INTRODUCTION

The National Foundation for Communal Harmony (NFCH) is an autonomous organization with the Ministry of Home Affairs. It was registered on the 19th February 1992 under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. Its office is located on the 9th Floor, 'C' Wing, Lok Nayak Bhawan, Khan Market, New Delhi-110003.

Objectives

2. The objectives of the Foundation are to:

(i) undertake programmes or projects for providing assistance to the children of families affected by communal, caste, ethnic or terrorist violence which fracture social harmony, as may be decided by the Governing Council from time to time, in particular for their care and education;

(ii) undertake programmes or projects for assisting in the physical and psychological rehabilitation of the children, families or other victims of communal, caste, ethnic or terrorist violence / clashes which fracture social harmony for their assimilation into the mainstream of society, as may be decided by the Governing Council from time to time, and;

(iii) promote or undertake activities which will highlight and strengthen the bonds of unity and affinity between different religious and other groups in the country;

(iv) undertake and encourage activities which will promote belief in the principles of non-violence in resolving disputes between different religious and other groups in society;

(v) institute awards to individual as well as institutions for their outstanding contributions to the cause of communal harmony and national integration;

(vi) cooperate with, and secure the cooperation of the Central Government, State Governments, Union Territory Administrations, industrial & commercial organizations, non-governmental, voluntary & other organisations and bodies in promoting the objectives of the Foundation;

(vii) provide information services, set up libraries, bring out journals, books or other forms of literature to promote the objectives of the Foundation;

(viii) do all such other lawful acts and things as may be necessary or conducive for furthering the objectives of the Foundation.

II - ORGANISATION AND MANAGEMENT

3. The Foundation has two main bodies to carry out the objectives set out for the Foundation, namely, the Governing Council and the Executive Council. While the Governing Council formulates overall policies, the Executive Council is responsible for the management and administration of the Foundation. The Governing Council consists of 25 members with the Union Home Minister as its Chairman (Annex-V). The Executive Council has eight members, with the Union Home Secretary as its Chairman (Annex-VI). The Secretary of the Foundation is the Principal Executive Officer.

Funds

4. The Government of India provided a corpus fund of Rs.10 crore to the Foundation on its establishment in 1992. The corpus fund was enhanced to Rs.11 crore in 2004 following merger of Communal Harmony Fund of rupees one crore with the corpus fund of the Foundation. To augment its resources, the Foundation makes appeal to the general public, various State Governments / Union Territory Administrations, Central Government Departments, Public Sector Undertakings / Enterprises, educational institutions etc for voluntary donation to the Foundation for its noble cause. All donations to the Foundation are fully exempted from Income Tax under Section 80G(iii)(e) of the Income Tax Act, 1961. The Government of India vide Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances & Pension (Department of Personnel & Training) O.M.No.11013/9/95-Estt (A) dated 02.11.1995 relaxed the provisions of rule 12 of the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1964 to allow Central Government servants to participate in the fund raising efforts of the Foundation on a voluntary basis (Annex-I). Similar relaxation has also been given by few State Governments allowing State Government servants to participate in the fund raising efforts of the Foundation on a voluntary basis. These include governments of Goa, Himachal Pradesh, Punjab, Kerala and Sikkim.

III - ACTIVITIES AND PROGRAMMES

5. The major activity of the Foundation is to implement programmes and projects for assisting in the effective rehabilitation of child victims of communal, caste, ethnic or terrorist violence which fractured social harmony. The emphasis remains on providing assistance to such children for their education and promoting communal harmony and national integration through various kinds of promotional activities.

6. The existing programmes of the Foundation may be categorized as:

- Project Assist
- Project Recognition
- Communal Harmony Campaign Week
- Research & Fellowships
- Library & Publications
- Extension activities and
- Other activities

Brief about these programmes is explained hereunder:

Project 'Assist'

7. Under the project 'Assist', financial assistance is provided to children, who become orphan or destitute due to death or permanent incapacitation of either both the parents or the main bread earner in the family in communal and other forms of societal violence. The children whose families income remains up to Rupees One Lakh per annum are eligible for the financial assistance under the project. Each identified child is provided financial assistance @ Rs.1,000 per month to children studying up to class XII; Rs.1,250 per month for the students doing graduation / post-graduation and Rs.1,500 per month to the students of professional courses (like medical, engineering and management), without any restriction on the number of children in a family. The assistance is given till the child attains the age of 25 years.

8. A total number of 11,535 children have been benefited under the project 'Assist' from the year 1992-93 to 2014-15 (Annex-II). Year-wise number of assisted children is at Figure-1. Expenditure of Rs.59.39 Crores has been incurred since the inception of the scheme on assistance to child victims, as on 31.03.2015. A sum of Rs.5.09 Crores was incurred on project 'Assist' during the year 2014-15, covering 3,738 children (Annex-II). Updated year-wise expenditure on this project is at Figure-2. From different States, 153 new eligible children were identified and provided assistance in 2014-15 as against 184 new eligible children who were identified and provided assistance during 2013-14. Year-wise accretion of children assisted by the Foundation is at Figure-3. State-wise distribution of assisted children is at Figure-4.

9. Proposals of eligible children, either fresh or renewal, are received through the concerned district administrations. These proposals are examined and processed by the Foundation, thereafter; the assistance for the children is released through the concerned District Collectors / Magistrates / Deputy Commissioners etc. for further disbursement to each child by the concerned district administration. Immediately after release of assistance by the Foundation, the affected families are informed to get timely payment through the office of the respective District Collector / Magistrate or Deputy Commissioner.

10. The Foundation also seeks cooperation from concerned State Governments, District Administrations, Non-governmental and other organizations for identifying eligible child victims for consideration of their proposals for grant of financial assistance. In Assam, a unit functioning under the Assam Police, namely Aashwas is helping the Foundation in identifying child victims of violence. Similarly, in J&K, the 'Council for Rehabilitation of Widows, Orphans, Handicapped & Old Persons' is also facilitating the project Assist in the State. In addition, State level Nodal Agencies have also been identified in the States of Bihar, Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh, Manipur, Rajasthan and Uttar Pradesh.

Project 'Recognition'

11. Two National Communal Harmony Awards have been instituted to be conferred annually, one for an individual and another for an organization for outstanding contribution in promoting communal harmony and / or national integration. The awards carry a certificate & cash amount of Rupees Five Lakh for an individual, and a certificate & cash amount of Rupees Ten Lakh for an organization. Selection for the awards is made by a Jury presided over by the Vice President of India.

12. An advertisement calling for nominations for the awards for the year 2014 was published on 1st May 2014 in 35 leading newspapers in different languages. Nominations were also called for from more than 3200 sources. Besides, the Chairman of the Executive Council, the Union Home Secretary addressed letters to all the Chief Secretaries for sponsoring names of suitable / eligible individuals / organizations. Separate request was also made by the Union Home Secretary to the Ministry of Information & Broadcasting to give wide publicity to the said scheme on the television through its Doordarshan Kendras. In all, 78 nominations, 14 in the Organization category and 64 in the Individual category were received and processed. Proposal to convene the Meeting of the Jury to decide the National Communal Harmony Awards for 2014 has been referred to MHA.

Communal Harmony Campaign Week

13. The Communal Harmony Campaign Week was observed as an annual feature from the 19th to 25th November to coincide with the Quami Ekta week. On the occasion, an appeal was made to the general public, State Governments / Union Territory Administrations, Ministries / Departments, Public Sector Enterprises, Embassies /
Missions abroad, para-military forces, educational institutions, etc. to effectively promote the values of communal harmony and national integration amongst the people specifically to the youth. An appeal was also made to organize a determined and sustained drive to bring about mass-awakening against violence which disturbs social harmony, by making appropriate projection through the media and to donate funds on voluntary basis to augment the financial resources of the Foundation to enable it to carry on its activities.

14. The Foundation got publicity material printed and distributed to State Governments / UT Administrations, Ministries / Departments, Central Public Sector Enterprises, para-military organisations, educational institutions and our diplomatic missions abroad. In all, publicity materials were sent to about 1.12 Lakh units all over the country during the year 2014 as against about 1 Lakh units during 2013. Details of dispatch of publicity material to various units during 1992-93 to 2014-15 are at Figure 5.

15. This week was observed throughout the country with great energy and passion. As per the appeal made by NFCH, the Foundation received reports and large range of outreach activities and programmes were organized by different stakeholders including educational institutions, public sector enterprises, government departments/ agencies, NGOs and voluntary organizations, etc. during the Week to promote the ethos of communal harmony and national integration. The Week's last working day i.e. 25th November (Tuesday) was observed as the Flag Day throughout the country. This was specially utilized to generate financial support for destitute children affected by communal, caste, ethnic or terrorist violence.

16. Six children, two each from the States of Assam and Jammu & Kashmir; and one each from Gujarat and Uttar Pradesh were invited by the Foundation along with their mothers and escorts to participate in the Communal Harmony Campaign Week & Flag Day celebrations. These children viz. Shri Alakesh Das & Km. Samina Yasmin from Assam; Km. Shayesta Bano and Shri Manjeet Sharma from J&K; Shri Gopalbhai Parmar from Gujarat; and Km. Bhawna Keshery from Uttar Pradesh were privileged to stick communal harmony flags on the persons of Shri Pranab Mukherjee, Hon'ble President; Shri M. Hamid Ansari, Vice-President; Shri Narendra Modi, Prime Minister; Smt. Sumitra Mahajan, Speaker Lok Sabha; and Shri Anil Goswami, Home Secretary.

17. The children were taken for local sight-seeing in Delhi and nearby places to historical, religious and cultural sites such as Rashtrapati Bhavan, India Gate, Qutub Minar, Lotus Temple, Nehru Planetarium, Raj Ghat, Shakti Sthal, Veer Bhumi, Red Fort, Bangla Saheb Gurudwara and Hanuman Mandir. They were very excited to see these places and immensely enjoyed their Delhi visit. The children were enthused to intermingle with their fellow friends coming from different states for this campaign.

18. The Foundation is immensely grateful and appreciates the efforts made by all stakeholders, supporters and well wishers for organizing such programmes and raising funds for the destitute children covered under its Project 'Assist' and also for enhancing the activities of the Foundation.

19. AIR and Doordarshan organized interviews on the theme of communal harmony during this period with participation of Amb. Ashok Sajjanhar, Secretary and Shri Salahuddin Ansari, Assistant Secretary.
Project 'Research' and Evaluation Studies

20. Proposals for study / research are considered from universities, research organisations, schools of social work, autonomous organisations, renowned institutions working in the field, individuals, etc. for empirical, participatory and action-oriented research and other studies having strong relevance to promotion of communal harmony and strengthening of national integration.

21. As approved by Executive Council in one of the Meetings in the past, research proposal titled “An Evaluation Study of Project Assist in J&K” has since been completed and submitted by Dept. of Sociology, University of Kashmir.

Library and Publications

22. The Foundation has established a library and has got approximately 3500 books, journals and reports on the subject of communal harmony and national integration. The literature available in the library is being used by the officials of the Foundation and consulted by professionals/scholars/students from time to time. Setting up of the library has facilitated carrying out research work on various aspects of communal harmony and national integration. Details of information about books and journals available in the library of the Foundation are available online on the website https://nfchlibrary.nic.in.

Independent Auditor’s Report

To,
The Governing Council
National Foundation for Communal Harmony,
New Delhi

Auditor’s Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of “National Foundation for Communal Harmony, New Delhi” (the Foundation), a registered Society, which comprises the Balance Sheet as at 31st March 2015 and also the Income & Expenditure Account for the year ended on that date along with the annexures thereto and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management’s Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance in accordance with the Accounting Standards. This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Organisation’s preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

1. In our opinion, and subject to notes as represented in schedule 14, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Foundation so far as appears from our examination of the books;

2. The Balance Sheet and Income & Expenditure Account dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of accounts.

3. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the financial statements give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India;

   a) In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the Foundation as at March 31, 2015

   b) In the case of Income & Expenditure Account, of the excess of income over expenditure for the year ended on that date.

NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR COMMUNAL HARMONY

SCHEDULE 14: SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, CONTINGENT LIABILITIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTS

1. Accounting Convention

1.1. The financial statements are prepared on the basis of historical cost convention and in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles and standards.

1.2. The financial statements are prepared on accrual basis unless otherwise indicated.

1.3. Assistance to children, Awards and payments made under extension activities etc., are accounted as and when paid. No provision is made for Future installments of assistance to be provided to the children covered under the scheme of project “Assist”.

“As represented by the Administration of NFCH, no provision is made for future installments of assistance to be provided to the children covered under project “Assist”, in view of uncertainty in receiving proposals from different districts”

2. Grant/Subsidies

2.1. Government grants/subsidies are accounted for on realization basis.

2.2. Government grants of the nature of contribution towards capital cost of setting up projects are treated as capital reserve.

2.3. Grants in respect of specific fixed assets acquired are shown as a deduction from the cost of related assets.
2.4. At present, the Foundation collects and maintains details using dedicated software. One consolidated entry for all the donations is passed at the end of each month or year in the account books. In view of this, itemized reconciliation of each entry from the bank accounts of the Foundation was not found practical.

2.5. Categorization of Grants/Donations among Government Agencies, Institution, Welfare bodies and individuals (Schedule-7) is based on the coding system developed in software used for maintaining donor details. Grants are included in donations and not identified separately.

3. Anonymous Donations

3.1. Anonymous donations of Rs. 86,78,399/- represents direct deposit of cash/instruments in the bank account of Foundation. Names and other details are not available with the Foundation.
