GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi, the 23rd Day of May, 2016

To,
1) Chief Secretaries of all State Governments including GNCTD
2) Administrators of DD, DNH, Lakshadweep

Subject: The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015

Sir/ Madam,

The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 was brought into force from 30th January, 1990 in order to check and deter crimes against members of Scheduled Castes/ Scheduled Tribes by persons belonging to other communities. These enactments have extended the positive discrimination in favour of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in the field of criminal law in as much as they prescribe penalties that are more stringent than the corresponding offences under the Indian Penal Code (IPC) and other laws. ‘Police’ and ‘Public Order’ are State subjects under the Seventh Schedule (List-II) to the Constitution of India and, therefore, the State Governments and UT Administrations are primarily responsible for prevention, detection, registration, investigation and prosecution of all crimes within their jurisdiction including crimes against Scheduled Castes/ Scheduled Tribes. The Union Government, however attaches the highest importance to the matters relating to the prevention of crime; and therefore, the Union Government has been advising the State Governments/ UT Administrations from time to time to give more focused attention to the administration of the criminal justice system with emphasis on prevention and control of crime including crimes against Scheduled Castes/ Scheduled tribes.

Despite the deterrent provisions made in the PoA Act, increasing atrocities against the members of Scheduled Castes (SCs) and Scheduled Tribes (STs) had been a cause of concern. It was, therefore, considered appropriate to strengthen the Act and make the relevant provisions of the Act more effective. Based on the consultation process with all the stakeholders, amendments in the PoA Act were proposed to broadly cover five areas namely (i) Amendments to Chapter II (Offences of Atrocities) to include new definitions, new offences, to re-phrase existing sections and expand the scope of presumptions, (ii) Institutional Strengthening, (iii) Appeals (a new section), (iv) Establishing Rights of Victims and Witness (a new chapter) and (v) strengthening preventive measures. The objective of these amendments in the PoA Act is to deliver members of SCs and STs, a greater justice as well as be an enhanced deterrent to the offenders. The Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Bill, 2015 to affect said amendments in the PoA Act was passed by the Lok Sabha on 04.08.2015 and by the Rajya Sabha on 21.12.2015. Subsequently, as assented by the President on 31.12.2015, the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015 (No. 1 of 2016) (copy enclosed) has been notified in the Gazette of India Extraordinary on 01.01.2016. In the view of its subsection (2) of section (1), the Central Government has appointed 26.01.2016 as the date of enforcement of the Amendment Act, notified in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, on 18.01.2016 (copy enclosed).

Minister of Social Justice and Empowerment vide letter dated 9th Feb, 2016 has written to the Chief Ministers/Administrators of States and UT Administrations respectively to instruct the concerned Departments to take further necessary action in notifying the Amendment Act, in the State Gazette as well as to disseminate information about it to all concerned agencies. (copy enclosed). In view of this, it is once again reiterated to get the Amendment Act notified.

It is also further requested to take necessary action in complying with the provisions of the Amendment Act.

Yours faithfully,

(Dilip Kumar)
Joint Secretary (Centre- State)

MINISTRY OF LAW AND JUSTICE
(Legislative Department)

New Delhi, the 1st January, 2016/Pausha 11, 1937 (Saka)

The following Act of Parliament received the assent of the President on the 31st December, 2015, and is hereby published for general information:—

THE SCHEDULED CASTES AND THE SCHEDULED TRIBES
(PREVENTION OF ATROCITIES) AMENDMENT
ACT, 2015

No. 1 of 2016

[31st December, 2015.]

An Act to amend the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989.

As it enacted by Parliament in the Sixty-sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. In the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in the long title, for the words “Special Courts”, the words “Special Courts and the Exclusive Special Courts” shall be substituted.

3 of 1989.
3. In section 2 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1),—

(i) after clause (b), the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:

(bb) "dependent" means the spouse, children, parents, brother and sister of the victim, who are dependent wholly or mainly on such victim for his support and maintenance;

(bc) "economic boycott" means—

(i) a refusal to deal with, work for hire or do business with other person; or

(ii) to deny opportunities including access to services or contractual opportunities for rendering service for consideration; or

(iii) to refuse to do anything on the terms on which things would be commonly done in the ordinary course of business; or

(iv) to abstain from the professional or business relations that one would maintain with other person;

(bd) "Exclusive Special Court" means the Exclusive Special Court established under sub-section (1) of section 14 exclusively to try the offences under this Act;

(be) "forest rights" shall have the meaning assigned to it in sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Scheduled Tribes and Other Traditional Forest Dwellers (Recognition of Forest Rights) Act, 2006;

(bf) "manual scavenger" shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Prohibition of Employment as Manual Scavengers and their Rehabilitation Act, 2013;

(bg) "public servant" means a public servant as defined under section 21 of the Indian Penal Code, as well as any other person deemed to be a public servant under any other law for the time being in force and includes any person acting in his official capacity under the Central Government or the State Government, as the case may be;

(ii) after clause (c), the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:

(ea) "Schedule" means the Schedule appended to this Act;

(eb) "social boycott" means a refusal to permit a person to render to other person or receive from him any customary service or to abstain from social relations that one would maintain with other person or to isolate him from others;

(ec) "victim" means any individual who falls within the definition of the "Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes" under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 2, and who has suffered or experienced physical, mental, psychological, emotional or monetary harm or harm to his property as a result of the commission of any offence under this Act and includes his relatives, legal guardian and legal heirs;

(ed) "witness" means any person who is acquainted with the facts and circumstances, or is in possession of any information or has knowledge necessary for the purpose of investigation, inquiry or trial of any crime involving an offence under this Act, and who is or may be required to give information or make a statement or produce any document during investigation, inquiry or trial of such case and includes a victim of such offence;
(iii) for clause (f), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(f) the words and expressions used but not defined in this Act and defined in the Indian Penal Code, the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 or the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have the meanings respectively assigned to them in those enactments.".

4. In section 3 of the principal Act,—

(i) for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

'(1) Whoever, not being a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe,—

(y) denies a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe any customary right of passage to a place of public resort or obstructs such member so as to prevent him from using or having access to a place of public resort to which other members of public or any other section thereof have a right to use or access to;

(z) forces or causes a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe to leave his house, village or other place of residence;

Provided that nothing contained in this clause shall apply to any action taken in discharge of a public duty;

(z) obstructs or prevents a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe in any manner with regard to—

(A) using common property resources of an area, or burial or cremation ground equally with others or using any river, stream, spring, well, tank, cistern, water-tap or other watering place, or any bathing ghats, any public conveyance, any road, or passage;

(B) mounting or riding bicycles or motor cycles or wearing footwear or new clothes in public places or taking out wedding procession, or mounting a horse or any other vehicle during wedding processions;

(C) entering any place of worship which is open to the public or other persons professing the same religion or taking part in, or taking part in, any religious, social or cultural processions including janmas;

(D) entering any educational institution, hospital, dispensary, primary health centre, shop or place of public entertainment or any other public place; or using any utensils or articles meant for public use in any place open to the public; or

(E) practicing any profession or the carrying on of any occupation, trade or business or employment in any job which other members of the public, or any section thereof, have a right to use or have access to;

(b) causes physical harm or mental agony of a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe on the allegation of practicing witchcraft or being a witch; or

(c) imposes or threatens a social or economic boycott of any person or a family or a group belonging to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to five years and with fine."

(ii) in sub-section (2),—

(a) in clause (v), for the words "on the ground that such person is a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe or such property belongs to such member", the words "knowing that such person is a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe or such property belongs to such member" shall be substituted;

(b) after clause (v), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

"(w) commits any offence specified in the Schedule, against a person or property, knowing that such person is a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe or such property belongs to such member, shall be punishable with such punishment as specified under the Indian Penal Code for such offences and shall also be liable to fine."

5. For section 4 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"4. (1) Whoever, being a public servant but not being a member of a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe, willfully neglects his duties required to be performed by him under this Act and the rules made thereunder, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to one year.

(2) The duties of public servant referred to in sub-section (1) shall include—

(a) to read out to an informant the information given orally, and reduced to writing by the officer in charge of the police station, before taking the signature of the informant;

(b) to register a complaint or a First Information Report under this Act and other relevant provisions and to register it under appropriate sections of this Act;

(c) to furnish a copy of the information so recorded forthwith to the informant;

(d) to record the statement of the victims or witnesses;

(e) to conduct the investigation and file charge sheet in the Special Court or the Exclusive Special Court within a period of sixty days, and to explain the delay if any, in writing;

(f) to correctly prepare, frame and translate any document or electronic record;"
(g) to perform any other duty specified in this Act or the rules made thereunder:

Provided that the charges in this regard against the public servant shall be booked on the recommendation of an administrative enquiry.

NOTIFICATION
New Delhi, the 18th January, 2016

S.O. 152(E).—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 1 of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015 (1 of 2016), the Central Government hereby appoints the 26th day of January, 2016 as the date on which the provisions of the said Act shall come into force.

AINDRI ANURAG, Jr. Secy.
Letter of Hon'ble Minister of Social Justice and Empowerment to States/UTs

9th February, 2016

You are aware that Article 17 of the Constitution of India abolished 'untouchability', forbade its practice in any form and made enforcement of any disability arising out of untouchability as an offence punishable in accordance with the law. An Act of Parliament namely the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) (PoA) Act, 1989, which falls within the provisions of Article 17 of the Constitution was enacted for preventing atrocities against members of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, to provide for Special Courts for the trial of such offences as well as relief and rehabilitation of the victims of atrocities. The PoA Act extends to the whole of India except Jammu & Kashmir, and responsibility for its implementation rests with State Governments.

2. Despite the deterrent provisions made in the PoA Act, atrocities against the members of Scheduled Castes (SCs) and Scheduled Tribes (STs) had been a cause of concern. It was, therefore, considered appropriate to strengthen the Act and make the relevant provisions of the Act more effective. Based on the consultation process with all the stakeholders, amendments in the PoA Act were proposed to broadly cover 5 areas namely (i) Amendments to Chapter-II (Offences of Atrocities) to include new definitions, new offences, to rephrase existing sections and expand the scope of presumptions, (ii) Institutional Strengthening (iii) Appeals (a new section), (iv) Establishing Rights of Victims and Witnesses (a new chapter) and (v) Strengthening preventive measures. The objective of these amendments in the PoA Act is to deliver members of SCs and STs, a greater justice as well as be an enhanced deterrent to the offenders. The Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Bill, 2015 to affect said amendments in the PoA Act was passed by Lok Sabha on 4.8.2015 and by the Rajya Sabha on 21.12.2015. Subsequently, as assented by the President on 31.12.2015, the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Amendment Act, 2015 (No. 1 of 2016) (copy enclosed) has been notified in Gazette of India Extraordinary on 1.1.2016. In view of its sub-section (2) of section (1), the Central Government has appointed 26.1.2016 as the date of enforcement the amendment act, notified in the Gazette of India, Extraordinary, on 18.1.2016 (copy enclosed).

3. I would request you to instruct the concerned Departments to take further necessary action in notifying the Amendment Act in the State Gazette as well to disseminate information about it to all concerned agencies.
