The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Mission of Member State to the United Nations and has the honour to invite its Government to nominate individual police officers in active service for appointment on secondment to the United Nations Mission in the Republic of South Sudan (UNMISS), for a period of one year. Any further contract extension can be granted on an exceptional basis provided there is a mission mandate requirement and the incumbent display good performance, dedication, professionalism and the achieved results. The final decision on the extension is subject to approval by the United Nations and concurrence by the national authorities.

Details regarding the post/s for which the Secretariat is seeking qualified applicants are provided in the attached job opening/s No 2020-UNMISS-82656-DPO. Also attached are the “Application Procedures for Positions in United Nations Police Components in Peace Operations and Special Political Missions Requiring Official Secondment from National Governments of Member States of the United Nations”.

The Secretariat kindly requests the Permanent Mission to submit a separate application for each nominee for each job opening to the Selection and Recruitment Section/ Police Division/OROLSI/DPO, 1 UN Plaza, 7th floor, room DCI-0780, in accordance with the above-referenced procedures, certifying that the nominee/s meet/s the requirements in the attached job opening/s. Applications submitted after the deadline specified in the job opening will not be considered.

The Permanent Mission is also requested to confirm that selected candidates will be released, in a timely manner, from the national police service obligations for service with the United Nations. It is also requested to ensure that the rank of each candidate submitted is indicated on the application. In addition, it is strongly recommended that Member States carefully pre-screen their applicants and submit only those candidates meeting all requirements for the position as described in the job opening/s.

Member States are strongly encouraged to nominate qualified female police officers. Preference will be given to equally qualified women candidates.
The Secretariat wishes to inform the Permanent Mission of Member State that, in an effort to streamline and expedite the procedures of recruiting seconded officers, candidates placed on a roster following the selection process may be considered for posts with similar functions within a period of two years and if recommended for deployment, further arrangements will be coordinated with the Permanent Mission in due course.

It should be noted that during the period of their secondment, officers may not transfer to alternative positions within the United Nations. As a result, the nomination of police officers who are currently United Nations staff members on secondment, will not be considered.

The Secretariat wishes to reiterate that promoting and encouraging respect for human rights is a core purpose of the United Nations and central to the delivery of its mandates. Should the Secretariat become aware of grave human rights violations which give rise to concerns as to the record and performance of [country] police personnel, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in UN peace operations. In the case of nominees who have been investigated for, charged with or prosecuted for any criminal offence, with the exception of minor traffic violations (driving while intoxicated or dangerous or careless driving are not considered minor traffic violations for this purpose), but were not convicted, the Government is requested to provide information regarding the investigation(s) or prosecutions concerned. The Government is also requested to certify that it is not aware of any allegations against its nominated candidates that they have committed or been involved, by act or omission, in the commission of any acts that may amount to violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law.

The Secretariat recalls that it has a zero-tolerance approach to fraud and corruption. The Government is therefore requested to certify that there was no corruption or fraud in the nomination and extension procedures of police officers on secondment to the United Nations. Should the Secretariat become aware of allegations of corruption or fraud in the nomination or extension procedures of police officers on secondment, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in the United Nations as well as suspension of any future police deployments from the contributing country concerned.

The Secretariat also recalls that the responsibilities of those personnel who are appointed to serve in United Nations peace or special political missions are exclusively international in character. They perform their functions under the authority of, and in full compliance with, the instructions of the Secretary-General. of the United Nations and persons acting on his behalf and are duty-bound not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of their duties from any government or from other authorities external to the United Nations. Seconded personnel should carry out their functions in accordance with all applicable regulations, rules and procedures of the Organization.

The Secretariat of the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Mission of Member State in the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.

In accordance with the Policy on Human Rights Screening of UN Personnel, all individuals who seek to serve with the United Nations are requested to make "self-attestation" that the person has not committed any serious criminal offences and has not been involved in violations of international human rights or international humanitarian law. The exact wording of the self-attestation is outlined in para. 5.2 of the above mentioned Policy. The final decision on the selection of an individual to serve with the United Nations will also be subject to human rights screening.
APPLICATION PROCEDURES FOR PROFESSIONAL CONTRACTED POSITIONS IN UNITED NATIONS POLICE COMPONENTS IN PEACE OPERATIONS OR SPECIAL POLITICAL MISSIONS REQUIRING OFFICIAL SECONDMENT FROM NATIONAL GOVERNMENTS OF UN MEMBER STATES

Outlined below are the procedures to be followed by Permanent Missions for the presentation of candidates to professional posts requiring secondment from active police services, which are open for recruitment within UN peace operations or special political missions. In the interest of promoting an orderly process and to avoid delay in the consideration of applications, Permanent Missions are respectfully requested to adhere closely to these procedures.

1. The above-mentioned posts are reserved only for candidates recommended by Member States through their Permanent Missions to the United Nations. Candidates applying independently will not be considered. It is requested that applications be submitted as soon as possible but not later than deadline specified in each Job Opening announcement. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.

2. All applications must be submitted in a duly completed typed (not hand-written) and signed United Nations Personal History Form (P.11) along with Academic and Employment Certification Form (attachment to P-11 form). Applications using other formats will not be accepted, but additional information may be attached to the P. 11. For the convenience of the Permanent Mission, a P-11 form and attachment are enclosed as samples to be photocopied as needed.

3. Selection for service with the United Nations is made on a competitive basis. It is therefore essential that all the Personal History Forms be completed with a view to presenting the candidates qualifications and experiences as they relate to the requirements as set out in the relevant Job Opening. In the event a Permanent Mission wishes to recommend a candidate for several posts, a separate Personal History Form should be submitted for each post.

4. In accordance with the Policy on Human Rights Screening of UN Personnel, Permanent Mission is requested to provide human rights certification for all nominees. The following language must be included in a nomination note verbal: “The Government of........... is hereby confirming that none of the nominated candidates has been convicted of, or is not currently under investigation or being prosecuted for, any criminal or disciplinary offence, or any violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law. The Government of .................. also certifies that it is not aware of any allegations against the nominated candidates that they have committed or been involved, by act or omission, in the commission of any acts that may amount to violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law.”

5. In accordance with the Policy on Human Rights Screening of UN Personnel, all individuals who seek to serve with the United Nations, are requested to make “self-attestation” that s/he has not committed any serious criminal offences and has not been involved in violations of international human rights or international humanitarian law. The self-attestation must be attached to the P-11 Form and contain the following wording: I attest that I have not committed, been convicted of, nor prosecuted for, any criminal or disciplinary offence. I attest that I have not been involved, by act or omission, in any violation of human rights law or international humanitarian law. The applications without signed individual self-attestations will not be accepted.

6. The Government is also requested to certify that there was no corruption or fraud in the nomination procedures of police officers on secondment to the United Nations.
7. Permanent Mission is requested to certify the level of the degree (Master or Bachelor) obtained by each nominee. If a candidate’s graduation document is different, the Permanent Mission is requested to provide equivalency to BA/MA Degree.

8. Permanent Mission is requested to present their candidates in one single submission, in accordance with the deadline date specified in the Job Opening, under cover of a note verbale listing the names of the candidates, post title(s) they are nominated for and the corresponding vacancy announcements.

9. Applications must be hand-delivered by Permanent Mission to the Police Division Selection and Recruitment Section, Office of Rule and Law and Security Institutions, Department of Peacekeeping Operations at 1 UN Plaza, 7th floor, room DC1 -0780, in accordance with the specific directions in the relevant Note Verbale.

10. Upon delivery of the applications, the Selections and Recruitment Section will acknowledge the receipt to the individual making the delivery.

11. Communication regarding this process will maintained through the Permanent Mission only. The Secretariat will not entertain personal queries from individual applicants.

Additional Comments:

I certify that the statements made by me in answer to the foregoing questions are complete and correct. I understand that any misrepresentation or material omission made on a Personal History form or other document requested by the Organization renders a staff member for the United Nations liable ineligible for further consideration.

I declare that I have never committed, been convicted of and am not currently under investigation or being prosecuted for any criminal, human rights, civil action or disciplinary offence, with the exception of minor traffic violations (driving while intoxicated or dangerous or careless driving are not considered minor traffic violations for this purpose). I declare that I have not been involved, by act or omission, in the commission of any violation of international human rights law or international humanitarian law.

I am not able to attest to the proceeding paragraphs for the following reasons: ............................................................... ...............................................................

Date ........................................ Signature ...............................................................

N.B. You will be requested to supply documentary evidence which supports the statements you have made above. Do not, however, send any documentary evidence until you have been asked to do so by the Organization and, in any event, do not submit the original texts of references or testimonials unless they have been obtained for the sole use of the Organization.
TO BE COMPLETED BY THE RELEVANT LOCAL AUTHORITY:

On behalf of ....................................................... I certify that the information provided by ....................................................... is complete and correct.

I further certify that the nominated candidate has never been convicted of, or is not currently under investigation or being prosecuted for, any criminal or disciplinary offence, or any violations of international human rights law, civil action or disciplinary offence.

The Government of ....................................................... is not aware of any allegations against the nominated candidate that she/he has committed or been involved, by act or omission, in the commission of any acts that may amount to violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law.

In the case of the nominee who has been investigated for, charged with or prosecuted for any criminal offence, with the exception of minor traffic violations (driving while intoxicated or dangerous or careless driving are not considered minor traffic violations for this purpose), but was not convicted, the Government is requested to provide information regarding the investigation(s) or prosecutions concerned.

Date....................................................... Official Stamp .......................................................
