared by the Central Government by notification to be equivalent thereto, for a period of not less than three years or holds a post of higher rank than either of the said posts; and
- (b) three months, in any other case.

Prohibition
trial.

75. (1) When any person subject to this Act has been acquitted or convicted of an offence by a Security Force Court or by a criminal court or has been dealt with under section 53 or under section 55, he shall not be liable to be tried again for the same offence by a Security Force Court or dealt with under the said sections.

1. Vide SO-592 dated 25-2-1997, post of Dy Comdt has been declared equivalent to the post of Superintendent of Police.

(2) When any person, subject to this Act, has been acquitted or convicted of an offence by a Security Force Court or has been dealt with under section 53 or section 55, he shall not be liable to be tried again by a criminal court for the same offence or on the same facts.

76. No trial for an offence of desertion, other than desertion on active duty, shall be commenced if the person in question, not being an officer, has subsequently to the commission of the offence, served continuously in an exemplary manner for not less than three years with any unit of the Force.

Period of limitation for trial for an offence of desertion in certain cases.

77. (1) Where an offence under this Act had been committed by any person while subject to this Act, and he has ceased to be so subject, he may be taken into and kept in Force custody and tried and punished for such offence as if he continued to be so subject.

Trial, etc. of offender who ceases to be subject to this Act.

(2) No such person shall be tried for an offence, unless his trial commences within six months after he had ceased to be subject to this Act:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to the trial of any such person for an offence of desertion or for any of the offences mentioned in section 17 or shall affect the jurisdiction of a criminal court to try any offence triable by such court as well as by a Security Force Court.

78. (1) When a person subject to this Act is sentenced by a Security Force Court to imprisonment, this Act shall apply to him during the term of his sentence, though he is dismissed from the Force, or has otherwise ceased to be subject to this act, and he may be kept, removed, imprisoned and punished as if he continued to be subject to this Act.

Application of Act during term of sentence.

(2) When a person subject to this Act is sentenced by a Security Force Court to death, this Act shall apply to him till the sentence is carried out.

Place of trial. 79. Any person subject to this Act who commits any offence against it may be tried and punished for such offence in any place whatever.

Choice between criminal court and Security Force Court. 80. When a criminal court and a Security Force Court have each jurisdiction in respect of an offence, it shall be in the discretion of the Director-General, or the Inspector-General or the Deputy Inspector-General within whose command the accused person is serving or such other officer as may be prescribed, to decide before which court the proceedings shall be instituted, and, if that officer decides that they shall be instituted before a Security Force Court, to direct that the accused person shall be detained in Force custody.

Power of Criminal court to require delivery of offender. 81. (1) When a criminal court having jurisdiction is of opinion that proceedings shall be instituted before itself in respect of any alleged offence, it may, by written notice, require the officer referred to in section 80 at his option, either to deliver over the offender to the nearest magistrate to be proceeded against according to law, or to postpone proceedings, pending a reference to the Central Government.

(2) In every such case the said officer shall either deliver over the offender in compliance with the requisition, or shall forthwith refer the question as to the court before which the proceedings are to be instituted, for the determination of the Central Government whose order upon such reference shall be final.

CHAPTER-VIIPROCEDURE OF SECURITY FORCE
COURTS

82. At every General Security Force Court or Petty Security Force Court, the senior member shall be the presiding officer.

Presiding Officer.

83. Every General Security Force Court shall, and every Petty Security Force Court may, be attended by a Law Officer, or if no such officer is available an officer approved by the Chief Law Officer, or a Law Officer.

Law Officers.

84. (1) At all trials by a General Security Force Court or by a Petty Security Force Court, as soon as the court is assembled, the names of the presiding officer and members shall be read over to the accused, who shall thereupon be asked whether he objects to being tried by any officer sitting on the court.

Challenges.

(2) If the accused objects to such officer, his objection and also the reply thereto of the officer objected to shall be heard and recorded, and the remaining officers of the court shall, in the absence of the challenged officer decide on the objection.

(3) If the objection is allowed by one-half or more of the votes of the officers entitled to vote, the objection shall be allowed, and the member objected to shall retire, and his vacancy may be filled in the prescribed manner, by another officer subject to the same right of the accused to object.

(4) When no challenge is made, or when a challenge has been made and disallowed, or the place of every officer successfully challenged has been filled by another officer to whom no objection is made or allowed, the court shall proceed with the trial.

Oaths of member, Law Officer and witness.

85. (1) An oath or affirmation in the prescribed manner shall be administered to every member of every Security Force Court and to the Law Officer or as the case may be the officer approved under section 83, before the commencement of the trial.

(2) Every person giving evidence before a Security Force Court shall be examined after being duly sworn or affirmed in the prescribed form.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2) shall not apply where the witness is a child under twelve years of age and the Security Force Court is of opinion that though the witness understands the duty of speaking the truth, he does not understand the nature of an oath or affirmation.

Voting by members.

86. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), every decision of a Security Force Court shall be passed by an absolute majority of votes; and where there is an equality of votes on either the finding or the sentence, the decision shall be in favour of the accused.

(2) No sentence of death shall be passed by a General Security Force Court without the concurrence of at least two-thirds of the members of the court.

(3) In matters, other than a challenge or the finding or sentence, the presiding officer shall have a casting vote.

General rule as to evidence.

87. The Indian Evidence Act 1872 shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, apply to all proceedings before a Security Force Court.

1 of 1872

Judicial notice.

88. A Security Force Court may take judicial notice of any matter within the general knowledge of the members as officers of the Force.

89. (1) The convening officer, the presiding officer of a Security Force Court, the Law Officer or, as the case may be, the officer approved under section 83 or the Commandant of the accused person may, by summons under his hand, require the attendance, at a time and place to be mentioned in the summons, of any person either to give evidence or to produce any document or other thing.

Summoning witnesses.

(2) In the case of a witness who is subject to this Act, the summons shall be sent to his Commandant and such officer shall serve it upon him accordingly.

(3) In the case of any other witness, the summons shall be sent to the magistrate within whose jurisdiction he may be, or resides, and such magistrate shall give effect to the summons as if the witness were required in the court of such a magistrate.

(4) When a witness is required to produce any particular document or other thing in his possession or power, the summons shall describe it with reasonable precision.

90. (1) Nothing in section 89 shall be deemed to affect the operation of sections 123 and 124 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 or to apply to any letter, postcard, telegram or other document in the custody of the postal or telegraph authorities.

(2) If any document in such custody is, in the opinion of any District Magistrate, Chief Presidency Magistrate, High Court or Court of Sessions, wanted for the purpose of any Security Force Court, such magistrate, or Court, may require the postal or telegraph authorities, as the case may be, to deliver such document to such person as such magistrate, or Court may direct.

(3) If any such document is, in the opinion of any other magistrate or of any Commissioner of Police or District Superintendent of Police, wanted for any such purpose, he may require the postal or telegraph authorities, as the case may be, to cause such search to be made for, and to detain such document pending the orders of any such District Magistrate, Chief Presidency Magistrate or High Court or Court of Sessions.

Commissions for examina-
nesses.

91. (1) Whenever, in the course of a trial by a Security Force Court, it appears to the court that the examination of a witness is necessary for the ends of justice, and that the attendance of such witness cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which, in the circumstances of the case, would be unreasonable, such court may address the Chief Law Officer in order that a commission to take the evidence of such witness may be issued.

(2) The Chief Law Officer may then, if he thinks necessary, issue a commission to any district magistrate or magistrate of the first class, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such witness resides, to take the evidence of such witness.

(3) The magistrate or officer to whom the commission is issued, or, he is the District Magistrate, he or such Magistrate of the first class as he appoints in this behalf, shall proceed to the place where the witness is, or shall summon the witness before him and shall take down his evidence in the same manner, and may for this purpose exercise the same powers, as in the trials of warrant-cases under the code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

(4) When the witness resides in a tribal area or in any place outside India, the commission may be issued in the manner specified in Chapter XI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

5 of 1898.

Examination
commission.

92. (1) The prosecutor and the accused person in any case in which a commission is issued under section 91 may respectively forward any interrogatories in writing which the court may think relevant to the issue, and the Magistrate or officer executing the commission shall examine the witness upon such interrogatories.

(2) The prosecutor and the accused person may appear before such Magistrate or officer by counsel, or except in the case of an accused person in custody, in person, and may examine, cross-examine and re-examine, as the case may be, the said witness.

(3) After a commission issued under section 91 has been duly executed, it shall be returned, together with the deposition of the witness examined thereunder to the Chief Law Officer.

(4) On receipt of a Commission, and deposition returned under sub-section (3), the Chief Law Officer shall forward the same to the court at whose instance the commission was issued or, if such court has been dissolved, to any other court convened for the trial of the accused person, and the commission, the return thereto and the deposition shall be open to inspection by the prosecutor and the accused person, and may, subject to all just exceptions, be read in evidence in the case by either the prosecutor or the accused, and shall form part of the proceedings of the court.

(5) In every case in which a commission is issued under section 91, the trial may be adjourned for specified time reasonably sufficient for the executions and return of the commission.

93. (1) A person charged before a Security Force Court with desertion may be found guilty of attempting to desert or of being absent without leave.

Conviction of offence not charged.

(2) A person charged before a Security Force Court with attempting to desert may be found guilty of being absent without leave.

(3) A person charged before a Security Force Court with using criminal force may be found guilty of assault.

(4) A person charged before a Security Force Court with using threatening language may be found guilty of using insubordinate language.

(5) A person charged before a Security Force Court with any one of the offences specified in clauses (a), (b), (c) and (d) of section 30 may be found guilty of any other of these offences with which he might have been charged.

(6) A person charged before a Security Force Court with an offence punishable under section 46 may be found guilty of any other offence of which he might have been found guilty, if the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, were applicable.

(7) A person charged before a Security Force Court with any offence under this Act may, on failure of proof of an offence having been committed in circumstances involving a more severe punishment, be found guilty of the same offence as having been committed in circumstances involving a less severe punishment.

(8) A person charged before a Security Force Court with any offence under this Act may be found guilty of having attempted or abetted the commission of that offence, although the attempt or abetment is not separately charged.

Presumption
tures.

94. In any proceeding under this Act, any application, certificate, warrant, reply or other document purporting to be signed by an officer in the service of the Government shall, on production, be presumed to have been duly signed by the person by whom and in the character in which it purports to have been signed, until the contrary is shown.

Enrolment paper.

95. (1) Any enrolment paper purporting to be signed by an enrolling officer shall, in proceedings under this Act, be evidence of the person enrolled having given the answers to questions which he is therein represented as having given.

(2) The enrolment of such person may be proved by the production of the original or a copy of his enrolment paper purporting to be certified to be a true copy by the officer having the custody of the enrolment paper.

96. (1) A letter, return or other document respecting the service of any person in, or the dismissal or discharge of any person from, any unit of the Force, or respecting the circumstances of any person not having served in, or belonged to, any unit of the Force, if purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Central Government or the Director General, or by any prescribed officer, shall be evidence of the facts stated in such letter, return or other document.

Presumption
documents.

(2) A Border Security Force list or Gazette purporting to be published by authority shall be evidence of the status and rank of the officers, subordinate officers therein mentioned, and of any appointment held by them and of the battalion, unit or branch of the Force to which they belong.

(3) Where a record is made in any battalion book in pursuance of this Act or of any rules made thereunder or otherwise in the discharge of official duties, and purports to be signed by the Commandant or by the officer whose duty it is to make such record, such record shall be evidence of the facts therein stated.

(4) A copy of any record in any battalion book purporting to be certified to be a true copy by the officer having custody of such book shall be evidence of such record.

(5) Where any person subject to this Act is being tried on a charge of desertion or of absence without leave, and such person has surrendered himself into the custody of any officer or other person subject to this Act, or any unit of the Force, or has been apprehended by such officer or person, a certificate purporting to be signed by such officer or by the Commandant of the unit to which such person belongs, as the case may be, and stating the fact, date and place of such surrender or apprehension, and the manner in which he was dressed, shall be evidence of the matters so stated.

(6) Where any person subject to this Act is being tried on a charge of desertion or of absence without leave and such person has surrendered himself into the custody of, or has been apprehended by, a police officer not below the rank of an officer in charge of a police station, a certificate purporting to be signed by such police officer and stating the fact, date and place of such surrender or apprehension and the manner in which he was dressed shall be evidence of the matters so stated.

(7) Any document purporting to be a report under the hand of any Chemical Examiner or Assistant Chemical Examiner to Government upon any matter or thing duly submitted to him for examination or analysis and report, may be used as evidence in any proceeding under this Act.

Reference by
Government Officer.

97. (1) If at any trial for desertion or absence without leave, over-staying leave or not rejoining when warned for service, the accused person states in his defence any sufficient or reasonable excuse for his unauthorised absence, and refers in support thereof to any officer in the service of the Government, or if it appears that any such officer is likely to prove or disprove the said statement in the defence, the court shall address such officer and adjourn the proceedings until his reply is received.

(2) The written reply of any officer so referred to shall, if signed by him, be received in evidence and have the same effect if made on oath before the court.

(3) If the court is dissolved before the receipt of such reply or if the court omits to comply with the provisions of this section, the convening officer may, at his discretion, annul the proceedings and order a fresh trial.

previous convictions and general character

98. (1) When any person subject to this Act has been convicted by a Security Force Court of any offence, such Security Force Court may inquire into, and receive, and record evidence of any previous convictions of such person, either by a Security Force Court or by a criminal court, or any previous award of punishment under section 53 or 55, and may further inquire into and record the general character of such person and such other matters as may be prescribed.

(2) Evidence received under this section may be either oral, or in the shape of entries in, or certified extracts from, books of Security Force Courts or other official records; and it shall not be necessary to give notice before trial to the person tried that evidence as to his previous convictions or character will be received.

(3) At a Summary Security Force Court, the officer holding the trial may, if he thinks fit, record any previous convictions against the offender, his general character, and such other matters as may be prescribed, as of his own knowledge, instead of requiring them to be proved under the foregoing provisions of this section.

99. (1) Whenever, in the course of a trial by a Security Force Court, it appears to the court that the person charged is by reason of unsoundness of mind incapable of making his defence, or that he committed the act alleged but was by reason of unsoundness of mind incapable of knowing the nature of the act or knowing that it was wrong or contrary to law, the court shall record a finding accordingly.

Lunacy of accused.

(2) The presiding officer of the court, or, in the case of a Summary Security Force Court, the officer holding the trial, shall forthwith report the case to the confirming officer, or to the authority empowered to deal with its finding under section 115, as the case may be.

(3) The confirming officer to whom the case is reported under sub-section (2) may, if he does not confirm the finding, take steps to have the accused person tried by the same or another Security Force Court for the offence with which he was charged.

(4) The authority to whom the finding of a Summary Security Force Court is reported under sub-section (2), and a confirming officer confirming the finding in any case so reported to him shall order the accused person to be kept in custody in the prescribed manner and shall report the case for the orders of the Central Government.

(5) On receipt of a report under-section (4), the Central Government may order the accused person to be detained in a lunatic asylum or other suitable place of safe custody.

Subsequent fitness of lunatic accused for trial.

100. Where any accused person, having been found by reason of unsoundness of mind to be incapable of making his defence, is in custody or under detention under section 99, any officer prescribed in this behalf, may-

- (a) if such person is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 99, on the report of a medical officer that he is capable of making his defence, or
- (b) if such person is detained in a jail under sub-section (5) of section 99, on a certificate of the Inspector General of Prisons, and if such person is detained in a lunatic asylum under the said sub-section, on a certificate of any two or more of the visitors of such asylum and if he is detained in any other place under that sub-section, on a certificate of the prescribed authority, that he is capable of making his defence, take steps to have such person tried by the same or another Security Force Court for the offence with which he was originally charged or, if the offence is a civil offence, by a criminal court.

Transmission to Central Government of orders under section 100.

101. A copy of every order made by an officer under section 100 for the trial of the accused shall forthwith be sent to the Central Government.

102. Where any person is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 99 or under detention under sub-section (5) of that section:-

Release of lunatic accused.

- (a) if such person is in custody under the said sub-section (4), on the report of a medical officer, or
- (b) if such person is detained under the said sub-section (5), on a certificate from any of the authorities mentioned in clause (b) of section 100 that in the judgement of such officer or authority such person may be released without danger of his doing injury to himself or to any other person.

the Central Government may order that such person be released or detained in custody, or transferred to a public lunatic asylum if he has not already been sent to such an asylum.

103. Where any relative or friend of any person who is in custody under sub-section (4) of section 99 or under detention under sub-section (5) of that section desires that he should be delivered to his care and custody, the Central Government may, upon application by such relative or friend and, on his giving security to the satisfaction of that Government that the person delivered shall be properly taken care of, and prevented from doing injury to himself or to any other person, and be produced for the inspection of such officer, and at such times and places, as the Central Government may direct, order such person to be delivered to such relative or friend.

Delivery of lunatic accused to relatives.

104. When any property regarding which any offence appears to have been committed, or which appears to have been used for the commission of any offence, is produced before a Security Force Court during a trial, the court may make such order as it thinks fit for the proper custody of such property pending the conclusion of the trial, and if the property is subject to speedy or natural decay may, after recording such evidence as it thinks necessary, order it to be sold or otherwise disposed of.

Order for custody and disposal of property pending trial.

Order for disposal of property regarding which offence is committed.

105. (1) After the conclusion of a trial before any Security Force Court, the court or the officer confirming the finding or sentence of such Security Force Court, or any authority superior to such officer, or, in the case of a Summary Security Force Court whose finding or sentence does not require confirmation, an officer not below the rank of Deputy-Inspector-General within whose command the trial was held, may make such order as it or he thinks fit for the disposal by destruction, confiscation, delivery to any person claiming to be entitled to possession thereof, or otherwise, of any property or document produced before the court or in its custody, or regarding which any offence appears to have been committed or which has been used for the commission of any offence.

(2) Where any order has been made under subsection (1) in respect of property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed, a copy of such order signed and certified by the authority making the same may, whether the trial was held within India or not, be sent to a magistrate within whose jurisdiction such property for the time being is situated, and such magistrate shall there-upon cause the order to be carried into effect as if it were an order passed by him under the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

(3) In this section, the term “property” includes, in the case of property regarding which an offence appears to have been committed not only such property as has been originally in the possession or under the control of any person, but also any property into or for which the same may have been converted or exchanged, and anything acquired by such conversion or exchange whether immediately or otherwise.

Powers of Security Force Court in relation to proceedings under this Act.

106. Any trial by a Security Force Court under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of section 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code and the Security Force Court shall be deemed to be a court within the meaning of sections 480 and 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

CHAPTER-VIII
CONFIRMATION AND REVISION

107. No finding or sentence of a General Security Force Courts or a Petty Security Force Court shall be valid except so far as it may be confirmed as provided by this Act. Finding and sentence not valid, unless confirmed.
108. The findings and sentences of General Security Force Courts may be confirmed by the Central Government or by any officer empowered in this behalf by warrant of the Central Government. Power to confirm finding and sentence of General Security Force Court.
109. The findings and sentences of Petty Security Force Courts may be confirmed by an officer having power to convene a General Security Force Court or by any officer empowered in this behalf by warrant of such officer. Power to confirm finding and sentence of Petty Security Force Court.
110. A warrant issued under section 108 or section 109 may contain such restrictions, reservations or conditions as the authority issuing it may think fit. Limitation of powers of confirming authority.
111. Subject to such restrictions, reservations or conditions, as may be contained in any warrant issued under section 108 or section 109, a confirming authority may, when confirming the sentence of a Security Force Court, mitigate or remit the punishment thereby awarded, or commute that punishment for any punishment or punishments lower in the scale laid down in section 48. Power of confirming authority to mitigate, remit or commute sentences.
112. When any person subject to this Act is tried and sentenced by a Security Force Court while on board a ship, the finding and sentence so far as not confirmed and executed on board the ship, may be confirmed and executed in like manner as if such person had been tried at the port of disembarkation. Confirming of findings and sentences on board a ship.
113. (1) Any finding or sentence of a Security Force Court which requires confirmation may be once revised by order of the confirming authority and on such revision, the Revision of finding or sentence.

court, if so directed by the confirming authority, may take additional evidence.

(2) The court, on revision, shall consist of the same officers as were present when the original decision was passed, unless any of those officers are unavoidably absent.

(3) In case of such unavoidable absence the cause thereof shall be duly certified in the proceedings, and the court shall proceed with the revision, provided that, if a General Security Force Court, it still consists of five officers, or, if a Petty Security Force Court, of three officers.

Finding and sentence of a Summary Security Force Court.

114. (1) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (2), the finding and sentence of a Summary Security Force Court shall not require to be confirmed, but may be carried out forthwith.

(2) If the officer holding the trial is of the rank of Superintendent of Police or of a rank declared under clause (a) of sub-section (5) of section 74 as equivalent thereto or of a lower rank and has held such rank for less than five years, he shall not, except on active duty, carry into effect any sentence, until it has received the approval of an officer not below the rank of Deputy Inspector General.

Transmission of proceedings of Summary Security Force Courts.

115. The proceedings of every Summary Security Force Court shall, without delay, be forwarded to the officer not below the rank of Deputy Inspector-General within whose command the trial was held, or to the prescribed officer, and such officer, or the Director General or any officer empowered by him in this behalf may, for reasons based on the merits of the case, but not on merely technical grounds, set aside the proceedings, or reduce the sentence to any other sentence which the court might have passed.

Alteration of finding or sentence in certain cases.

116. (1) Where a finding of guilty by a Security Force Court, which has been confirmed or which does not require confirmation, is found for any reason to be invalid or cannot be supported by the evidence, the authority which would have had power under section 128 to commute the punishment awarded by the sentence if the finding had been valid, may substitute a new finding and pass a sentence for the offence specified or involved in such finding.

Provided that no such substitution shall be made unless such finding could have been validly made by the Security Force Court on the charge and unless it appears that the Security Force Court must have been satisfied of the facts establishing the said offence.

(2) Where a sentence passed by a Security Force Court which has been confirmed, or which does not require confirmation, not being a sentence passed in pursuance of a new finding substituted under sub-section (1), is found for any reason to be invalid, the authority referred to in sub-section (1) may pass a valid sentence.

(3) The punishment awarded by a sentence passed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall not be higher in the scale of punishments than, or in excess of, the punishment awarded by, the sentence for which a new sentence is substituted under this section.

(4) Any finding substituted, or any sentence passed, under this section shall, for the purposes of this Act and the rules, have effect as if it were a finding or sentence, as the case may be, of a Security Force Court.

117. (1) Any person subject to this Act who considers himself aggrieved by any order passed by any Security Force Court may present a petition to the officer or authority empowered to confirm any finding or sentence of such Security Force Court, and the confirming authority may take such steps as may be considered necessary to satisfy itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of the order passed or as to the regularity of any proceeding to which the order relates.

a g a i n s t o r d e r, f i n d i n g o r
s e n t e n c e o f
F o r c e C o u r t.

(2) Any person subject to this Act who considers himself aggrieved by a finding or sentence of any Security Force Court which has been confirmed, may present a petition to the Central Government, the Director-General, or any prescribed officer superior in command to the one who confirmed such finding or sentence, and the Central Government, the Director-General, or the prescribed officer, as the case may be, may pass such order thereon as it or he thinks fit.

Annulment of proceedings.

118. The Central Government, the Director-General, or any prescribed officer may annul the proceedings of any Security Force Court on the ground that they are illegal or unjust.

CHAPTER-IXEXECUTION OF SENTENCE, PARDONS, REMISSION, ETC

119. In awarding a sentence of death, a Security Force Court shall, in its discretion direct that the offender shall suffer death by being hanged by the neck until he be dead, or shall suffer death by being shot to death.

Form of sentence of death.

120. Whenever any person is sentenced by a Security Force Court under this Act to imprisonment, the term of his sentence shall, whether it has been revised or not, be reckoned to commence on the day on which the original proceedings were signed by the presiding officer, or in the case of a Summary Security Force Court by the court.

Commencement of sentence of imprisonment.

121. (1) Whenever any sentence of imprisonment is passed under this Act by a Security Force Court or whenever any sentence of death is commuted to imprisonment, the confirming officer or in case of a Summary Security Force Court the officer holding the court or such other officer as may be prescribed shall, save as otherwise provided in sub-sections (3) and (4) direct that the sentence shall be carried out by confinement in a civil prison.

Execution of sentence of imprisonment.

(2) When a direction has been made under sub-section (1) the Commandant of the person under sentence or such other officer as may be prescribed shall forward a warrant in the prescribed form to the officer in charge of the prison in which such person is to be confined and shall arrange for his despatch to such prison with the warrant.

(3) In the case of a sentence of imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months and passed under this Act by a Security Force Court, the appropriate officer under sub-section (1) may direct that the sentence shall be carried out by confinement in Force custody instead of in a civil prison.

(4) On active duty, a sentence of imprisonment may be carried out by confinement in such place as the Deputy Inspector-General within whose command the person sentenced is serving or any prescribed officer, may from time to time appoint.

Period of custody undergone by a person to be set off against the imprisonment.

¹121A. When any person subject to this Act is sentenced by a Security Force Court to a term of imprisonment, not being an imprisonment in default of payment of fine, the period spent by him in civil or Force custody doing investigation, inquiry or trial of the same case, and before the date of order of such sentence, shall be set off against the term of imprisonment imposed upon him, and the liability of such person to undergo imprisonment on such order of sentence shall be restricted to the remainder, if any, of the term of imprisonment imposed upon him.

47 of 1968.

Temporary custody of offender.

122. Where a sentence of imprisonment is directed to be undergone in a civil prison the offender may be kept in Force custody or in any other fit place, till such time as it is possible to send him to a civil prison.

Execution of sentence of imprisonment in special cases.

123. Whenever, in the opinion of an officer not below the rank of Deputy Inspector-General within whose command the trial is held, any sentence or portion of a sentence of imprisonment cannot for special reasons, conveniently be carried out in Force custody in accordance with the provisions of section 121, such officer may direct that such sentence or portion of sentence shall be carried out, by confinement in any civil prison or other fit place.

Conveyance of prisoner from place to place.

124. A person under sentence of imprisonment may during his conveyance from place to place, or when on board ship, aircraft, or otherwise, be subjected to such restraint as is necessary for his safe conduct and removal.

Communication of certain orders to prison officers.

125. Whenever an order is duly made under this Act setting aside or varying any sentence, order or warrant under which any person is confined in a civil prison, a warrant in accordance with such order shall be forwarded by the officer making the order or his staff officer or such other person as may be prescribed, to the officer in charge of the prison in which such person is confined.

126. When a sentence of fine is imposed by a Security Force Court under section 46, a copy of such sentence signed and certified by the confirming officer, or where no confirmation is required, by the officer holding the trial may be sent to any magistrate in India, and such magistrate shall thereupon cause the fine to be recovered in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, as if it were a sentence of fine imposed by such magistrate.

5 of 1898.

127. Whenever any person is sentenced to imprisonment under this Act, and is undergoing the sentence in any place or manner in which he might be confined under a lawful order or warrant in pursuance of this Act, the confinement of such person shall not be deemed to be illegal only by reason of informality or error in, or as respects, the order, warrant or other document, or the authority by which, or in pursuance whereof such person was brought into, or is confined in any such place and any such order, warrant or document may be amended accordingly.

Informality or error in the order or warrant.

128. When any person subject to this Act has been convicted by a Security Force Court of any offence, the Central Government or the Director-General or, in the case of a sentence, which he could have confirmed or which did not require confirmation, an officer not below the rank of Deputy Inspector-General within whose command such person at the time of conviction was serving, or the prescribed officer may:-

Pardon and remission.

- (a) either with or without conditions which the person sentenced accepts, pardon the person or remit the whole or any part of the punishment awarded; or
- (b) mitigate the punishment awarded; or
- (c) commute such punishment for any less punishment or punishments mentioned in this Act;

- (d) either with or without conditions which the person sentenced accepts, release the person on parole.

Cancellation of conditional pardon, release on parole or remission.

129. (1) If any condition on which a person has been pardoned or released on parole or a punishment has been remitted is, in the opinion of the authority which granted the pardon, release or remission, not fulfilled, such authority may cancel the pardon, release or remission and thereupon the sentence of the court shall be carried into effect as if such pardon, release or remission had not been granted.

(2) A person whose sentence of imprisonment is carried into effect under the provisions of sub-section (1) shall undergo only the unexpired portion of his sentence.

Suspension of sentence of imprisonment.

130. (1) Where a person subject to this Act is sentenced by a Security Force Court to imprisonment, the Central Government, the Director-General or any officer empowered to convene a General Security Force Court may suspend the sentence whether or not the offender has already been committed to prison or to Force custody.

(2) The authority or officer specified in sub-section (1) may, in the case of an offender so sentenced direct that until the orders of such authority or officer have been obtained the offender shall not be committed to prison or to Force custody.

(3) The powers conferred by sub-sections (1) and (2) may be exercised in the case of any such sentence which has been confirmed, reduced or commuted.

Orders pending suspension.

131. (1) Where the sentence referred to in section 130 is imposed by a Security Force Court other than a Summary Security Force Court, the confirming officer may, when confirming the sentence, direct that the offender be not committed to prison or to Force custody until the orders of the authority or officer specified in section 130, have been obtained.

(2) Where a sentence of imprisonment is imposed by a Summary Security Force Court, the officer holding the trial or the officer authorised to approve of the sentence under sub-section (2) of section 114 may make the direction referred to in sub-section (1).

132. Where a sentence is suspended under section 130, the offender shall forthwith be released from custody. Release on suspension.

133. Any period during which the sentence is under suspension shall be reckoned as part of the term of such sentence. Computation of period of suspension.

134. The authority or officer specified in section 130 may, at any time while a sentence is suspended, order- Order after suspension.

- (a) that the offender be committed to undergo the unexpired portion of the sentence; or
- (b) that the sentence be remitted.

135. (1) Where a sentence has been suspended, the case may at any time, and shall at intervals of not more than four months, be reconsidered by the authority or officer specified in section 130, or by any officer not below the rank of a Deputy Inspector-General duly authorised by the authority or officer specified in section 130. Reconsideration of case after suspension.

(2) Where on such reconsideration by the officer so authorised it appears to him that the conduct of offender since his conviction has been such as to justify a remission of the sentence, he shall refer the matter to the authority or officer specified in section 130.

136. Where an offender, while a sentence on him is suspended under this Act, is sentenced for any other offence, then:- Fresh sentence after suspension.

(a) if the further sentence is also suspended under this Act, the two sentences shall run concurrently;

(b) if the further sentence is for a period of three months or more and is not suspended under this Act, the offender shall also be committed to prison or Force custody for the unexpired portion of the previous sentence, but both sentences shall run concurrently; and

(c) if the further sentence is for a period of less than three months and is not suspended under this Act, the offender shall be so committed on that sentence only, and the previous sentence shall, subject to any order which may be passed under section 134 or section 135 continue to be suspended.

Scope of power of suspension.

137. The powers conferred by sections 130 and 134 shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, the power of mitigation, remission and commutation.

Effect of suspension and remission on dismissal.

138. (1) Where in addition to any other sentence the punishment of dismissal has been awarded by a Security Force Court and such other sentence is suspended under section 130, then, such dismissal shall not take effect until so ordered by the authority or officer specified in section 130.

(2) If such other sentence is remitted under section 134, the punishment of dismissal shall also be remitted.

CHAPTER-X
MISCELLANEOUS

139. (1) The Central government may, by general or special order published in the Official Gazette direct that, subject to such conditions and limitations, and within the local limits of such area adjoining the borders of India, as may be specified in the order, any member of the Force may:-

Powers and duties conferrable and imposable on members of the Force.

34 of 1920.
16 of 1939.
1 of 1944.
31 of 1946.
7 of 1947.
52 of 1962.
15 of 1967.

(i) for the purpose of prevention of any offence punishable under the Passport (Entry into India) Act, 1920, the Registration of Foreigners Act, 1939, the Central Excises and Sale Act, 1944, the Foreigners Act, 1946, the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947, the Customs Act, 1962 or the Passports Act, 1967 or of any cognizable offence punishable under any other Central Act; or

(ii) for the purpose of apprehending any person who has committed any offence referred to in clause (i), exercise or discharge such of the powers or duties under that Act or any other Central Act as may be specified in the said order, being the powers and duties which, in the opinion of the Central Government, an officer of the corresponding or lower rank is by that or such other Act empowered to exercise or discharge for the said purposes.

(2) The Central Government may, by general or special order published in the Official Gazette, confer or impose, with the concurrence of the State Government concerned, any of the powers or duties which may be exercised or discharged under a State Act by a police officer upon a member of the Force who, in the opinion of the Central Government, holds a corresponding or higher rank.

(3) Every order made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the order or both Houses agree that the order should not be made, the order shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that order.

Protection for acts of members of the Force.

140. (1) In any suit or proceeding against any member of the Force for any act done by him in pursuance of a warrant or order of a competent authority, it shall be lawful for him to plead that such act was done by him under the authority of such warrant or order.

(2) Any such plea may be proved by the production of the warrant or order directing the act, and if it is so proved the member of the Force shall thereupon be discharged from liability in respect of the act so done by him, not-with-standing any defect in the jurisdiction of the authority which issued such warrant or order.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any legal proceeding (whether civil or criminal) which may lawfully be brought against any member of the Force for anything done or intended to be done under the powers conferred by, or in pursuance of any provision of this Act or the rules, shall be commenced within three months after the act complained of was committed and not otherwise, and notice in writing of such proceeding and of the cause thereof shall be given to the defendant or his superior officer atleast one month before the commencement of such proceeding.

Power to make rules.

141. (1) The Central Government may, by notification, make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

(2) in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for:-

- (a) the constitution, governance, command and discipline of the Force;
- (b) the enrolment of persons to the Force and the recruitment of other members of the Force;
- (c) the conditions of service (including deductions from pay and allowances) of members of the Force;
- (d) the rank, precedence, powers of command and authority of the officers, subordinate officers, under-officers and other persons subject to this Act;
- (e) the removal, retirement, release or discharge from the service of persons subject to this Act;
- (f) the purposes and other matters required to be prescribed under section 13;
- (g) the convening, constitution, adjournment, dissolution and sittings of Security Force Courts, the procedure to be observed in trials by such courts, the persons by whom an accused may be defended in such trials and the appearance of such persons there at;
- (h) the confirmation, revision and annulment of, and petitions against, the finding and sentences of Security Force Courts;
- (i) the forms or orders to be made under the provisions of this Act relating to Security Force Courts and the awards and infliction of death, imprisonment and detention;
- (j) the carrying into effect of sentences of Security Force Courts;

- (k) any matter necessary for the purpose of carrying this Act into execution, as far as it relates to the investigation, arrest, custody, trial and punishment of offences triable or punishable under this Act;
- (l) the ceremonials to be observed and marks of respect to be paid in the Force;
- (m) the convening of, the constitution, procedure and practice of, Courts of inquiry, the summoning of witnesses before them and the administration of oaths by such Courts;
- (n) the recruitment and conditions of service of the Chief Law Officer and the Law Officers;
- (o) any other matter which is to be, or may be prescribed or in respect of which this Act makes no provision or makes insufficient provision and provision is, in the opinion of the Central Government, necessary for the proper implementation of this Act.

(3) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Provisions as to existing Border Security Force.

142. (1) The Border Security Force in existence at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be the Force constituted under this Act.

(2) Members of the Border Security Force in existence at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been appointed or as the case may be, enrolled as such under this Act.

(3) Anything done or any action taken before the commencement of this Act in relation to the constitution of the Border Security Force referred to in sub-section (1), in relation to any person appointed or enrolled, as the case may be, thereto, shall be as valid and as effective in law as if such thing or action was done or taken under this Act.

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall render any person guilty of any offence in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him before the commencement of this Act.

S.O. 2336 dated the 9th June, 1969 - In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and (2) of section 141 of the Border Security Force Act, 1968, (47 of 1968), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, Namely:-

THE BORDER SECURITY FORCE RULES, 1969

PRELIMINARY

1. Omitted by SO 436 (E) date 29-05-1990.

(3) During hostilities, the Inspector General, the Deputy Inspector General and the commandant shall discharge such functions as may be assigned by their respective superiors.

(4) The command, discipline, administration and training of battalions, unit and establishment not placed under a Deputy Inspector General or an Inspector General shall be carried out by such officers and in such manner as may from time to time be laid down by the Director General.

(5) Any member of the Force shall be liable to perform any duties in connection with the safeguarding of the security of the border of India, the administration, discipline and welfare of the Force and such other duties as he may be called upon to perform in accordance with any law for the time being in force and any order given in this behalf by a superior officer shall be a lawful command for the purposes of the Act.

16. Command - (1) An officer appointed to command shall have the power of command over all officers and men, irrespective of seniority placed under his command.

- (2) (a) In the contingency of an officer being unable to exercise the command, to which he has been appointed, due to any reason, the command shall devolve on the second-in-command, if one has been so appointed.
- (b) If no second-in-command has been appointed, it shall devolve, on the officer who may be appointed to officiate by the immediate superior of the officer unable to exercise command.
- (c) If no such officer has been so appointed, command shall devolve on the senior most officer present.
- (d) The inability of an officer to exercise command and its assumption by any other officer in accordance with this sub-rule shall be immediately reported to Force Headquarters by the officer who has assumed command.

(3) If persons belonging to different battalions and units are working together :-

- (i) in regard to the specific task on which they are engaged, the officer appointed to command or in his absence the senior most officer present shall exercise command over all such persons;
- (ii) in all other matters the senior officer belonging to each battalion shall exercise command over persons belonging to his battalion.

(4) When officers and other persons belonging to the Force are taken prisoner by an enemy the existing relations of superior and subordinate and the duty of obedience shall remain unaltered and any person guilty of indiscipline or insubordination in this behalf shall, after his release, be liable for punishment.

(5) Disciplinary powers over a person subject to the Act shall be exercised by the Commandant of the battalion or unit to which such a person belongs or the officer on whom command has devolved in accordance with sub-rule (2).

(6) Where such a person is doing detachment duty, including attendance at a course of instruction the Commandant of the battalion, unit, centre or establishment with which he is doing such duty shall also have all the disciplinary power of a Commandant.

(7) The Director General, the Inspector General and the Deputy Inspector General may specify one or more officers of the staff who shall exercise the disciplinary powers of a Commandant in respect of persons belonging to or doing detachment duty at their respective Headquarters.

Explanation - In this rule, except in sub-rule (2) the word “officer” shall include a subordinate officer and an under officer.

CHAPTER-IVTERMINATION OF SERVICE

17. Retirement on ground of unsuitability - (1) Where the Director General is of the opinion that an officer is unfit to be retained in service, he may recommend to the Central Government that the officer be retired from service.

(2) He shall also forward to the Central Government the reason for his recommendation alongwith the record of service of the officer.

(3) The Central Government may on receipt of such recommendation and after giving the officer an opportunity to explain his case pass such order as it may deem fit.

Provided that where in the interest of security of the State it would be inexpedient so to do it shall be lawful for the Government to pass an order as aforesaid without giving the officer the opportunity to explain his case.

18. Retirement on grounds of physical unfitness - (1) Where an officer not below the rank of a Deputy Inspector General considers that an officer of the Force is unfit to perform his duties because of his physical conditions, the officer shall be brought before a medical board.

(2) The medical board shall consist of such officers and shall be constituted in such manner as may, from time to time, be laid down by the Director General.

(3) Where the medical board considers the officer to be unfit for service, the Central Government shall communicate to the said officer the findings of the medical board and thereupon, with in a period of fifteen days of such communication, the officer may make a representation against it to the Central Government.

(4) The Central Government may, on receiving the representation from the officer, refer the case to be reviewed by a fresh medical board constituted for the purpose and order the retirement of the said officer if the decision of the fresh medical board is adverse to him.

19. Resignation - (1) The Central Government may, having regard to the special circumstances of any case, permit any officer of the Force to resign from the Force before the attainment of the age of retirement or before putting in such number of years of service as may be necessary under the rules to be eligible for retirement.

Provided that while granting such permission the Central Government may:-

(i) require the officer to refund to the Government such amount as would constitute the cost of training given to that officer¹[or three months pay and allowances, whichever is higher, or Provided further that an officer of the Force tendering resignation, for accepting a job under Central or State Governments or local bodies, after having been granted cadre clearance for the same or who has completed 10 years of service shall not be required to refund the sum as provided here in above.

(2) The Central Government may accept the resignation under sub rule (1) with effect from such date as it may consider expedient.

(3) The Central Government may refuse to permit an officer to resign:

- (a) if an emergency has been declared in the Country either due to internal disturbances or external aggression; or
- (b) if considers it to be inexpedient so to do²[due to exigencies of service or in the interests of the discipline of the Force; or

1. Ins by SO 1686, dated 31-05-1996

2. Ins by SO 166 dated 14-01-1998

- (c) if the officer has specifically undertaken to serve for a specified period and such period has not expired.

(4) The provisions of this rule, shall apply to and in relation to subordinate Officer and Enrolled Persons as they apply to and in relation to any officer of the Force and the powers vested in the Central Government under sub-rules (1) and (2) shall be exercised in the case of a Subordinate Officer by a Deputy Inspector General and in the case of an Enrolled Person by a Commandant.

1[20. Termination of service of officers by the Central Government on account of misconduct] (1) when it is proposed to terminate the service of an officer under section 10 on account of mis-conduct, he shall be given an opportunity to show cause in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) against such action:-

Provided that this sub-rule shall not apply:-

- (a) where the service is terminated on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction by a criminal court or a Security Force Court; or
- (b) where the Central Government is satisfied that for reasons, to be recorded in writing, it is not expedient or reasonably practicable to give to the officer an opportunity of showing cause.

(2) When after considering the reports on an officer's misconduct, the Central Government or the Director General, as the case may be, is satisfied that the trial of the Officer by a Security Force Court is in-expedient or impracticable, but is of the opinion, that the further retention of the said officer in the service is undesirable, the Director General shall so inform the officer together with particulars of allegation and report of investigation (including the statements of witnesses, if any, recorded and copies of documents if any, intended to be used against him) in cases where allegations have been investigated and he shall be called upon to submit, in writing, his explanation and defence:

Provided that the Director General may withhold disclosure of such report or portion thereof if, in his opinion, its disclosure is not in the interest of the security of the State.

(3) In the event of explanation of the Officer being considered unsatisfactory by the Director-General, or when so directed by the Central Government, the case shall be submitted to the Central Government with the Officer's defence and the recommendations of the Director-General as to the termination of the Officer's service in the manner specified in sub-rule (4).

(4) When submitting a case to the Central Government under the provision of sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3), the Director-General shall make his recommendation whether the Officer's service should be terminated, and if so, whether the officer should be,-

- (a) dismissed from the service; or
- (b) removed from the service; or
- (c) retired from the service; or
- (d) called upon to resign.

(5) The Central Government, after considering the reports and the officer's defence, if any, or the judgement of the Criminal Court, as the case may be, and the recommendation of the Director-General, may remove or dismiss the officer with or without pension, or retire or get his resignation from service, and on his refusing to do so, the officer may be compulsorily retired or removed from the service with pension or gratuity, if any, admissible to him.

21. Termination of service of officers by the Central Government on grounds other than mis-conduct-(1) When the Director General is satisfied that an officer is unsuitable to be retained in service, the officer.-

- (a) shall be so informed;
- (b) shall be furnished with particulars of all matters adverse to him; and
- (c) shall be called upon to urge any reasons he may wish to put forward in favour of his retention in the service:

Provided that clauses (a), (b) and (c) shall not apply, if the Central Government is satisfied that, for reasons, to be recorded by it in writing, it is not expedient or reasonably practicable to comply with the provisions thereof:

Provided further that the Director-General may not furnish to the officer any matter adverse to him, if in his opinion, it is not in the interest of the security of the state to do so.

(2) In the event of the explanation being considered by the Director General unsatisfactory, the matter shall be submitted to the Central Government for orders, together with the officer's explanation and the recommendation of the Director General.

(3) The Central Government after considering the reports, the explanation, if any, of the officer and the recommendation of the Director General, may call upon the officer to retire or resign and on his refusing to do so, the officer may be compulsorily retired from the service with pension or gratuity, if any, admissible to him.

22. Dismissal or removal of persons other than officers on account of mis-conduct. (1) When it is proposed to terminate the service of a person subject to the Act other than an officer, he shall be given an opportunity by the authority competent to dismiss or remove him, to show cause in the manner specified in sub-rule (2) against such action:

Provided that this sub-rule shall not apply -

- (a) where the service is terminated on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction by a criminal court or a Security Force Court; or
- (b) where the competent authority is satisfied that, for reasons to be recorded in writing, it is not expedient or reasonably practicable to give the person concerned an opportunity or showing cause.

(2) When after considering the reports on the mis-conduct of the person concerned, the competent authority is satisfied that the trial of such a person is inexpedient or impracticable, but, is of the opinion that his further retention in the service is undesirable, it shall so inform him together with all reports adverse to him and he shall be called upon to submit, in writing, his explanation and defence:

Provided that the competent authority may withhold from disclosure any such report or portion thereof, if, in his opinion its disclosure is not in the public interest.

(3) The competent authority after considering his explanation and defence if any may dismiss or remove him from service with or without pension:

Provided that a Deputy Inspector General shall not dismiss or remove from service, a Subordinate Officer of and above the rank of a Subedar.

(4) All cases of dismissal or removal under this rule, shall be reported to the Director General.

23. Dismissal or removal by Central Government-Where the Central Government is satisfied, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that:-

- (i) it is not reasonably practicable to follow the procedure laid down in the said rules; or
 - (ii) it is not expedient, in the interests of the security of the State, to follow such procedure, it may order the dismissal or removal from the Force of a person subject to the Act without following the procedure laid down in rules 20 and 21.

¹[23A. Termination of service on conviction on a criminal charge.- When a person subject to the Act is convicted of a civil offence the competent authority may dismiss or remove him from service without holding any inquiry or issuing a show cause notice.

24. Retirement of subordinate officers and enrolled persons.- A subordinate officer or an enrolled person shall on the fulfilment of the terms and conditions of service under which he was appointed or enrolled be eligible to retire.

25. Retirement of subordinate officer and enrolled persons on grounds of physical unfitness.- (1) Where a Commandant is satisfied that a Subedar, Sub-Inspector or an enrolled person is unable to perform his duties by reason of any physical disability he may direct that the said Subedar, Sub-Inspector or the enrolled person, as the case may be, to be brought before a Medical Board.

(2) The Medical Board shall be constituted in such manner as may be determined by the Director General.

(3) Where the said Subedar, Sub-Inspector or enrolled person is found by the Medical Board to be unfit for further service in the Force, the Inspector General, the Deputy Inspector General or as the case may be, the Commandant may, if he agrees with the finding of the Medical Board order the retirement of the Subedar, the Sub-Inspector, or as the case may be, the enrolled persons:

1. Ins. by S.O. 155 (E), dated 1-3-1983.

Provided that before the said Subedar or Sub-Inspector or as the case may be, the enrolled person is so retired the finding of the Medical Board and the decision to retire him shall be communicated to him.

(4) The Subedar, the Sub-Inspector or, as the case may be, the enrolled person may, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of such communication, make a representation to the officer next superior in command to the one who ordered the retirement.

(5) The said superior officer shall have the case referred to a Review Medical Board which shall be constituted in such manner as may be determined by the Director General.

(6) The superior officer may, having regard to the finding of the Review Medical Board, pass such order as he may deem fit.

(7) Where a representation has been made to a superior officer under sub-rule (4), an order passed under sub-rule (3), shall not take effect till it is confirmed by such superior officer.

1[26. Retirement of enrolled persons on grounds of unsuitability.- Where a Commandant is satisfied that an enrolled person is unsuitable to be retained in the Force, the Commandant may, after giving such enrolled person an opportunity of showing cause (except when he considers it to be impracticable or inexpedient in the interest of security of the State, to give such opportunity), retire such enrolled person from the Force.

27. Retirement of subordinate officers on grounds of unsuitability.- (1) Where a Deputy Inspector General is satisfied that a Sub-Inspector is unsuitable to be retained in the Force, he may, after giving such Sub-Inspector an opportunity of showing cause (except when he considers it to be impracticable or inexpedient in the interest of security of State, to give such opportunity), retire the said Sub-Inspector.

(2) Where an Inspector General is satisfied that a Subedar or Subedar Major is unsuitable to be retained in the Force, he may, after giving such Subedar or Subedar Major an opportunity of showing cause (except when he considers it to be impracticable or inexpedient in the interest of security of State, to give such opportunity), retire such Subedar or Subedar Major from the Force.

28. Power to be exercised by a superior officer or authority.- Any power conferred by the provisions of this Chapter on an officer may also be exercised by an officer or authority superior in command to the first mentioned officer.

¹[28A. Petition.-²[Any person subject to the Act, who considers himself aggrieved by any order of termination of his service passed under this Chapter may; in the case of an officer, present a petition to the Central Government, in the case of an Assistant Sub Inspector or a subordinate officer, present a petition to the Director General and in the case of an enrolled person, present a petition to the Inspector General, who may pass such orders on the petition as deemed fit].

Provided that the limitation period for filing such petition shall be three months from the date of order of termination or from the date of its receipt, whichever is later.

29. Passing of orders relating to absence from duty.- Where an order of dismissal or of removal or of retirement of a person subject to the Act is set aside, the officer or authority setting aside such dismissal, removal or retirement shall pass such orders as may be necessary in respect of the period of absence from duty of the person whose dismissal, removal or retirement has been set aside.

1. Ins. by S.O. 436 (E), dated 29-5-1990.
 2. Subs Vide S.O. 1866, dated 27.6.2003.

30. Date of dismissal, removal, resignation, retirement.- The effective date of dismissal, resignation or retirement shall be:-

- (a) the date mentioned in the order of dismissal or removal or order sanctioning or accepting resignation or retirement; or
- (b) if no such date is mentioned, the date on which the order was signed or the date on which the person concerned is relieved from duties, whichever is later.

CHAPTER-VARREST AND INVESTIGATION

31. Forms of arrest. - (1) Arrest may be either open arrest or close arrest.

(2) An arrest, unless otherwise specified shall mean an open arrest.

(3) An order imposing arrest may be communicated to the person to be arrested either orally or in writing.

32. Authority to order arrest.- (1) No person subject to this Act shall be arrested on a charge under the Act except under and in accordance with the orders of a superior officer having power of command over him.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) any person subject to the Act may be placed under arrest by any superior officer:-

- (a) if he commits an offence against such superior officer; or
- (b) if he commits an offence in the view of such superior officer; or
- (c) if he is behaving in a disorderly manner and the said superior officer considers it necessary to place such a person under arrest with a view to stop such disorderly behaviour.

(3) A superior officer effecting arrest under sub-rule (2) shall as soon as possible, and in any case within twenty four hours of such arrest send a report to the Commandant of the battalion or unit of which the person arrested is a member and in case of the arrest of an officer of and above the rank of Commandant, to his immediate superior officer.

33. Arrest how imposed.- (A) Close arrest-(1) (a) Close arrest in the case of enrolled persons shall be imposed by informing the person to be arrested and ordering him to be marched to the place of confinement under an escort of persons of similar or superior rank.

(b) Where no such escort is available the person arrested shall be ordered to report himself immediately to the quarter guard or other place of confinement.

(2) (a) Close arrest in the case of officers, subordinate officers and under officers, shall be imposed by placing such officer, subordinate officer or under officers under the custody of another person of similar or superior rank and wherever considered necessary such officer, subordinate officer, or under officer may be confined under charge of a guard.

(b) The person under arrest shall not leave his quarter or tent without permission of a superior officer designated by the Commandant in this behalf.

(B) Open arrest - (3) (a) Open arrest shall be imposed by informing the person to be arrested (whether he is an officer, subordinate officer, under officer or an enrolled person) that he is under open arrest and that he shall confine himself within such limits as may be specified in this behalf by the concerned superior officer effecting such arrest.

(b) The Commandant may, from time to time, vary the limits referred to in clause (a) above.

34. Release from arrest during investigation.- (1) Any person arrested under rule 33 may be released from arrest under the order of an Assistant Commandant, Deputy Commandant, Commandant or any officer superior to the Commandant.

(2) Subject to the provisions of rule 35, no person except on the basis of any fresh evidence against him be re-arrested.

35. Release without prejudice to re-arrest.- Pending the completion of the investigation or convening of a Court any person who has been placed under arrest may without prejudice to re-arrest be released by his Commandant or by any officer superior to his Commandant.

36. Arrest when to be imposed.- (1) Any person charged with:

- (i) an offence under section 14, or clause (a) or clause (b) of section 16, or section 17 or section 20 or sub-section (1) of section 21.
- (ii) a civil offence punishable with death or imprisonment for life.
- (iii) any other offence under the Act:-
 - (a) if the interest of discipline so require, or
 - (b) if the person concerned deliberately undermines discipline, or
 - (c) if the person concerned is of violent disposition, or
 - (d) if the person concerned is likely to absent himself with a view to avoid trial, or
 - (e) if the person concerned is likely to interfere with witness or tamper with evidence, shall be placed under arrest.

(2) Where any person arrested shows symptoms of sickness, medical assistance shall be provided for such person.

37. Special provision in case of arrest of intoxicated person.- (1) Where an intoxicated person has been arrested, he shall, as far as possible, be confined separately and shall be visited by orderly officer or orderly subordinate officer or orderly under officer or under officer incharge of the guard, once every two hours.

(2) An intoxicated person shall not be taken before a superior officer for investigation of his case until he has become sober.

38. Arrest in case of person whose trial has been ordered.- (1) Unless the convening officer has otherwise directed, on the commencement of the trial of a person by the Court, the said person shall be placed under arrest and shall remain under arrest during the trial.

(2) Where a sentence lower than imprisonment is passed by a Court the arrested person shall be released by his Commandant pending confirmation of the finding and sentence:

Provided that a person who has been sentenced to be dismissed shall not, except while on active duty, be put on any duty.

39. Delay reports.- (1) (a) The report on reasons for delay as required under section 59 shall be in the form set out in Appendix-II and it shall be sent by the Commandant to the Deputy Inspector General under whom the accused may be serving.

(b) A copy of the eighth delay report and every succeeding report thereof shall also be sent to the Inspector General under whom the accused may be serving.

(2) Where the accused is kept under arrest for a period exceeding three months without being brought to trial, a special report regarding the action taken and the reasons for the delay shall be sent by the Commandant to the Director General with a copy each to the Deputy Inspector General and the Inspector General concerned.

40. Rights of a person under arrest.- (1) (a) Any person placed under arrest shall, at the time of being placed under arrest, be given in writing by the officer effecting the arrest the particulars of the charges against him.

(b) The said particulars shall be rendered in simple language and also explained to the accused.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a), where during the investigation other offences committed by the accused are discovered, it shall be lawful to charge such person with those offences.

(2) (a) The orderly officer or the orderly Subordinate Officer shall every day make a visit to the person under arrest and take the orders of the Commandant on any request or representation made by the person under arrest.

(b) The request or representation made by the person under arrest shall be entered in the form set out in Appendix-III.

(i) where a disciplinary action under the Act against him is contemplated or is pending; or

(ii) where in the opinion of the authority aforesaid, he has engaged him self in activities prejudicial to the interest or the security of the state; or

(iii) where a case against him in respect of any civil offence is under investigation, inquiry or trial.

²[Provided that the Director General may exercise the powers of suspension in respect of officers of the Force upto the rank of Deputy Commandant.

(2) A member of the Force shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by an order of the appointing authority:-

- (i) with effect from the date of his detention by civil police on a criminal charge or otherwise for a period exceeding 48 hours; or
- (ii) with effect from the date of his conviction by a civil court on a criminal charge, if the sentence awarded is imprisonment for a term exceeding 48 hours.

(3) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this rule shall continue to remain in force until it is modified or revoked by the authority competent to do so.

(4) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this rule, may at any time, be modified or revoked by the authority which made the order or by any authority to which that authority is subordinate.

(5) When a person remains under suspension for more than 90 days, a report giving reasons for delay in the finalisation of his case shall be submitted to the Director General by the Commandant of the accused and thereafter, subsequent reports shall be submitted every month till the case is finalised or the order of suspension is revoked whichever is earlier.

CHAPTER-VICHOICE OF JURISDICTION BETWEEN SECURITY FORCE COURT AND CRIMINAL COURT

41. Trial of cases either by security force court or criminal court.- (1) Where an offence is triable both by a criminal court and a Security Force Court, an officer referred to in section 80 may-

- (i) (a) Where the offence is committed by the accused in the course of the performance of his duty as a member of the Force; or
- (b) Where the offence is committed in relation to property belonging to the Government or the Force or a person subject to the Act; or
- (c) Where the offence is committed against a person subject to the Act, direct that any person subject to the Act, who is alleged to have committed such an offence, be tried by a Court, and
- (ii) in any other case, decide whether or not it would be necessary in the interests of discipline to claim for trial by a Court any person subject to the Act who is alleged to have committed such an offence.

(2) In taking a decision to claim an offender for trial by a Court, an officer referred to in section 80 may take into account all or any of the following factors, namely:

- (a) The offender is on active duty or has been warned for active duty and it is felt that he is trying to avoid such duty;
- (b) the offender is a young person undergoing training and the offence is not a serious one and the trial of the offender by a criminal court would materially affect his training.

- (c) the offender can, in view of the nature of the case, be dealt with summarily under the Act.

42. Cases not to be tried by Security Force Court.- Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-rule (1) of rule 41, an offender may not be claimed for trial by a Security Force Court:-

- (a) where the offence is committed by him alongwith any other person not subject to the Act whose identity is known; or
- (b) where the offence is committed by him while on leave or during absence without leave.

CHAPTER - VII

DISPOSAL

43. Offence report.- Where it is alleged that a person subject to the Act ¹[other than an officer or a Subordinate Officer] has committed an offence punishable thereunder the allegation shall be reduced to writing in the form set out in Appendix IV.

²[44. Charge Sheet.- Where it is alleged that an officer or a subordinate Officer has committed an offence punishable under the Act, the allegation shall be reduced to writing in the form set out in Appendix VI.

45. ²[Hearing of the charge against an enrolled person.- (1) The charge shall be heard by the Commandant of the Accused:-

- (a) The charge and statements of witnesses if recorded shall be read over to the accused. If written statements of witnesses are not available, he shall hear as many witnesses as he may consider essential to enable him to determine the issue;
 - (b) the accused shall be given an opportunity to cross examine the witnesses and make a statement in his defence.
- (2) After hearing the charge under sub-rule (1), the Commandant may:-
- (i) award any of the punishments which he is empowered to award; or
 - (ii) dismiss the charge; or
 - (iii) remand the accused, for preparing a record of evidence or for preparation of an abstract of evidence against him; or

1. Ins. by S.O. 436(E) dated 29.5.1990

2. Subs. by ibid.

- (iv) remand him for trial by a Summary Security Force Court:

Provided that, in cases where the Commandant awards more than 7 days imprisonment or detention he shall record the substance of evidence and the defence of the accused:

Provided further that he shall dismiss the charge, if in his opinion the charge is not proved or may dismiss it if he considers that because of the previous character of the accused and the nature of the charge against him it is not advisable to proceed further with it:

Provided also that, in case of all offences punishable with death a record of evidence shall be taken.

²[45 A. Hearing of charge by an officer specified under Section 53 of the Act.- (1) A specified officer may proceed against an enrolled person if,-

- (a) the charge can be summarily dealt with; or
 - (b) the case has not been reserved by the Commandant for disposal by himself; or
 - (c) the accused is not under arrest.
- (2) After hearing the charge under sub-rule (1) of the Rule 45 the specified officer may,-
- (i) award any of the punishment which he is empowered to award, or

2. Inserted S.O. 55 (E), dated 01.02.1999.

- (ii) dismiss the charge, or
 - (iii) refer the case to Commandant.

¹[45 B. Hearing of charge against an officer and a subordinate officer.- (1) (a) The charge against an officer or a subordinate officer shall be heard by his Commandant:

Provided that charge against a commandant, a Deputy Inspector-General or an Inspector General may be heard either by an officer commanding a Unit or Headquarters to which the accused may be posted or attached or by his Deputy Inspector-General, or his Inspector-General or, as the case may be, the Director-General.

- ²(b) The charge sheet and statement of witnesses, if recorded and relevant documents, if any, shall be read over to the accused if he has not absconded or deserted.

Provided that where written statements of witnesses are not available, the officer, hearing the charge shall hear as many witnesses as he may consider essential to enable him to know about the case.

- (c) The accused ³[if he has not absconded or deserted] shall be given an opportunity to make a statement in his defence.

(2) After hearing the charge under sub-rule (1), the officer who heard the charge may :-

- (i) dismiss the charge; or
- (ii) remand the accused, for preparation of a record of evidence or preparation of abstract of evidence against the accused:

Provided that he shall dismiss the charge if in his opinion the charge is not proved or may dismiss it if he considers that because of the previous character of the accused and the nature of the charge against him, it is not advisable to proceed further with it:

Provided further that in case of all offences punishable with death, a record of evidence shall be prepared.

¹[Provided also that in case of offence under Section 14, 15, 17, 18 and offence of 'murder' punishable under Section 46 of the Act, if the accused has absconded or deserted, the Commandant shall hear the charge in his absence and remand the case for preparation of record of evidence.

46. Attachment to another unit.- The Commandant shall not deal with any case:-

- (i) where the offence with which the accused is charged is against the Commandant himself; or
- (ii) where the Commandant is himself a witness in the case against the accused ; or
- (iii) where the Commandant is otherwise personally interested in the case, and the accused shall be attached to another battalion or unit for disposal of the case under the order of the Deputy Inspector General:

Provided that a Commandant shall not be disqualified from hearing a charge merely because the offence was committed against the property of a Force Mess, band or institution of which the Commandant is a member or trustee or because the offence is one of disobedience of such Commandant's orders.

47. Charges not to be dealt with summarily.- A charge for an offence under section 14 or section 15 or clauses (a) and (b) of section 16 or section 17 or clause (a) of section 18 or clause (a) section 20 or clause (a) section 24 or section 46

(other than that for simple hurt or theft) or a charge for abetment of or an attempt to commit any of these offences shall not be dealt with summarily.

48. Record of evidence.- (1) ¹[The officer ordering the record of evidence may either prepare the record of evidence himself or detail another officer to do so.

(2) The witnesses shall give their evidence in the presence of the accused and the accused shall have right to cross-examine all witnesses who give evidence against him.

²[Provided that where statement of any witness at a court of inquiry is available, examination of such a witness may be dispensed with and the original copy of the said statement may be taken on record. A copy thereof shall be given to the accused and he shall have the right to cross-examine if he was not afforded an opportunity to cross-examine the witness at the Court of Inquiry.]

(3) After all the witnesses against the accused have been examined, he shall be cautioned in the following terms; “You may make a statement if you wish to do so, you are not bound to make one and whatever you state shall be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence.” After having been cautioned in the aforesaid manner what ever the accused states shall be taken down in writing.

(4) The accused may call witnesses in defence and the officer recording the evidence may ask any question that may be necessary to clarify the evidence given by such witnesses.

(5) All witnesses shall give evidence on oath or affirmation.

Provided that, no oath or affirmation shall be given to the accused nor shall he be cross-examined.

1. Subs by S.O. 436(E), dated 29.5.1990

2. Ins. by ibid.

(6) (a) The statements given by witnesses shall ordinarily be recorded in narrative form and the officer recording the evidence may, at the request of the accused, permit any portion of the evidence to be recorded in the form of question and answer.

(b) Witnesses shall sign their statements after the same have been read over and explained to them.

(7) Where a witness cannot be compelled to attend or is not available or his attendance cannot be procured without an undue expenditure of time or money and after the officer recording the evidence has given a certificate in this behalf, a written statement signed by such witness may be read to the accused and included in the record of evidence.

(8) After the recording of evidence is completed, the officer recording the evidence shall give a certificate in following form:-

“Certified that the record of evidence ordered by Commandant was made in the presence and hearing of the accused and the provisions of rule 48 have been complied with”.

²[48 A. If a person subject to the Act absconds or deserts the force after commission of offences under Sections 14, 15, 17, 18 and offence of ‘murder’ punishable under Section 46 of the Act and there is no immediate prospect of his apprehension, the officer detailed to prepare the record of evidence shall examine the witnesses in the absence of the accused and such evidence may, on the apprehension of such accused, be given in evidence against him at the trial by a Security Force Court, if such witness is dead or incapable of giving evidence or cannot be found or his presence cannot be procured without an amount of delay, expenses or inconvenience which, under the circumstances of the case would be unreasonable.

49 Abstract of evidence.- (1) An abstract of evidence shall

1. Ins. by S.O. 329(E), dated 29.4.1981.
2. Ins. by S.O. 55(E), dated 01.02.1999

be prepared either by ¹[the officer ordering it] or an officer detailed by him.

- (2)(a) The abstract of evidence, shall include-
 - (i) signed statements of witnesses wherever available or a precis thereof,
 - (ii) copies of all documents intended to be produced at the trial.
- (b) Where signed statements of any witnesses are not available a precis of their evidence shall be included.

(3) A copy of the abstract of evidence shall be given by the officer making the same to the accused and the accused shall be given an opportunity to make a statement if he so desires after he has been cautioned in the manner laid down in sub-rule (3) of Rule 48:

Provided that the accused shall be given such time as may be reasonable in the circumstances but in no case less than twenty four hours after receiving the abstract of evidence to make his statement.

50. Investigation of cases by Police.- Where the Commandant considers it necessary so to do, he may lodge a report with the police for investigation of any case.

51. Disposal of case ²[against an enrolled person] by Commandant after record or abstract of evidence.-
 (1) Where an officer has been detailed to prepare the record of evidence or to make an abstract thereof, he shall forward the same to the Commandant.

(2) The Commandant may, after going through the record or abstract of evidence:

- (i) Dismiss the charge, or
- (ii) rehear the charge and award one of the summary punishments, or

1. Sub. by S.O. 436 (E), dated 29-05-1990.

2. *Ins. by *ibid.

- (iii) try the accused by a Summary Security Force Court where he is empowered so to do, or
- (iv) apply to a competent officer or authority to convene a Court for the trial of the accused.

(2) The officer who ordered for the preparation of record of evidence or abstract of evidence may, after going through the record or abstract of evidence:-

- (i) dismiss the charge; or
- (ii) dispose of the case summarily if he is so empowered, or
- (iii) refer the case to competent superior officer for disposal, or
- (iv) apply to a competent officer or authority to convene a General Security Force Court for the trial of the accused.

52. Application for a Court.- An application for a Court shall be made by the Commandant in the form set out in Appendix V to these rules and shall be accompanied by five copies of the record or abstract of evidence and charge sheet and such other documents as are mentioned in that application form.

1. Ins. by S.O. 436(E), dated 29.5.1990

CHAPTER - VIIION CHARGES AND MATTERS
ANTECEDENT TO TRIAL

53. Charge Sheet.- (1) A Charge Sheet shall contain the whole of the issue or issues to be tried at one time and may contain more than one charge, if the charges are founded on the same facts or form part of a series of offences of same or similar character;

Provided that a Charge under section 18, section 19, section 29, and section 32 may be included in any charge sheet, notwithstanding that other charges in that charge sheet are not founded on the same facts or do not form part of a series of offences of the same or similar character.

(2) Every charge sheet shall in its layout follow the appropriate specimen set out in Appendix VI to these rules.

54. Charges.- (1) There shall be a separate charge for each offence.

(2)(a) If a single act or series of acts is of such a nature that it is doubtful which of several offences the facts which can be proved will constitute, the accused may be charged with having committed all or any of such offences, and any number of such charges may be tried at once or he may be charged in the alternative with having committed some one of the said offences.

(b) The charge for the more serious offence shall precede the one for the less serious offence.

(3) Each charge shall consist of two parts, namely:

(a) statement of offence; and

(b) particulars of the offence.

(4) The offence shall be stated, if not a civil offence, as nearly as practicable, in the words of the Act, and if a civil offence, in such words as would sufficiently describe that offence.

(5)(a) The particulars shall state the time and place of the alleged offence and the person (if any) against whom, or the thing (if any) in respect of which, it was committed and these should be sufficient to give the accused notice of the matter with which he is charged.

(b) In case such particulars are not sufficient to give the accused notice of the matter with which he is charged, the charges shall also contain such particulars of the manner in which the offence was committed as will be sufficient for that purpose.

55. Joint charges.- (1) Any number of accused may be charged jointly and tried together for an offence averred to have been committed jointly by them.

(2) Any number of accused though not charged jointly may also be tried together for an offence averred to have been committed by one or more of them and abetted by other or others.

(3) Where the accused are so charged under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2), any one or more of them may be charged with, and tried for, any other offence with which they could have been charged under sub-rule (1) of rule 53.

56. Validity of charge sheet.- A charge sheet shall not be invalid merely by reason of the fact that it contains any mistake in the name or description of the accused, and in the construction of a charge sheet there shall be presumed in favour of supporting it every proposition which may reasonably be presumed to be impliedly included, though not expressed there in, and the statement of the offence and the particulars of the offence shall be read and construed together.

57. Amendment of the charge by the Security Force Court.- (1) At any time during a trial, if it appears to the court that there is in the charge sheet;

- (a) a mistake in the name or description of the accused; or
- (b) a mistake which is attributable to a clerical error or omission, the Court may amend the charge-sheet so as to correct the mistake.

(2) If at any time during a trial, at which there is a Law Officer, it appears to the Court, before it closes to deliberate on its findings, that it is desirable in the interests of justice to make any addition to, omission from or alteration in, a charge which cannot be made under sub-rule (1) of this rule it may, if such addition, omission, or alteration can be made without unfairness to the accused, and with the concurrence of the Law Officer, so amend the charge.

(3) If at any time during a trial, at which there is no Law Officer, it appears to the Court, before it closes to deliberate on its findings, that in the interests of justice it is desirable to make any addition to omission from or alteration in a charge which cannot be made under sub-rule (1) of this rule, it may adjourn and report its opinion to the convening officer, who may :-

- (a) amend the charge if permissible under Rule 58 and direct the Court to try it as amended after due notice of the amendment has been given to the accused; or
- (b) direct the Court to proceed with the trial of the charge without amending it; or
- (c) convene a fresh Court to try the accused.

58. Amendment of charge by Convening Officer.- When a Security Force Court reports to the convening officer under either Rule 57 or Rule 73 he may amend the charge in respect of which the Court has reported to him by making any addition to, omission from or alteration in the charge which, in his opinion, is desirable in the interests of justice and which he is satisfied can be made without unfairness to the accused.

¹[CONVENING OF GENERAL AND PETTY SECURITY FORCE COURTS

59. Action by a Superior Authority on receiving an application for convening a court.- (1) As soon as a superior officer receives an application for convening a court, he shall scrutinise the charge and the evidence against the accused, where necessary in consultation with the Chief Law Officer or a Law Officer and he:

- (i) shall direct the Commandant to dismiss the charge where the evidence against the accused is insufficient and further evidence is not likely to be available and may direct him to do so if he considers it inadvisable to proceed with the trial; or
- (ii) may return the case to Commandant for being tried by a Summary Security Force Court or being dealt with summarily if he considers that the same can be adequately so tried or dealt with; or
- (iii) may return the case for recording further evidence, if he considers the evidence recorded insufficient but considers that further evidence may be available.

(2)(a) In any other case he may either himself convene a Court or if he considers that a higher type of Court should be convened and he is not empowered to convene such a Court, forward the case to a higher authority with recommendation that such Court may be convened.

1. Subs. by S.O. 329 (E), dated 29.4.1981.

(b) The higher authority on receiving the case may exercise any of the powers given in sub-rule (1) of this rule:

Provided that a superior officer or higher authority before convening a General Security Force Court or a Petty Security Force Court ¹[] shall take the advice of the Chief Law Officer or a Law officer.

Provided further that the superior authority or higher authority while convening a Court may reframe the charge sheet on which the accused is to be tried.

60. ²[Disqualification of officers for serving on General and Petty Security Courts.]- An officer shall be disqualified from serving on a Court if he:-

- (i) is an officer who convened the Court; or
- (ii) is the prosecutor or a witness for the prosecution; or
- (iii) has taken any part in the investigation of the case, which would have necessitated his applying his mind to any part of the evidence, or to the facts of the case; or
- (iv) is the Commandant of the accused; or
- (v) has a personal interest in the case.

61. ²[Composition of General and Petty Security Force Courts.- (1) A court shall consist, as far as practicable, of officers of different battalions ³[or units].

(2) The members of a court for the trial of an officer shall be of a rank not lower than the rank of that officer, unless in the opinion of the convening officer, officers of such rank are not, having due regard to the exigencies of public service, available. Such opinion shall be recorded in the convening order.

(3) A court for the trial of a Commandant shall as far as possible, consist of officers who are or have been commandants or who hold, or have held, a higher appointment.

1. Omitted by S.O. 329 (E) dated 29-04-1981.
 2. Sub by ibid.
 3. Ins. by S.O. 436 (E) dated 29-05-1990.

62. Duties of convening officers when convening courts.- When an officer convenes a Court he shall;

- (a) issue a convening order in the appropriate form set out in Appendix VII;
- (b) direct upon what charges the accused is to be tried and ensure that the accused has been remanded for trial by a Court upon these charges, by his Commandant;
- (c) if he is of the opinion that charges shall be put in separate charge sheets, so direct and shall also direct the order in which they are to be tried;
- (d) direct, if there is more than one accused whether the accused are to be tried jointly or separately;
- (e) appoint members of the Court and any waiting members;
- (f) if convening:-
 - (i) a General Security Force Court; or
 - (ii) a Petty Security Force Court which he considers should be attended by a law officer, take the necessary steps to procure the appointment of Law Officer by or on behalf of the Chief Law Officer;
- (g) appoint an officer, subject to the Act or a counsel assisted by such an officer to prosecute or detail a Commandant to appoint an officer subject to the Act, to prosecute:

Provided that the convening officer may appoint more than one such officer to prosecute if he thinks fit;

- (h) appoint an interpreter wherever necessary;

- (i) send to the senior member the charge sheet, the convening order and a copy of the record or abstract of evidence from which any evidence which in his opinion would be inadmissible at the trial has been expurgated;
 - (j) forward to each member of the Court and to each waiting member a copy of the charge sheet;
 - (k) forward to the prosecutor copies of the charge sheet and convening order and the original record or abstract of evidence together with an unexpurgated copy there of showing the passages (if any) which have been expurgated in the copy sent to the senior member;
 - (l) forward to the Law Officer (if any) copies of the charge sheet and convening order and an unexpurgated copy of the record or abstract of evidence showing the passages (if any) which have been expurgated in the copy sent to the senior member;
 - (m) ensure that the Commandant has summoned all the prosecution witnesses and such defence witnesses as the accused may have requested to be summoned under rule 64.

63. Preparation of defence by the accused.- (1) An accused, who has been remanded for trial, shall be afforded proper opportunity for preparing his defence and shall be allowed proper communication with his defending officer or counsel and with his witnesses.

(2) A defending officer shall be appointed to defend an accused who has been remanded for trial unless the accused states in writing that he does not wish such an appointment to be made.

(3) if the prosecution is to be undertaken by a legally qualified officer or by a counsel the accused shall be notified of this fact in sufficient time to enable him, if he so desires to make arrangement for a legally qualified officer or counsel to defend him.

(4) As soon as practicable after a decision has been taken to place the accused on trial and in any case not less than four days before his trial he shall be given:

- (a) a copy of the charge-sheet;
- (b) an unexpurgated copy of the record or abstract of evidence showing the passages (if any), which have been expurgated in the copy sent to the senior member;
- (c) notice of any additional evidence which the prosecution intends to adduce; and
- (d) if the accused so requires, a list of the ranks names and units of the members who are to form the Court and of any waiting members.

(5) when an accused is given a copy of the charge-sheet and of the record or abstract of evidence in accordance with this rule, he shall:

- (a) have the charge explained to him; and
- (b) be informed that, upon his making a written request to his Commandant not less than twenty four hours before his trial requiring the attendance at his trial of a witness (other than a witness for the prosecution) whom he desires to call in his defence (such witness to be named by him), reasonable steps will be taken in accordance with these rules to procure the attendance of any such witness at his trial.

(6) The provisions of sub-rules (2) and (3) shall not apply in relation to a trial before a Summary Security Force Court and in relation to such a trial the period of four days referred to in sub-rule (4) shall be construed as twenty four hours.

SUMMONING OF DEFENCE WITNESSES

64. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rules (2) and (3) the Commandant shall, on a request made in this behalf by the accused, summon such witnesses as are specified by the accused.

(2) Where the Commandant is satisfied that the evidence to be given by any witness is not likely to be of material assistance at the trial he may refuse to summon such witness.

(3) The Commandant may before summoning any witness, require the accused to defray or undertake to defray the cost of attendance of such witness and if the accused refuses to defray or undertake to defray the cost aforesaid, the Commandant may refuse to procure the attendance of that witness.

(4) Where the Commandant has refused to summon the witness under sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3), the accused may make an application to the Court for the summoning of such witness and the Court may, if it considers it to be expedient in the interests of justice, order the summoning of such witness and, if necessary, adjourn the proceeding for the attendance of such witness.

CHAPTER-IXPROCEDURE FOR SECURITY FORCE
COURTS

65. Assembly and Swearing of Court : (1) Upon a Security Force Court assembling the Court shall, before beginning the trial, satisfy itself in closed court:-

- (a) that the Court has been convened in accordance with the Act and these rules;
- (b) that the Court consists of not less than the minimum number of officers required by law;
- (c) that the members are of the required rank;
- (d) that members have been duly appointed and are not disqualified under the Act;
- (e) that if there is Law Officer he has been duly appointed;
- (f) that the accused appears from the charge sheet, to be subject to the Act and to be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court; and
- (g) that each charge is correct in law and framed in accordance with these rules;

(2)(a) Where a vacancy occurs through a member of the court being disqualified under the Act or being absent when the Court assembles, the presiding officer may appoint a duly qualified waiting member to fill that vacancy.

(b) The Presiding Officer may if the interests of justice so require, substitute a duly qualified waiting member for a member appointed by the convening officer.

(3) If the Court is not satisfied on any of the matters mentioned in sub-rule (1) and is not competent to rectify such matters itself under the Act or these rules, it shall before commencing the trial, report thereon to the convening officer.

(4) When the Court has complied with this rule and is ready to proceed with the trial, the presiding officer shall open the Court and the trial shall begin.

66. Commencement of Trial : (1) The order convening the Court and the names of the officers appointed to try the accused shall be read in the hearing of the accused who shall be given an opportunity to object to any of those officers in accordance with section 84 of the Act.

(2) When a Court is to try more than one accused whether separately or jointly, each accused shall be given an opportunity to object to any officer on the Court in accordance with the foregoing sub-rule and shall be asked separately whether he has any such objection.

(3) An accused shall state the names of all the officers to whom he objects before any objection is disposed of.

(4) If more than one officer is objected to; the objection to each officer shall be disposed of separately and the objection to the lowest in rank shall be disposed of first.

(5) An accused may make a statement and call any person to make a statement in support of his objection.

(6) An officer to whom the accused has objected may state in open Court anything relevant to the objection of the accused whether in support or in rebuttal thereof.

(7) An objection to an officer shall be considered in closed Court by all the other officers on the Court and the officer objected to shall not be present at that time.

(8) When an objection to an officer is allowed under sub-section(3) of section 84 that officer shall forthwith retire and take no further part in the proceedings.

(9) When an officer objected to retire and there is duly qualified waiting member in attendance, the presiding officer shall immediately appoint him to take the place of the officer who has retired.

(10) The Court shall satisfy itself that a waiting member who takes that place of a member of the Court is of the required rank and not disqualified under the Act and shall give the accused an opportunity to object to him and shall deal with any such objection in accordance with the Act and these rules.

(11) If as the result of the allowance of an objection to a member there are insufficient officers available to form a Court in compliance with the Act the Court shall report to the convening officer without proceeding further with the trial and convening officer may either appoint an officer as a member to fill the vacancy or convene a fresh Court to try the accused.

67. Swearing or Affirming of Members: As soon as the Court is constituted with the proper number of officers who are not objected to or objections in respect of whom have been overruled, an oath or affirmation shall be administered to every member in presence of the accused in one of the following forms or in such other form to the same purport as the Court ascertains to be according to his religion or otherwise binding on his conscience.

FORM OF OATH

“I, swear by Almighty God, that I will, well and truly, try the accused (or accused persons), before the Court, according to the evidence and that I will, duly administer justice, according to the Border Security Force Act, 1968, without partiality, favour or affection; and I do further swear that I will not, on any account, at any time, whatsoever, disclose or discover, the vote or opinion of any particular member of the Court unless required to give evidence there-of by a court of law”.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

“I do solemnly, sincerely and truly, declare and affirm, that I will well and truly, try the accused (or accused persons), before the court, according to the evidence, and that I will, duly administer justice according to the Border Security Force Act, 1968, without partiality, favour or affection; and I do further solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will not, on any account at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover, the vote or opinion of any particular member of this Court unless required to give evidence there-of by a Court of Law”.

68. Swearing or Affirmation of Law Officer and other officers: After the members of the Court are all sworn or have made affirmation, an oath or affirmation shall be administered to the following persons or such of them as are present at the Court in such of the following forms as shall be appropriate, or in such other form to the same purport as the Court ascertains to be according to the religion or otherwise binding on the conscience of the person to be sworn or affirmed.

(A) LAW OFFICER

FORM OF OATH

“I, swear by Almighty God that I will, to the best of my ability, carry out the duties of Law Officer, in accordance with the Border Security Force Act, 1968 and the rules made there-under without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further swear that I will not, on any account at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion on any matter of any particular member of this Court, unless required to give evidence thereof by a court of law”.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

“I do hereby, solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will, to the best of my ability, carry out the duties of Law Officer in accordance with the Border Security Force Act, 1968 and the rules made thereunder without partiality, favour or affection, and I do further solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm, that I will not, on any account, at any time, whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion, on any matter of any particular member of this Court, unless required to give evidence thereof by a court of law”.

(B) OFFICER ATTENDING FOR THE PURPOSE OF INSTRUCTION:

FORM OF OATH

“I, swear by Almighty God that I will not on any account; at any time whatsoever disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of this Court unless required to give evidence thereof by a court of law”.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

“I, do solemnly, sincerely and truly, declare and affirm that I will not on any account, at any time whatsoever, disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular, member of this Court unless required to give evidence thereof by a court of law”.

(C) SHORTHAND WRITER:

FORM OF OATH

“I, swear by Almighty God that I will truly take down to the best of my power, the evidence to be given before this Court and such other matters as I may be required to take down and will, when required, deliver to the Court a true transcript of the same”.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

“I, do solemnly, sincerely and truly, declare and affirm that I will truly take down to the best of my power the evidence to be given before this Court and such other matters as I may be required to take down and will, when required, deliver to the court a true transcript of the same”.

(D) INTERPRETER:

FORM OF OATH

“I, swear by Almighty God that I will faithfully, interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this Court”.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

“I, do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will faithfully interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do, touching the matter before this Court”.

69. Objection to Interpreter or Shorthand Writer.-

A person shall not be sworn or affirmed as an interpreter or shorthand writer, if he is objected to by the accused unless the court after hearing the accused and the prosecutor, disallows such objection as being unreasonable.

70. Objection to Law Officer and Prosecutor.- The accused shall not be permitted to object to the Law Officer or the prosecutor.

71. Arraignment.- (1) When the Court and the Law Officer (if any) have been sworn, the charge shall be read to the accused and shall be asked whether he pleads guilty or not guilty to the charge or charges.

(2) If there is more than one charge against the accused he shall be required to plead separately to each charge.

(3) If there is more than one charge-sheet, against the accused, before the Court, the Court shall proceed with the charges in the first of such charge-sheets and shall announce its finding thereon and if the accused has pleaded guilty comply with rule 78 before it arraigns him upon the charges in any subsequent charge-sheet.

72. Plea to Jurisdiction.- (1) The accused, before pleading to the charge, may offer a plea regarding the jurisdiction of the Court; and in such a case-

- (a) the accused may adduce evidence in support of the plea and the prosecutor may adduce evidence in answer thereto ; and
- (b) The prosecutor may address the Court in answer to the plea and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(2) If the Court allows the plea it shall adjourn and report to the convening officer.

(3) When the Court reports to the convening officer under this rule, the convening officer shall :-

- (a) if he approves the decision of the Court to allow the plea, dissolve the Court;
- (b) if he disapproves the decision of the court; either:
 - (i) refer the matter back to the Court and direct them to proceed with the trial ;
 - or
 - (ii) convene a fresh Court to try the accused.

73. Objection to the charge.- (1) An accused before pleading to a charge may object to it on the grounds that it is not correct in law or is not framed in accordance with these rules and if he does so, the prosecutor may address the Court in answer to the objection and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(2) If the Court upholds the objection, it shall either amend the charge if permissible under rule 57 or adjourn and report to the convening officer:

Provided that if there is another charge or another charge sheet before the Court the Court may, before adjourning under this rule, proceed with the trial of such other charge or other charge-sheet.

(3) When the Court reports to the convening officer under this rule, the convening officer shall:-

- (a) if he approves the decision of the Court to allow the objection:-
 - (i) dissolve the Court; or
 - (ii) where there is another charge or another charge sheet before the Court to which the objection does not relate and which the Court has not tried direct the Court to proceed with the trial of such other charge or charge-sheet only; or
 - (iii) amend the charge to which the objection relates if permissible under rule 58 and direct the Court to try it as amended;
- (b) If he disapproves the decision of the Court to allow the objection:-
 - (i) direct the Court to try the charge, or
 - (ii) where there is another charge or another charge-sheet before the Court to which the objection does not relate and which the Court has not tried, direct the Court to proceed with the trial, of such other charge or charge sheet only, or

- (iii) convene a fresh Court to try the accused.

74. Plea in bar of trial.- (1) An accused before pleading to a charge may offer a plea that the trial is barred under section 75 or section 76. If he does so:-

- (a) the accused may adduce evidence in support of the plea and the prosecutor may adduce evidence in answer there-to, and
- (b) the prosecutor may address the Court in answer to the plea and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(2) If the Court allows the plea it shall adjourn and report to the convening officer :

Provided that if there is another charge or another charge-sheet before the Court, the Court may, before adjourning under this rule, proceed with the trial of such other charge or other charge-sheet.

(3) When a Court reports to the convening officer under this rule, the convening officer shall:-

- (a) if he approves the decision of the Court to allow the plea,
 - (i) dissolve the Court; or
 - (ii) where there is another charge or another charge-sheet before the Court to which the plea does not (relate and which the Court has) not tried, direct the Court to proceed with the trial of such other charge or charge-sheet only,

- (b) if he disapproves the decision of the Court to allow the plea:-
- (i) direct the Court to try the charge; or
 - (iii) convene a fresh Court to try the accused.

75. Application for separate trial.- (1) Where two or more accused are charged jointly, any one of the accused may, before pleading to the charge, apply to the Court to be tried separately on the ground that he would be prejudiced in his defence if he were not tried separately.

(2) Where the accused makes such an application, the prosecutor may address the Court in answer thereto and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(3) Where the Court is of the opinion that the interest of justice so require it shall allow the application and try separately the accused who made it.

76. Application for trial on separate charge-sheet.- (1) Where a charge-sheet contains more than one charge, the accused may, before pleading to the charges, apply to the court to be tried separately on any charge in that charge-sheet on the ground that he would be prejudiced in his defence if he were not tried separately on that charge.

(2) Where the accused makes such an application, the prosecutor may address the Court in the answer thereto and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(3) Where the Court is of the opinion that interests of justice so require it shall allow the application and try the accused separately on the charge to which it relates as if that charge had been inserted in a separate charge-sheet.

77. Pleading to the charge.- (1) After any plea under rules 72 and 74 and any objection under rule 73 and any applications under rules 75 and 76 have been dealt with, the accused shall be required subject to sub-rule. (2) to plead either guilty or not guilty to each charge on which he is arraigned.

(2) Where a Court is empowered by section 93 to find an accused guilty of an offence other than that charged or guilty of committing the offence in circumstances involving a less degree of punishment or where it could after hearing the evidence, make a special finding of guilty subject to exceptions or variations in accordance with rule 99 the accused may plead guilty to such other offence or to the offence charged as having been committed in circumstances involving a less degree of punishment or to the offence charged subject to such exceptions or variations.

78. Acceptance of Plea of guilty.- (1) Where an accused pleads guilty to a charge under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 77, the presiding officer or Law Officer shall, before the Court decides to accept the plea, explain to the accused the nature of the charge and the general effect of his plea and in particular the difference in procedure when an accused pleads guilty and when an accused pleads not guilty.

(2) A Court shall not accept a plea of guilty under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 77, if:-

- (a) the court is not satisfied that the accused understands the nature of the charge or the effect of his plea; or
- (b) the presiding officer having regard to all the circumstances, considers that the accused should plead not guilty; or

(c) the accused is liable, if convicted, to be sentenced to death;

(3)(a) In the case of a plea of guilty under rule 79, a Court shall not accept the plea unless the convening officer concurs and it is satisfied of the justice of such course.

(b) The concurrence of the convening officer may be signified by the prosecutor.

(4) When a plea of guilty under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 77 is not accepted by the Court or the accused either refuses to plead to the charge or does not plead to it intelligibly, the Court shall record a plea of not guilty.

(5) When a Court is satisfied that it can properly accept a plea of guilty under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 77, it shall record a finding of guilty in respect thereof.

79. Plea on alternative charge.- (1) When an accused pleads guilty to the first of two or more alternative charges, the Court, if it accepts the plea of guilty, shall record a finding of guilty in respect of the first charge and the prosecutor shall withdraw any alternative charge before the accused is arraigned on it.

(2) When an accused pleads guilty to one of two or more charges which are laid in the alternative other than the first of such charges, the Court may:-

(a) proceed as if the accused had pleaded not guilty to all the charges; or

(b) (i) With concurrence of the convening officer (which may be signified by the prosecutor) record a finding of guilty on the charge to which the accused has pleaded guilty and a finding of not guilty on any alternative charge which is placed before it in the charge-sheet.

- (ii) Where the Court records such finding the prosecutor shall before the accused is arraigned on it withdraw any charge which is alternative to the charge of which the Court has found the accused guilty and which is placed after it in the charge-sheet.

80. Order of trial where plea of guilty and not guilty.-

(1) After the Court has recorded a finding of guilty, if there is no other charge in the same charge-sheet to which the accused has pleaded not guilty and no other accused who has pleaded not guilty to a charge in that charge-sheet, it shall proceed with the trial as directed by rule 81.

(2) Where there is another charge in the charge-sheet to which the accused has pleaded not guilty (or there is another accused who has pleaded not guilty) to a charge in that charge sheet, the Court shall not comply with rule 81 until after it has dealt with such other charge or tried such other accused and has announced and recorded its finding in respect thereof.

81. Procedure on plea of guilty.- (1) When the Court has recorded a finding of guilty in respect of charge to which an accused had pleaded guilty the prosecutor shall read the record or abstract of evidence to the Court or inform the Court of the facts contained therein:

Provided that if an expurgated copy of the record or abstract of evidence was sent to the presiding officer, the prosecutor shall not read to the Court those parts of the record or abstract of evidence which have been expurgated or inform the Court of the facts contained in those parts, and shall not hand the original record or abstract of evidence to the Court until the trial is concluded.

(2) 1 (* * *).

(3) After 2 (sub-rule (1) has been complied with, the accused may:-

1. Omitted by S.O. 436(E), dated 29.5.1990.
 2. Subs by ibid.

- (a) adduce evidence of character and in mitigation of punishment;
 - (b) address the Court in mitigation of punishment;
 - (4) After sub-rule (3) has complied with, the court shall proceed as directed in rule 101.

82. Change of plea.- (1) An accused who has pleaded not guilty may at any time before the Court closes to deliberate on its finding withdraw his plea of not guilty and substitute a plea of guilty (including a plea of guilty under rule 79) and in such a case the Court shall, if it is satisfied that it can accept the accused's changed plea under these rules, record a finding in accordance with the accused's changed plea and so far as is necessary proceed as directed by rule 81.

(2) Where at any time during the trial it appears to the court that an accused who has pleaded guilty does not understand the effect of his plea or the nature of the charge the Court shall enter a plea of not guilty and proceed with the trial accordingly.

(3) When the Court records a plea of not guilty in respect of any charge under sub-rule (2) it shall, if there was a charge laid in the alternative thereto to which the prosecutor withdrew under rule 79, reinstate such alternative charge, arraign the accused thereon and proceed with the trial as if it had never been withdrawn.

83. Procedure on pleas of not guilty.- After a plea of not guilty to any charge has been recorded:-

- (i) the Court shall ask the accused whether he wishes to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of these rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with and that he has been prejudiced thereby

- or on the ground that he has not had sufficient opportunity for preparing his defence;
- (ii) where the accused applies for an adjournment;
 - (a) the accused may adduce evidence in support of his application and the prosecutor may adduce evidence in answer thereto; and
 - (b) the prosecutor may address the Court in answer to the application and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.
 - (iii) the Court may grant an adjournment if it thinks the interests of justice so require.

84. Opening Address.- (1) The prosecutor may, if he so desires, and shall, if required by the Court, make an opening address explaining the charge and the nature and general effect of the evidence which he proposes to adduce.

(2) The witnesses for the prosecution shall then be called and give their evidence.

85. Additional Witness.- Where the prosecutor intends to adduce evidence which is not contained in any record or abstract of evidence given to the accused notice of such intention together with the particulars of the evidence shall, when practicable, be given to the accused a reasonable time before the evidence is adduced. If such evidence is adduced without such notice or particulars having been given, the Court may, if the accused so desires either adjourn after receiving the evidence or allow any cross-examination arising out of that evidence to be postponed, and the Court shall inform the accused of his right to apply for such an adjournment or postponement.

86. Dropping Witnesses.- The prosecutor shall not be bound to call all the witnesses against the accused whose evidence is contained in the record or abstract of evidence, nor a witness when he has notified the accused that he intends to call under rule 85, but if the prosecutor does not intend to call such witness to give evidence, he shall either tender him for cross-examination by the accused, or give the accused reasonable notice that he does not intend to call the witness and that the accused will be allowed to communicate with him and to call him as a witness for the defence, if he so desires and if the witness is available.

87. Withdrawal of Witnesses.- During a trial a witness other than the prosecutor or accused shall not, except by leave of the Court, be in court while not under examination, and if while he is under examination a discussion arises as to whether a question is to be allowed or not with regard to his evidence the Court may direct the witness to withdraw during such discussion.

88. Examination of Witnesses.- (1) A witness may be examined by the person calling him and may be cross examined by the opposite party to the proceedings and on the conclusion of any such cross-examination may be re-examined by the person who called him on matters arising out of the cross-examination.

(2)(a) The person examining a witness shall put his questions to the witness orally and unless an objection is made by the witness, the Court, the Law Officer, the prosecutor or by the accused, the witness shall reply forthwith.

(b) Where such an objection is made, the witness shall not reply until the objection has been disposed of.

(3) The Court may allow the cross-examination or re-examination of a witness to be postponed.

(4) Before the examination of a witness, he shall be administered an oath or affirmation in the following form or in such other form to the same purport as the court ascertains to be in accordance with his religion or otherwise binding on his conscience.

FORM OF OATH

“I, swear by Almighty God that whatever I shall state, shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth”.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

“I, do solemnly, truly and sincerely declare and affirm that whatever I shall state, shall be the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth.”

89. Questioning by the Court.-

(1) The presiding officer, the Law Officer and any member of the Court may put questions to a witness.

(2) Upon any such question being answered, the prosecutor and the accused may put to the witness such questions arising from the answer which he has given as seem proper to the Court.

90. Reading over of evidence

(1)(a) The record which has been made of the evidence given by a witness shall be read back to him before he leaves the Court and when this is done he may ask for the record to be corrected or explain the evidence which he has given.

(b) Where any such correction is made or explanation given, the prosecutor and the accused may put such questions to the witness respecting the correction or explanation as seem proper to the Court.

(2) When a short hand writer is employed it shall not be necessary to comply with sub-rule (1), if in the opinion of the Court and the Law Officer (if any) it is unnecessary to do so.

Provided that if any witness so demands, sub-rule (1) shall be complied with.

91. Calling or recalling witnesses by the Court.- (1)(a) The Court may at any time before it closes to deliberate on its finding or if there is a Law Officer before he begins to sum up, call a witness or recall a witness, if in the opinion of the Court it is in the interest of justice to do so.

(b) Where the Court calls a witness or recalls a witness under this rule, the prosecutor and the accused may put such questions to the witness as seem proper to the Court.

(2) The prosecutor and the accused may, at any time before the Court closes to deliberate on its finding or if there is a Law Officer before he begins to sum up, recall a witness by leave of the Court and the prosecutor and the accused may put such questions to the witness as seem proper to the Court (R-95).

92. Submission of no case to answer and stopping of cases.-

(1)(a) At the close of the case for the prosecution the accused may submit to the Court in respect of any charge that the prosecution has failed to establish a prima-facie case for him to answer and that he should not be called upon to make his defence to that charge.

(b) Where the accused makes such submission the prosecutor may address the Court in answer thereto and the accused may reply to the prosecutor's address.

(2) The Court shall not allow the submission unless it is satisfied that:-

(a) the prosecution has not established a prima facie case on the charge as laid; and

(b) it is not open to it on the evidence to make a special finding under either section 93 or sub-rule (4) of Rule 99.

(3) (a) Where the Court allows the submission, it, shall find the accused not guilty of the charge to which it relates and subject to confirmation the finding shall forthwith be announced in open Court.

(b) Where the Court disallows the submission it shall proceed with the trial of the offence as charged.

(4) The Court may, of its own motion, after the close of the hearing of the case for the prosecution, and after hearing the prosecutor find the accused not guilty of the charge and subject to confirmation the finding shall forthwith be announced in open Court.

93. Case for the defence.- (1) After the close of the case for the prosecution, the presiding officer or the Law Officer (if any) shall explain to the accused that:-

(a) if he wishes, he may give evidence on oath as a witness or make a statement without being sworn but that he is not obliged to do either.

(b) if he gives evidence on oath, he shall be liable to be cross examined by the prosecutor and to be questioned by the Court.

(2) For the purpose of enabling the accused to explain any circumstances appearing in the evidence against him, the Court may, at any stage of the trial, without previously warning the accused, put such questions to him as the Court considers necessary, and shall for the purpose aforesaid, question him generally on the case after the witnesses for the prosecution have been examined and before he is called on for his defence.

(3) The accused shall not render himself liable to punishments by refusing to answer such questions, or by giving false answers to them but the Court may draw such inference from such refusal or answers as it thinks just.

(4) The answers given by the accused may be taken into consideration in such trial and put, in evidence for or against him in any other inquiry into, or trial for, any other offence which such answers may tend to show he has committed.

(5) If the accused intends to call a witness to the facts of the case other than himself, he may make an opening address outlining the case for the defence before the evidence for the defence is given.

94. Witnesses for defence.- (1) After rule 93 has been complied with the witnesses for the defence (if any) shall be called to give their evidence.

(2) The provisions of rules 88, 89 and 90 shall apply to the witnesses for the defence as they apply to the evidence of witnesses for the prosecution.

95. Witnesses in reply.- After the witnesses for the defence have given their evidence the prosecutor may by leave of the Court call a witness or recall a witness to give evidence on any matter raised by the accused in his defence which the prosecution could not properly have mentioned to the Court before the accused disclosed his defence or which the prosecution could not reasonably have foreseen. (R-91)

96. Closing addresses.- (1) After all the evidence has been given, the prosecutor and the accused may each make a closing address to the Court.

(2) The accused shall be entitled to make his closing address after the closing address by the prosecutor unless the accused has called a witness to facts other than himself, in which case the prosecutor shall be entitled, subject to sub-rules (3) and (4) to make his closing address after the accused has made the closing address.

(3) Where two or more accused are tried jointly any one of them who has called no such witness shall be entitled to make his closing address after the prosecutor has made the closing address.

(4)(a) Where two or more accused are represented by same defending officer or counsel he may make one closing address only.

(b) Where any one of the accused for whom he appears has called no witness to facts other than himself such defending officer or counsel shall be entitled to make his closing address after the prosecutor has made the closing address.

97. Summing up by Law Officer.- After the closing address, if there is a Law Officer he shall sum up the evidence and advise the Court on the law relating to the case in open court.

98. Deliberation on finding.- (1) The Court shall deliberate on its finding in closed Court in the presence of Law Officer.

(2) The opinion of each member of the Court as to the finding shall be given by word of mouth on each charge separately starting with the junior most in rank.

99. Record and announcement of Finding.- ¹(1) The finding on every charge upon which the accused is arraigned shall be recorded and, except as provided in these rules, shall be recorded as finding of 'Guilty' or of 'Not Guilty'. After recording the finding on each charge, the Court shall give brief reasons in support thereof. The Law Officer or, if there is none, the Presiding Officer shall record or cause to be recorded such brief reasons in the proceedings. The above record shall be signed and dated by the Presiding Officer and the Law Officer, if any.

1. Subs- S.O. 2032 dated 09.07.2003

(2) Where the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts proved do not disclose the offence charge or any offence of which he might under the Act legally be found guilty on the charge as laid, the Court shall acquit the accused of that charge.

(3) If the Court has doubts as regards any charge whether the facts proved show the accused to be guilty on the charge as laid, it may, before recording a finding on that charge, refer to the confirming authority for an opinion, setting out the facts which it finds to be proved and may if necessary adjourn for that purpose.

(4) Where the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts which it finds to be proved in evidence differ materially from the facts alleged in the statement of particulars in the charge but are nevertheless sufficient to prove the offence stated in the charge, and that the difference is not so material as to have prejudiced the accused in his defence, it may, instead of a finding of 'Not Guilty' record a special finding.

(5) The special finding may find the accused guilty on a charge subject to the statement of exceptions or variations specified therein.

(6) Where there are alternative charges, and the facts proved appear to the Court not to constitute the offence mentioned in any of those alternative charges, the Court shall record a finding of "Not Guilty" on that charge.

(7) The Court shall not find the accused guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative, even if conviction upon one charge necessarily connotes guilty upon the alternative charge or charges.

(8) If the Court thinks that the facts proved constitute one of the offences stated in two or more of the alternative charges, but doubts which of those offences the facts do at law constitute, it may, before recording a finding on those charges, refer to the confirming authority for an opinion, setting out the facts which it finds to be proved and stating that it doubts whether those facts constitute in law the offence stated in such one or other of the charges and may, if necessary, adjourn for that purpose.

(9) The finding on each charge shall be announced forthwith in open Court as subject to confirmation.

100. Procedure on Acquittal.- If the finding on all the charges is 'Not Guilty' the presiding officer shall affix his signature and date on the finding and such signature shall authenticate the whole of the proceedings, and the proceedings upon being signed by the Law Officer (if any) shall be at once transmitted for confirmation.

101. Procedure on Conviction.- (1) If the finding on any charge is 'guilty', then, for the guidance of the Court in determining its sentence, and of the confirming authority in considering the sentence, the Court, before deliberating on the sentence, shall, whenever possible, take evidence of and record the general character, age, service, rank, any recognised acts of gallantry or distinguished conduct of the accused, any previous convictions of the accused either by Security Force Court or a criminal court, any previous punishments awarded to him by an officer exercising authority under section 53 or 55 as the case may be: the length of time he has been in arrest or in confinement on any previous sentence, and any decoration, or reward, of which he may be in possession or to which he is entitled.

(2) Evidence on the above matters may be given by a witness verifying a statement which contains a summary of entries in the service book respecting the accused and identifying the accused as the person referred to in that summary.

(3) The accused may cross-examine any such witness and may call witnesses to rebut such evidence and; if the accused so requests, the service books or a duly certified copy of the material entries therein, shall be produced and if the accused alleges that the summary is in any respect not in accordance with the service books or such certified copy, as the case may be, the Court shall compare the summary with those books or copy and if it finds that it is not in accordance therewith, shall cause summary to be corrected or the objection of the accused to be recorded.

(4) When all the evidence on the above matters has been given, the accused may address the Court thereon and in mitigation of punishment.

102. Sentence.- The Court shall award a single sentence in respect of all the offences of which the accused is found guilty, and such sentence shall be deemed to be awarded in respect of which it can be legally given and not to be awarded in respect of which it can not be legally given.

103. Recommendation for mercy.- (1) Where the Court makes a recommendation to mercy it shall give its reasons for its recommendation.

(2) The number of opinions by which the recommendation to mercy mentioned in this rule, or any question relative thereto is adopted or rejected may be entered in the proceedings.

104. Announcement of the sentence and Signing and Transmission of Proceedings.- (1) The sentence together with any recommendation to mercy and the reasons for any such recommendation shall be announced forthwith in open Court. The sentence will be announced as subject to confirmation.

(2) Upon the Court awarding the sentence, the presiding officer shall affix his signature and date the sentence and such signatures shall authenticate the whole of the proceedings and the proceedings upon being signed by the Law Officer ('if any') shall at once be transmitted for confirmation.

105. Revision.- (1) (a) Where the finding is sent back for revision under section 113, the Court shall re-assemble in open Court, the revision order shall be read and if the Court, is directed to take fresh evidence such evidence shall be taken in open Court.

(b) Where such fresh evidence is recorded otherwise than at the instance of the accused, the accused shall be given a further opportunity to lead evidence in respect of matters brought out in such fresh evidence.

(c) The prosecutor and the accused shall be given a further opportunity to address the Court in respect of the fresh evidence led.

(d) The Law Officer may also give a further summing up.

(2) Where the revision of finding does not involve taking of fresh evidence, the accused shall be given an opportunity to address the Court in respect of matter raised in the revision order.

(3) (a) The Court shall then deliberate on its finding in closed Court and if the Court does not adhere to its former finding, it shall revoke the finding and sentence and record a new finding and if such new finding involves a sentence pass sentence afresh.

(b) Where the original finding was one of 'Not Guilty', the Court shall, before passing sentence comply with Rules 101 and 102.

(4) (a) Where the sentence alone is sent back for revision, the revision order shall be read in open Court and the accused given an opportunity to address the Court in regard to matters referred to in the revision order.

- (b) The Court shall then reconsider its sentence in closed Court and if it does not adhere to the sentence, revoke the sentence and pass sentence afresh.

(5) Where the sentence alone is sent for revision the Court shall not revise the finding.

106. Confirmation and promulgation.- (1) When a confirming authority receives the record of the proceedings of a Court, it shall record its decision thereon and on any sentence and any order which the Court may have made under Section 105 on the record of the proceedings in the appropriate form set out in Appendix VIII and such record of his decision shall form part of the record of the proceedings.

(2) When a Court has accepted a plea of guilty made under rule 79 the confirming authority may confirm its finding notwithstanding that the Court has accepted the plea without the concurrence of the convening officer if in the opinion of the confirming authority it is in the interests of justice to do so.

(3) (a) When a Court has rejected a plea to the jurisdiction of the Court or a plea in bar of trial or has over-ruled an objection to a charge it shall not be necessary for the confirming authority to approve specifically the decision of the Court, but its approval shall be implied from its confirming the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(b) Where it disapproves the decision of the Court to reject the plea or to over-rule the objection it shall withhold confirmation of the finding on the charge to which the plea or objection relates.

(4) A Confirming authority may state its reasons for withholding confirmation in any case, but if it withholds confirmation where a Court has rejected a plea to the jurisdiction or plea in bar of trial or has over-ruled an objection to the charges because it disapproves this decision of the Court, it shall when recording its decision under sub-rule (1) state that it has withheld confirmation for this reason.

(5) Where the sentence of Court is improperly expressed the confirming authority may in confirming the sentence vary the form thereof so that it shall be properly expressed.

(6) Whenever it appear that there is sufficient evidence or a plea of guilty under either sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 77 to justify the finding of the Court such finding and any lawful sentence consequent thereon may be confirmed and if confirmed shall be valid, notwithstanding any deviation from these rules if the accused has not been prejudiced by such deviation.

(7) While confirming the finding the confirming authority may either unconditionally or subject to conditions which the accused accepts, reduce or remit a portion of the sentence or commute the punishment to one given lower in the scale of punishments in section 48.

(8) (a) When a confirming authority has confirmed a finding and a sentence of a Court or has withheld confirmation thereof, it shall send the record of the proceeding to the Commandant of the accused for promulgation to the accused of the finding and sentence or the fact that confirmation has been withheld as the case may be.

(b) The fact of promulgation shall be recorded on the record of the proceedings in the form set out in Appendix IX.

(c) Where confirmation has been withheld because the confirming authority disapproves the Court's decision to reject a plea to the jurisdiction or a plea in bar of trial or to over-rule an objection to the charge the accused shall be so informed.

CHAPTER XPROCEDURE OF SECURITY FORCE COURTS AND INCIDENTAL MATTERS

107. Seating of members.- The members of a Court shall take their seats according to their rank.

108. Responsibility of Presiding Officer.- (1) The presiding officer is responsible for the trial being conducted in proper order, and in accordance with the Act, rules made there-under and in a manner befitting a court of justice.

(2) It is the duty of the presiding officer to see that the accused has a fair trial, and that he does not suffer any disadvantage in consequence of his position as a person under trial, or of his ignorance, or of his incapacity to examine or cross-examine witnesses, or otherwise.

109. Power of Court over address of prosecutor and accused.- (1) It is the duty of the prosecutor to assist the Court in the administration of justice, to behave impartially, to bring the whole of the transaction before the Court and not to take any unfair advantage of or suppress any evidence in favour of the accused.

(2) The prosecutor may not refer to any matter not relevant to the charge or charges then before the Court and it is the duty of the Court to stop him from so doing and also to restrain any undue violence of language or want of fairness or moderation on the part of the prosecutor.

(3) The Court shall give reasonable facilities to the accused, in making his defence; the accused must abstain from any remarks contemptuous or disrespectful towards the Court, and from coarse and insulting language towards others, but he may for the purpose of his defence impeach the evidence and charge other persons with blame and even criminality, subject, if he does so, to any liability which he may thereby incur. The Court may caution the accused as to the irrelevance of his defence, but shall not, unless in special cases stop his defence solely on ground of such irrelevance.

110. Sitting in closed Court.- (1) A Court shall where it is so directed by these rules, and may in any other case on any deliberation amongst the members, sit in closed Court.

(2) No person shall be present in closed Court except the members of the Court, the Law Officer (if any) and any officers under instruction.

(3) For the purpose of giving effect to the foregoing provisions of this rule a Court may either retire or cause the place where it sits to be cleared of all other persons not entitled to be present.

(4) Except as here-in-before mentioned all proceedings including the view of any place shall be in open Court and in the presence of the accused subject to sub-rule(5).

(5) The Court shall have the power to exclude from the Court any witness who has yet to give evidence or any other person, other than the accused, who interferes with its proceedings.

111. Continuity of trial and adjournment of Court. (1) When a Court is once assembled and the accused has been arraigned the Court shall continue the trial from day to day in accordance with these rules unless it appears to the Court that an adjournment is necessary for the ends of justice or that such continuance is impracticable.

(2)(a) A Court may from time to time adjourn its proceedings and meet at such place as may be convenient or

(b) Wherever necessary, visit the scene of occurrence.

(3) The senior officer on the spot may also for exigencies of service adjourn or prolong the adjournment of the Court.

(4) A Court in the absence of a Law Officer (if one has been appointed for the Court) shall not proceed and shall adjourn.

(5) If the time to which an adjournment is made is not specified the adjournment shall be until further orders from the proper Force authority and if the place to which an adjournment is made is not specified, the adjournment shall be to the same place or to such other place as may be specified in further orders from the proper force authority.

112. Suspension of Trial.- Where, in consequence of anything arising while the Court is sitting, the Court is unable by reason of dissolutions as specified in section 71 or otherwise, to continue the trial the presiding officer or, in his absence the senior member present, shall immediately report the facts to the convening authority.

113. Proceeding on death or illness of accused.- In case of the death of the accused or of such illness of the accused as renders it impossible to continue the trial the Court shall ascertain the fact of the death or illness by evidence and record the same and adjourn and transmit the proceedings to the convening authority.

114. Death, retirement or absence of Presiding Officer. In the case of the death, retirement on challenge or unavoidable absence of the presiding officer the next senior officer shall take the place of the presiding officer and the trial shall proceed if the Court is still composed of not less than the minimum number of officers of which it is required by law to consist.

115. Presence throughout of all members of Court.-
(1) A member of a Court who has been absent while any part of the evidence on the trial of an accused person is taken, shall take no further part in the trial by that Court of that person, but the Court will not be affected unless it is reduced below the legal minimum.

(2) An officer shall not be added to a Court after the accused has been arraigned.

116. Taking of opinion of members of Court.- (1) Every member of a Court must give his opinion by word of mouth on every question which the Court has to decide, and must give his opinion as to the sentence notwithstanding that he has given his opinion in favour of acquittal.

(2) The opinions of the members of the Court shall be taken in succession, beginning with the member lowest in rank.

117. Procedure on Incidental Questions:- If any objection is raised on any matter of law, evidence, or procedure, by the prosecutor or by or on behalf of the accused during the trial, the prosecutor or the accused or counsel or the defending officer (as the case may be) shall have a right to answer the same and the person raising the objection shall have a right to reply.

118. Evidence when to be translated.- When any evidence is given in a language which any of the officers composing the Court, the accused or the law Officer does not understand, it shall be translated into a language which he understands.

119. Record in proceedings of Transactions of a Security Force Court.-(1) At a Court the Law Officer or, if there is none, the presiding officer shall record or cause to be recorded all transactions of the Court, and shall be responsible for the accuracy of the record (in these rules referred to as the proceedings) and if the Law officer is called as a witness by the accused the presiding officer shall be responsible for the accuracy of the record in the proceedings of the evidence of the Law Officer.

(2) The evidence shall be taken down in a narrative form in as nearly as possible the words used, but in any case where the prosecutor, the accused, the Law Officer, or the Court considers it material, the question and answer shall be taken down verbatim.

(3) Where an objection has been taken to any question or to the admission of any evidence or to the procedure of the Court, such objection shall if the prosecutor or accused so requests or the Court thinks fit, be entered upon the proceedings together with the grounds of the objection and the decision of the Court thereon.

(4) Where any address by, or on behalf of the prosecutor or the accused, is not in writing, it shall not be necessary to record the same in the proceedings further or otherwise than the Court thinks proper, except that;

- (a) the Court shall in every case make such record of the defence, made by the accused as will enable the confirming officer to judge of the reply made by, or on behalf of the accused to each charge against him, and
- (b) the Court shall also record any particular matters in the address by or on behalf of, the prosecutor or the accused which the prosecutor or the accused, as the case may be, may require.

(5) The Court shall not enter in the proceedings any comment or anything not before the Court, or any report of any fact not forming part of the trial, but if any such comment or report seems to the Court necessary, the Court may forward it to the proper authority in a separate document signed by the presiding officer.

120. Custody and Inspection of Proceedings.- The proceedings shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Law Officer (if any), or, if there is none, of the presiding officer but may, with proper precaution for their safety, be inspected by the members of the Court, the prosecutor and accused at all reasonable times before the Court is closed to consider the finding.

¹[121. Review of General and Petty Security Force Court proceeding:- The proceedings of a General and Petty Security Force Court shall be sent by the person having the custody thereof to the Chief Law Officer for review, who shall then forward the same to the confirming authority.

122. Defending Officer, Friend of Accused and Counsel:- (1) At any General or Petty Security Force Court an accused person may be represented by a counsel or by any officer subject to the Act who shall be called “the defending officer” or assisted by any person whose services he may be able to procure and who shall be called “the friend of the accused”.

(2) The defending officer shall have the same rights and duties as appertain to a counsel under these rules and shall be under the like obligations. (R.63).

(3) The friend of the accused may advise the accused on all points and suggest the questions to be put to the witnesses, but he shall not examine or cross-examine the witnesses or address the Court.

123. Requirements for Appearance of Counsel.-(1) An accused person intending to be represented by a counsel shall give to his Commandant or to the convening officer the earliest practicable notice of such intention, and, if no sufficient notice has been given, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the prosecutor adjourn to enable him to obtain a counsel on behalf of the prosecutor at the trial.

(2) Where the convening officer so directs, counsel may appear alongwith the prosecutor, but in that case, unless the notice referred to in sub-rule(1) has been given by the accused, notice of the direction for counsel to appear shall be given to the accused at such time (not in any case less than seven days) before the trial as would, in the opinion of the Court, have enabled the accused to obtain counsel to assist him at the trial.

1. Substituted vide S.O.-155 (E) dated 1-3-1983.

(3) The counsel, who appears before a Court on behalf of the prosecutor or accused, shall have the same rights as the prosecutor or accused for whom he appears to call, and orally examine, cross-examine, and re-examine witnesses, to put in any plea, and to inspect the proceedings and shall have the right otherwise to act in the course of the trial in place of the person on whose behalf he appears, and he shall comply with these rules as if he were that person and in such a case that person shall have no right himself to do any of the aforesaid matters except as regards the statement allowed by sub-rule (2) of rule 93 and sub-rule (4) of rule 101 or except so far as the Court permits him so to do.

(4) When counsel appear on behalf of the prosecutor; the prosecutor if called as witness, may be examined and re-examined as any other witness.

124. Disqualification of law Officer. - An Officer who is disqualified for sitting on a Court, shall be disqualified for acting as a Law Officer at that Court.

125. Substitution on Death, Illness or Absence of Law Officer. - If the Law Officer dies, or from illness or from any cause whatever is unable to attend, the Court shall adjourn and the presiding officer shall report the circumstances to the convening officer and a fit person may be appointed by that officer who shall be sworn or affirmed and act as Law officer for the residue of the trial, or until the Law Officer returns.

126. Power and duties of Law Officer (1) Where a Law Officer has been named to act on the Court, he shall -

- (a) give his opinion on any question of law relating to the charge or trial whenever so required by the Court, the prosecutor or the accused;
- (b) inform the Court of any irregularity or other infirmity in the proceedings;

- (c) inform the convening officer and the Court of any infirmity or defect in the charge or in the constitution of the Court;
 - (d) sum up the evidence and give his opinion on any question of law, before the Court proceeds to deliberate upon its findings.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Law Officer to ensure that the accused does not suffer any disadvantage in consequence of his position as such, or because of ignorance or incapacity to examine or cross-examine witnesses and for this purpose the Law Officer may, with the permission of the Court, call witnesses and put questions to them which appear to him to be necessary or desirable.

(3) In the discharge of his duties, the Law Officer shall maintain an attitude of strict impartiality.

(4) Where any opinion has been given by the Law Officer to the Court on any matter before it, it may be entered in the proceedings, if the Law Officer or the Court, desires it to be entered.

(5) The Law Officer shall represent the Chief Law officer at a Security Force Court.

127. Finding of Insanity.- Where the Court finds either that the accused, by reason of unsoundness of mind, is incapable of making his defence, or that he committed the act alleged but was by reason of unsoundness of mind incapable of knowing the nature of the act or that it was wrong or contrary to law, the presiding officer or in the case of Summary Security Force Court, the officer holding the trial, shall affix his signature and the date on the finding which shall also be signed by the Law Officer (if any) and thereupon the proceedings shall, at once be transmitted to the confirming authority or in the case of Summary Security Force Court to the Deputy Inspector General empowered to Countersign them.

128. Preservation of Proceedings.- The proceedings of every Court shall, after promulgation, be forwarded to the office of the Chief Law Officer and be preserved there for not less than seven years, or until the sentence awarded by the Court has expired, whichever is later.

129. Right of person tried to Copies of Proceedings.- Every person tried by a Security Force Court shall be entitled to obtain on demand, at anytime after the confirmation of the finding and sentence, when such confirmation is required and before the proceedings are destroyed, from the Chief Law officer a copy thereof, including the proceedings upon revision, if any.

130. Copy of proceedings not to be given in certain cases.- Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 129 if the Central Government is satisfied for reasons to be recorded that it is against the interests of the Security of the State or friendly relations with foreign States to supply a copy of the proceedings or any part thereof under the said rule, he shall not be furnished with such a copy:

Provided that if the Central Government is satisfied that the person demanding the copy is desirous of submitting a petition in accordance with the Act or instituting any action in a court of law in relation to the finding or sentence, it shall permit inspection of the proceedings by such a person or his legal advisor, if any, on the following conditions, namely:-

- (a) the inspection shall be made at such times and such places as the Central Government or any authority authorised by it may direct; and
- (b) the person allowed to inspect the proceedings shall, before such inspection, furnish:-
 - (i) an undertaking, in writing that he shall not make copies of the proceedings or any part thereof and that the information or documents contained in such proceedings shall not be used by him for any purpose whatsoever, other than for the purpose of submitting a petition in accordance with the Act or instituting an action in a court of law in relation to the said finding or sentence; and

- (ii) a certificate that he is aware that he may render himself liable to prosecution under section 3 and 5 of the Indian Official Secrets Act, 1923 (19 of 1923) if he commits any act specified in the said sections in relation to the documents or information contained in the said proceedings.

131. Loss of proceedings.- (1) If, before confirmation, the original proceedings of a Court which require confirmation or any part thereof, are lost, a copy thereof, if any, certified by the presiding officer or the Law Officer at the Court may be accepted in lieu of the original.

(2) If there is no such copy, and sufficient evidence of the charge, finding, sentence, and transactions of the Court can be procured that evidence may with the assent of the accused, be accepted in lieu of the original proceedings, or part which have been lost.

(3) In any case mentioned above in this rule the finding and sentence may be confirmed, and shall be valid as if the original proceedings or part thereof had not been lost.

(4) If the accused refuses the assent referred to in sub-rule (2), he may be tried again, and the finding and sentence of the previous Court of which the proceedings have been lost shall be void.

(5) If, after confirmation or in any case where confirmation is not required, the original proceedings or any part thereof are lost, and there is sufficient evidence of the charge, finding, sentence, and transactions of the Court and of the confirmation (if required) of the finding and sentence, that evidence shall be a valid and sufficient record of the trial for all purposes.

132. Offences by witnesses and others.- When a Court is of opinion that there is ground for inquiring into any offence specified in Sections 37 and 38 and committed before it or brought to its notice in the course of its proceedings, which would if done by a person subject to the Act, have constituted such an offence, such Court may proceed as follows, that is to say:-

- (a) if the person who appears to have committed the offence is subject to the Act, the Court may bring his conduct to the notice of his Commandant;
- (b) if the person who appears to have done the act is amenable to military, naval or air force law the Court may bring his conduct to the notice of the proper military, naval or air force authority as the case may be,
- (c) in other cases the officer who summoned the witness to appear or the presiding officer or Officer-holding the Court, as the case may be, may forward a written complaint to the nearest Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction, and in the case of acts which would, if done by a person subject to this Act have constituted an offence under clause (e) of section 37 or section 38, the Court, after making any preliminary inquiry that may be necessary may send the case to the nearest Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction for inquiry or trial in accordance with section 476 of the Code of Criminal procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898).]¹

1. Now Sections 340 and 343 of Cr. P.C. 1973.

CHAPTER-XISUMMARY SECURITY FORCE COURTS

133. Proceedings.- The officer holding the trial, here-in-after in this Chapter called the Court shall record, or cause to be recorded the transactions of every Summary Security Force Court.

134. Evidence when to be translated.- (1) When any evidence is given in a language which the Court or the accused does not understand, that evidence shall be translated to the Court or accused as the case may be in a language which it or he does understand.

(2) The Court shall for this purpose either appoint an interpreter, or shall itself take the oath or affirmation prescribed for the interpreter at a Summary Security Force Court.

(3) When documents are produced for the purpose of formal proof, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to cause as much to be interpreted as appears necessary.

135. Assembly.- When the Court, the interpreter (if any) and the officers and subordinate officers attending the trial are assembled, the accused shall be brought before the Court and the oath or affirmation prescribed in rule 136 shall be taken by the persons therein mentioned.

136. Swearing or affirming of court and interpreter.- The Court shall take oath or affirmation in any one of the following forms or in such other form to the same purport which would, according to the religion or otherwise be binding on the conscience of the officer constituting the Court.

FORM OF OATH

“I, swear by Almighty God that I will duly administer justice, according to the Border Security Force Act, 1968 without partiality, favour or affection”.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

“I, do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will duly administer justice according to the Border Security Force Act, 1968 without partiality, favour or affection”.

(2) The Court, or any other person empowered by it in this behalf shall administer to the interpreter (if any) an oath or affirmation in any of the following forms, or in such other forms to the same purport as the Court ascertains to be according to the religion or otherwise binding on the conscience of the person who is to act as interpreter.

FORM OF OATH

“I, swear by Almighty God that I will faithfully interpret and translate as I shall be required to do touching the matter before this Court”.

FORM OF AFFIRMATION

“I, do solemnly, sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will faithfully interpret and translate, as I shall be required to do touching the matter before this Court”.

(3) The witnesses shall, after the administration of the oath and the affirmation, withdraw from the Court.

137. Swearing of Court to try several accused persons.-

(1) A Summary Security Force Court may be sworn or affirmed at the same time to try any number of accused persons then present before it whether those persons are to be tried collectively or separately.

(2) In the case of several accused persons to be tried separately, the Court, when sworn or affirmed shall proceed with one case postponing the other cases and taking them afterwards in succession.

(3) Where several accused persons are tried separately upon charges arising out of the same transaction, the Court may, if it considers it to be desirable in the interests of justice, postpone consideration of any sentence to be awarded to any one or more such accused persons until the trials of all such accused persons have been completed.

138. Arraignment of accused.- (1) After the Court and interpreter (if any) are sworn or affirmed as above mentioned, the accused shall be arraigned on the charges against him.

(2) The Charges on which the accused is arraigned shall be read and if necessary, translated to him and explained and he shall be required to plead separately to each charge.

139. Objection by accused to charge.- The accused, when required to plead to any charge, may object to the charge on the ground that it does not disclose an offence under the Act, or is not in accordance with these rules.

140. Amendment of charge.- (1) At any time during the trial if it appears to the Court that there is mistake in the name or description of the accused in the charge-sheet, it shall amend the charge-sheet so as to correct that mistake.

(2) If on the trial of a charge it appears to the Court at any time before it has begun to examine the witnesses, that in the interests of justice any addition to, omission from or alteration in, the charge is required, it may amend such charge and may, after due notice to the accused, and with the sanction of the officer empowered to convene a Petty Security Force Court for the trial of the accused if the amended charge requires such sanction, proceed with the trial on such amended charge.

141. Special pleas: If a special plea to the general jurisdiction of the Court, or a plea in bar of trial is offered by the accused, the procedure laid down in Chapter IX for disposing of such pleas shall, so far as may be applicable be followed.

142. General plea of “Guilty” or “Not Guilty”.- (1) The accused person’s plea of ‘Guilty’ or ‘Not Guilty’ or if he refuses to plead or does not plead intelligibly either one or the other, a plea of ‘Not Guilty’ shall be recorded on each charge.

(2) If an accused person pleads ‘Guilty’ that plea shall be recorded as the finding of the Court but before it is recorded, the Court shall ascertain that the accused understands the nature of the charge to which he has pleaded guilty and shall inform him of the general effect of that plea, and in particular of the meaning of the charge to which he has pleaded guilty, and of the difference in procedure which will be made by the plea of guilty and shall advise him to withdraw that plea if it appears from the record or abstract of evidence (if any) or otherwise that the accused ought to plead not guilty.

(3) Where an accused person pleads guilty to the first two or more charges laid in the alternative, the Court may after sub-rule (2) has been complied with and before the accused is arraigned on the alternative charge or charges, withdraw such alternative charge or charges as follow the charge to which the accused has pleaded guilty without requiring the accused to plead thereto, and a record to that effect shall be made in the proceedings of the Court.

143. Procedure after plea of ‘Guilty’.- (1) Upon the record of the plea of ‘Guilty’, if there are other charges in the same charge-sheet to which the plea is ‘Not Guilty’, the trial shall first proceed with respect to those other charges and after the finding on those charges, shall proceed with the charges on which a plea of ‘Guilty’ has been entered; but if there are alternative charges, the Court may either proceed with respect to all the charges as if the accused had not pleaded ‘Guilty’ to any charge or may, instead of trying him, record a finding of ‘Guilty’ upon any one of the alternative charges to which he had pleaded ‘Guilty’ and finding of ‘Not Guilty’ upon all the other alternative charges which precede such charge.

- (2)(a) After the record of the plea of 'Guilty' on a charge (if trial does not proceed on any other charges) the Court shall read the record or abstract of evidence and annex it to the proceedings, or if there is no such record or abstract, shall take and record sufficient evidence to enable it to determine the sentence, and the reviewing officer to know all the circumstances connected with the offence.
- (b) The evidence shall be taken in like manner as is directed by these rules in the case of a plea of 'Not Guilty'.
- (3) The accused may, after such evidence has been taken or as the case may be, the record or abstract of evidence has been read, address the Court with reference to the charge and in mitigation of punishment and may call witnesses as to his character.
- (4) (a) If from the statement of the accused, or from the record of evidence, or otherwise, it appears to the Court that the accused did not understand the effect of his plea of 'Guilty', the Court shall alter the record and enter a plea of 'Not Guilty' and proceed with the trial accordingly.
- (b) Any alternative charges withdrawn under sub-rule(1) shall be reinstated in the charge sheet and the trial shall take place as if they had never been withdrawn.
- (5) If a plea of 'Guilty' is recorded on some charges and the trial proceeds with respect to other charges in the same charge-sheet, the proceedings under sub-rule (2) and (3) shall take place after the findings on the other charges in the same charge-sheet are recorded.
- (6) When the accused states anything in mitigation of punishment which in the opinion of the Court requires to be proved, and would, if proved, affect the amount of punishment, the Court may permit the accused to call witness to prove the same.

144. Withdrawal of plea of 'Not Guilty'.- The accused may, if he thinks fit at any time during the trial, withdraw his plea of 'Not Guilty' and plead 'Guilty' and in such case the Court shall at once, subject to compliance with sub-rule (2) of rule 142 record a plea and finding of 'Guilty' and shall, so far as if necessary, proceed in manner directed by Rule 143.

145. Procedure after plea of 'Not Guilty'.- (1) After the plea of "Not Guilty" to any charge, is recorded the evidence for the prosecution will be taken.

(2) At the close of the evidence for the prosecution the accused shall be asked if he has anything to say in his defence, or may defer such address until he has called his witnesses.

(3) The accused may then call his witnesses, including also witnesses to character.

146. Witnesses in reply to defence.- The Court may, if it thinks it necessary in the interests of justice, call witnesses in reply to the defence.

147. Evidence of witnesses.- The provisions of Rules 88, 89 and 90 shall so far as may be, apply to the evidence of witnesses at a Summary Security Force Court as they apply to the evidence of witnesses at a General or Petty Security Force Court.

148. Verdict.- The Court shall after the evidence for prosecution and defence has been heard, give its opinion as to whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of the charge or charges.

149. Finding.- (1) The finding on every charge upon which the accused is arraigned shall be recorded and except as mentioned in these rules shall be recorded simply as a finding of 'Guilty' or of 'Not Guilty'.

(2) When the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts proved do not disclose the offence charged or any offence of which he might under the Act legally be found guilty on the charge as laid, the Court shall find the accused 'Not Guilty' of that charge.

(3) When the Court is of opinion as regards any charge that the facts found to be proved in evidence differ materially from the facts alleged in the statement of particulars in the charge, but are nevertheless sufficient to prove the offence stated in the charge, and that the difference is not so material as to have prejudiced the accused in his defence, it may, instead of a finding of 'Not Guilty' record a special finding.

(4) The special finding may find the accused guilty on a charge subject to the statement of exceptions or variations specified therein.

(5) The Court shall not find the accused guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative, even if conviction upon one charge necessarily connotes guilty upon the alternative charge or charges.

150. Procedure on Acquittal.- Where the finding on each of the charges in a charge-sheet is 'Not Guilty', the court shall affix its signature and date the proceedings, the findings will be announced in open Court, and the accused will be released if under arrest, in respect of these charges.

151. Procedure on finding of 'Guilty'.- (1) Where the finding on any charge is 'Guilty' the Court may record of its own knowledge, or take evidence of any record, the general character, age, service, rank, and any recognised acts of gallantry, or distinguished conduct of the accused, and previous convictions of the accused either by a Security Force

Court, or a Criminal Court, any previous punishment awarded to him by an officer exercising authority under section 53, the length of time he has been in arrest or in confinement of any previous sentence, and any decoration, or reward of which he may be in possession or to which he may be entitled.

(2) Where the Court does not record the matters mentioned in this rule of its own knowledge, evidence on these matters may be taken in the manner directed in rule 101 for similar evidence.

152. Sentence.- The Court shall award one sentence in respect of all the offences of which the accused is found guilty.

153. Signing of Proceedings.- The Court shall affix its signature and the date to the sentence and such signature shall authenticate the whole of the proceedings.

154. Charges in different charge sheets.- (1) When the charges at a trial by Summary Security Force Court are contained in different charge-sheets the accused shall be tried on each charge sheet separately up to and including the stage of finding.

(2) The Court shall, thereafter, comply with rules 150 or 151 as the case may be.

155. Clearing the Court. The officer holding the trial may clear the Court to consider the evidence or to consult with the officers, and subordinate officer, attending the trial.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (1), all the proceedings, including the view of any place, shall be in open Court, and in the presence of the accused.

156. Adjournment.- (1) A Court may:-

- (a) from time to time adjourn its proceedings and meet at such place as may be convenient; and
- (b) wherever necessary visit the scene of occurrence.

157. Friend of the accused.- During a trial at a Summary

Security Force Court an accused may take the assistance of any person, including a legal practitioner as he may consider necessary.

Provided that such person shall not examine or cross-examine witnesses or address the Court.

158. Memorandum to be attached to proceedings.- Where a Summary Security Force Court tries an offence which shall not ordinarily be tried without reference to an authority mentioned in sub-section (2) of Section 74, an explanatory memorandum shall be attached to the proceedings.

159. Promulgation.- The sentence of a Summary Security Force Court shall be promulgated in the manner usual in the service, at the earliest opportunity after it has been pronounced and shall subject to the provisions of the Act be carried out without delay after promulgation.

160. Review of Proceedings.- The proceedings of a Summary Security Force Court shall immediately on promulgation be forwarded through the Chief Law Officer, or a Law Officer to the Deputy Inspector General under whom the accused may have been serving.

161. Action by the Deputy Inspector General.- (1) Where the Deputy Inspector General to whom the proceedings of a Summary Security Force Court have been forwarded under rule 160, is satisfied that injustice has been done to the accused by reason of any grave irregularity in the proceedings or otherwise, he may:-

(a) set aside the proceedings of the Court; or
(b) reduce the sentence or commute the punishment awarded to one lower in the scale of punishment given in 1 (Section 48 and return it to the unit of the accused for promulgation).

(2) Where no action under sub-rule (1) has been taken he shall countersign the proceedings¹().

1. Subs. by SO.436 (E) dated 29-05-1990

(3) The proceedings shall, after its promulgation² [under sub-rule (1) or counter signature under sub-rule (2)] be forwarded to the Chief Law Officer for custody.

1. Omitted by S.O. 436 (E), dated 29-5-1990.
 2. *Ins. by *ibid.

CHAPTER-XIIEXECUTION OF SENTENCE

162. Direction about Sentence of Imprisonment.- (1) A confirming authority or in the case of a Summary Security Force Court, the Court, shall direct that the sentence of imprisonment shall be undergone by confinement either in a civil prison or in Force Custody.

(2) Such direction may be varied by any superior officer.

163. Warrants.- Warrants for committing a person to a civil prison to under-go sentence of imprisonment or to get such person back into Force Custody if so required or to order the release of such a person from civil prison or any variation done by any superior officer shall be in such form as may be appropriate to each case set out in Appendix 'X'.

(2) Such Warrants shall be signed by the Commandant of the accused or by a staff officer on behalf of a Deputy Inspector General, Inspector General or the Director General.

164. Warrants in case of Sentence of Death.- (1) Where a person is sentenced to death by hanging, a warrant in the form set out in Appendix XI shall be sent by the Director General to the Superintendent of the Prison where facilities for carrying out such a sentence exist, after the sentence has been confirmed by the Central Government and the accused shall be committed to the same prison by his Commandant on the appropriate warrant.

(2) Where an accused person is sentenced to death by being shot, a warrant on the appropriate form set out in Appendix XI shall be issued by the Director General, to Deputy Inspector General under whom the accused may be serving, after the sentence has been confirmed by the Central Government, and the Deputy Inspector General shall arrange for the execution of the sentence.

165. Changes in Sentence.- Where any change is made in the sentence of a person already committed to a civil prison, such change shall be communicated to the Superintendent of the Prison to which such person has been committed by the Commandant or such other person as is mentioned in rule 163 on the form set out in Appendix XII.

166. Sentence of Dismissal.- (1) Sentence of dismissal shall take effect from the date of promulgation of such sentence or from any subsequent date as may be specified at the time of promulgation.

(2) A sentence of dismissal combined with imprisonment to be undergone in a civil prison shall not take effect until such person has been committed to civil prison.

CHAPTER-XIIIPETITIONS*167. Petitions Against Finding and Sentence of Court.-

(1) A person subject to the Act who has been tried by a Court shall be allowed to put in one petition before confirmation, to the confirming authority and one petition after confirmation to any officer mentioned in section 117.

(2) In the case of a Summary Force Court he shall be allowed to put in one petition only to any of the officers mentioned in section 117.

168. Period of Limitation.- (1) A petition, before confirmation, shall be submitted, within one week of the conclusion of trial.

(2) A petition after confirmation shall be submitted within 3 months of the date on which the sentence was promulgated:

Provided that the time taken by such person to obtain a copy of the proceedings shall be excluded in calculating this period of 3 months.

169. Mode of Submitting Petitions.-

(1) (a) A petition, by a person who is still a member of the Force shall be submitted through his Commandant.

(b) A petition, by a person who has ceased to be a member of the Force shall be submitted to the Commandant of the unit in which the trial was held.

(2) An officer to whom a petition is submitted or to whom a petition has been forwarded shall forward it to the next superior within a period of one week:

Provided that an officer may not forward a petition if he is competent to give the redress asked for and decides to do so.

(3) An officer receiving a petition may send it to the Chief Law Officer or a Law Officer for advice.

CHAPTER-XIVCOURTS OF INQUIRY

¹[170. Composition.- A Court of Inquiry may consist of one or more members. Persons not subject to the Act may be appointed as members when the court is to investigate matters of a specialised nature, and when officers subject to the Act with specialist qualifications are not available to be members.

171. Assembly.- A court of inquiry may be assembled by order of a Commandant or any officer or authority superior to the Commandant.

172. Assembly Order.- The order assembling the court of inquiry shall state the composition of the court, the time and place for its assembly and clearly state the matters which the court will investigate. It will also provide for the administrative requirements of the Court.

173. Procedure of Courts of Inquiry.-(1) The proceedings of a court of inquiry shall not be open to the public. Only such persons may attend the proceedings as are permitted by the court to do so.

(2) The evidence of all witnesses shall be taken on oath or affirmation.

(3) Evidence given by witnesses shall be recorded in narrative form unless the court considers that any questions and answers may be recorded as such.

(4) The court may take into consideration any documents even though they are not formally proved.

(5) The court may ask witnesses any questions, in any form, that they consider necessary to elicit the truth and may take into consideration any evidence, whether the same is admissible under the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872) or not.

1. Subs. by S.O. 187(E), dated 23-3-1984.

(6) No counsel or legal practitioner shall be permitted to appear before a court of inquiry.

(7) Provisions of section 89 shall apply for procuring the attendance of witnesses before the court of inquiry.

(8) Before giving an opinion against any person subject to the Act, the court will afford that person the opportunity to know all that has been stated against him, cross-examine any witnesses who have given evidence against him, and make a statement and call witnesses in his defence.

(9) The answers given by a witness to any question asked before the court shall not be admissible against such a witness on any charge at any subsequent occasion except a charge of giving false evidence before such court.

174. Courts of Inquiry when to be Held.- (1) A court of inquiry may be held to investigate into any disciplinary matter or any other matter of importance.

(2) In addition to a Court of Inquiry required to be held under section 62, a court of inquiry shall be held in the following cases:-

- (a) (i) All unnatural death of persons subject to the Act or of other persons within the Force lines, an immediate report shall be sent through the messenger to the officer-in-charge of the Police Station within whose jurisdiction the place of such unnatural death is.
- (ii) In cases when such report cannot, for any reason be delivered within a reasonable time, a Court of Inquiry shall be held into such unnatural death.
- (iii) Immediately on receipt of information of an unnatural death the Commandant or the senior most officer of the Battalion present shall prepare a report on the proforma set out in Appendix XIII.

- (b) All injuries sustained by persons subject to the Act which are likely to cause full or partial disability. The court shall in such case determine whether such injuries were attributable to service or not.
 - (c) All financial irregularities, losses, theft and misappropriation of public or Force property, where it is necessary to obtain the order of a superior officer on such irregularities, loss, theft or misappropriation.
 - (d) All losses of secret documents and any other material of secret or above security classification. Such a court of inquiry shall be ordered by an officer or authority superior to the unit Commandant having the lost document or material on its charge.
 - (e) All damage to private persons or property in respect of which there is likely to be a claim against the Government or the Force.

175. Action on the Proceedings of a Court of Inquiry.-

The proceedings of a court of inquiry shall be submitted by the presiding officer to the officer or authority who ordered the court. Such officer or authority on receiving the proceedings may either pass final orders on the proceedings himself, if he is empowered to do so, or refer them to a superior authority.

176. Copies of Court of Inquiry Proceedings.- A person subject to the Act against whom the court of inquiry has given an opinion or who is being tried by a Security Force Court on a charge relating to matter investigated by the court of inquiry, shall be entitled to copies of the proceedings of the court of inquiry unless the Director General orders otherwise.

CHAPTER-XVMISCELLANCOUS

177. Prescribed Officer under Section 11 (2).- The Commandant may, under sub-section (2) of section 11, dismiss or remove from the service any person under his command other than a officer or a subordinate officer.

178. Authority prescribed for the purposes of Section 13 (1).- The authority for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be:-

- (i) Commandant, in respect of person under his command;
- (ii) Deputy Inspector General, in respect of a Commandant;
- (iii) Inspector Genral, in respect of a Deputy Inspector General;
- (iv) Director-General, in respect of all persons subject to the Act;

179. Extent of Punishment.- (1) If the Commandant is of and above the rank of a Deputy Commandant he may award to the full extent one or more of the punishments specified in section 53.

(2) If the Commandant is below the rank of a Deputy Commandant he may award punishment specified:-

- (a) in clauses (a) and (b) of section 53 upto fourteen days.
- (b) in other clauses of section 53 to the full extent.

180. Manner of proceedings against a person under section 55 (1).- The manner in which an officer shall under sub-section (1) of section 55 proceed against a person of or below the rank of a subordinate officer who is charged with an offence under the Act, be as, set out in Appendix-XIV.

181. Repeal and Savings.- (1) All rules and orders relating to the matters covered by these rules shall stand repealed in so far as they are inconsistent with any of the provisions of these rules.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal anything done or any action taken under the provisions of the rules or orders so repealed shall, in so far as such thing or action is not inconsistent with the provisions of these rules, be deemed to have been done or taken under the provisions of these rules as if the said provisions were in force when such thing was done or such action was taken and shall continue in force accordingly until superseded by anything done or any action taken under these rules.

CHAPTER-XVI

182. Transitory Provisions:- Any rule or order applicable to the Force on the date these rules come into force will unless repugnant to these rules, continue to apply unless and until abrogated or modified by the Central Government or any other competent authority.

SO 3477. In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (k) of Sub- Section (2) of section 141 of the Border Security Force Act, 1968 (47 of 1968), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules namely :-

1. Short title.- These rules may be called the Criminal Courts and Border Security Force Court (Adjustment of jurisdiction) Rules 1969.
2. Definitions.- In these rules unless the context otherwise required.
 - (i) "Act" means the Border Security Force Act 1968 (47 of 1968);
 - (ii) "Commandant" in relation to a person subject to the Act means the officer Commanding the unit or detachment to which such person belongs or attached;
 - (iii) "Competent authority" means the Director General, Inspector General or a Dy. Inspector General of the Border Security Force;
 - (iv) Words and expressions used in these rules and not defined but defined in the Act, shall have the meaning respectively assigned to them in the Act.
3. Trial of person subject to the Act.- Where a person subject to the Act, is brought before a Magistrate and charged with an offence for which he is liable to be tried by a Border Security Force Court, such magistrate shall not proceed to try such person or to inquire with a view to his Commitment for trial by the Court of Sessions or the High Court for any offence triable by such Court, unless :-

- (a) he is of opinion, for reasons to be recorded in writing that he should so proceed without being moved thereto by the competent authority; or
- (b) he is moved thereto by such authority.

4. Notice by Magistrate.- Before proceeding under clause (a) rule 3, the Magistrate shall give written notice to the Commandant of the accused and until the expiry of a period of :-

- (i) Three weeks in the case of a notice given to a Commandant in command of a unit or detachment located in any of the following areas, that is to say :-
 - (a) State of Nagaland,
 - (b) Mizohill, Garo Hill, Khasi and Jaintia Hill and North Cachar Hill, Districts of Assam, or

 - (b) frame in writing a charge against the accused under section 254 of the said code; or
 - (c) make an order committing the accused for trial by the High Court or the Court of Sessions under section 213 of the said Code; or

- (d) transfer the case for inquiry or trial under section 192 of the said code.

5. Procedure on notice to the Magistrate.- Where within the period mentioned in rule 4 above, or at any time thereafter before the Magistrate has done any act or made any order referred to in that rule, the Commandant of the accused or the competent authority, as the case may be, gives notice to the Magistrate that in the opinion of such authority, the accused should be tried by a Border Security Force Court, the Magistrate shall stay proceedings and if the accused is in his power or under his control, shall deliver him with the statement prescribed in sub-section (1) of section 549 of the code of Criminal Procedure 1898 (5 of 1898) to the authority specified in the said sub-section.

6. Procedure on notice to Magistrate before Commencement of trial.- Where a Magistrate has been moved by the competent authority under clause (b) of rule 3, and the Commandant of the accused or the competent authority as the case may be, subsequently gives notice to such Magistrate that in the opinion of such authority the accused should be tried by a Border Security Force Court, such Magistrate, if he has not before receiving such notice done any act or made any order referred to in rule 4 shall stay proceedings, and, if the accused is in his power or under his control, shall in the like manner deliver him, with the statement prescribed in sub-section (1) of section 549 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898), to the authority specified in the said sub-section.

7. Intimation regarding trial of accused.- (1)

When an accused has been delivered by the Magistrate under rule 5 or 6, the Commandant of the accused or the competent authority, as the case may be, shall, as soon as may be, inform the Magistrate whether the accused has been tried by a Security Force Court or other effectual proceedings has been taken or ordered to be taken against him.

(2) When the Magistrate has been informed under rule (1) that the accused has not been tried or other effectual proceedings have not been taken or not ordered to be taken against him the Magistrate shall report the circumstances to the State Government, which may, in consultation with the Central Government, take appropriate steps to ensure that the accused person is dealt with in accordance with law.

8. Reference to Central Government for determination of Court of trial.- Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing rule where it comes to the notice of a Magistrate that a person subject to the Act committed an offence, proceedings in respect of which ought to be instituted before him and that the presence of such person cannot be procured except through the Commandant or the competent authority the Magistrate may, by a written notice, require the Commandant of such person either to deliver such person to a Magistrate to be named in the said notice for being proceeded against according to law, or to stay the proceedings against such person before the Border Security Force Court, if since instituted, and to make a reference to the Central Government for determination as to the Court before which proceedings should be instituted.

9. Delivery of accused to the Magistrate.- Where a person subject to the Act has committed an offence which, in the opinion of competent authority ought to be tried by a Magistrate in accordance with the civil law in force or where the Central Government on a reference mentioned in rule 8, decides that the proceedings against such person should be instituted before a Magistrate, the Commandant of such person shall, after giving a written notice to the Magistrate concerned deliver such person under proper escort to that Magistrate.
