"Ensure Registration of Every Birth and Death"
Subject: Proposed Amendments to the Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1969 – Inviting Suggestions/Comments from General Public.

Registration of Births and Deaths in India is mandatory with the enactment of Registration of Births and Deaths (RBD), Act 1969 and is done as per the place of occurrence of the event. With a view to simplify the provisions of various sections of the existing RBD Act, 1969 and to make it people friendly, the Government of India has proposed to amend the RBD Act, 1969.

A copy of the proposed amendments to Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1969, is displayed for reference. Existing sections of the Act and amendments proposed by the Office of the Registrar General, India (ORGI) are indicated in the first two columns of the proposal respectively. Your suggestions / comments, on the proposed amendments or otherwise, may-be provided, in the third column along with justification in the last column to this office within 30 days from the date of its publication on the website. A soft copy of the proposal can be downloaded in pdf format and your suggestions/comments, in the required format, be sent through email to drg-crscrs.rgi@nic.in within the stipulated time. Suggestions/comments received after the prescribed time (i.e. 17th Nov., 2021) will not be considered.

1. Ins. by act 4 of 1986, s. 2 and schedule (w.e.f. 15.5.1986).

Section 31- Repeal and saving –
(1) Subject to the provisions of section 29, as from the coming into force of this Act in any State or part thereof, so much of any law in force therein as relates to the matters covered by this Act shall stand repealed in such State or part, as the case may be.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken (including any instruction or direction issued, any regulation or rule or order made) under any such law shall, in so far as such thing or action is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been done or taken under the provisions aforesaid, as if they were in force when such thing was done or such action was taken, and shall continue in force accordingly until superseded by anything done or any action taken under this Act.

Section 32 - Power to remove difficulty – If any difficulty arises in giving effect in a State to the provisions of this Act in their application to any area, the State Government may, with the approval of the Central Government, by order make such provisions or give such directions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as appears to the State Government to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty: Provided that no order shall be made under this section in relation to any area in a State after the expiration of two years from the date on which this Act comes into force in that area.
