Job Opening number: DPKO/PolAd_2017/D-2/01

United Nations Core Values: Integrity, Professionalism, Respect for Diversity

Organizational Setting and Reporting:

The Police Division is headed by a Police Adviser, who is accountable to the Assistant Secretary-General for Rule of Law and Security Institutions. The Police Adviser has direct access to the Under-Secretary-General for Peacekeeping Operations, when required. The Police Adviser is responsible for providing advice and support on all policing issues to the Department of Peacekeeping Operations and the Department of Field Support and to heads of police components of operations led by the Department of Peacekeeping Operations and missions led by the Department of Political Affairs with police advisory functions. The Police Adviser may also, as required, provide advice to the Under-Secretary-General for Political Affairs, the Secretary-General and the Security Council through the Under-Secretary-General for Peacekeeping Operations, ensuring that such advice and support is fully coordinated with the Assistant Secretary-General for Rule of Law and Security Institutions. He/she is a member of the Department of Peacekeeping Operations/Department of Field Support Senior Management Team.

Responsibilities:

The incumbent will be required to:

- Provide overall strategic direction and mission related advice on police matters to the Assistant Secretaries-General in DPKO and DFS, to the DPKO/DFS Senior Management Team, to Heads of Police Components in the field, and to others as requested and appropriate.
- Provide oversight of policing issues in all operations and direct responses to critical incidents and issues that arise in the field, Oversee the management of police components, including the conduct of recruitment and training of police officers serving in field.
- Establish frameworks for launching new police operations in implementation of Security Council resolutions; develop, oversee and participate in the conceptualization and implementation of operations and operational initiatives, and determine the parameters for new initiatives in consultation with other senior officials.
- Coordinate and cooperate with the Military Adviser and senior officials in DPKO's Office of Operations and Division for Policy, Evaluation and Training.
- Maintain liaison with the Department of Political Affairs, the Peacebuilding Commission, the Peacebuilding Support Office, the Department of Field Support, other United Nations departments, agencies, funds and programmes, Member States, non-governmental organisations, the academic community and civil society.
- Exercise overall responsibility for the leadership of the Police Division and its activities and products, including its planning processes and the management of police officers serving in the Police Division and those assigned to the Office of Operations-led Integrated Operational Teams.
- Provide strategic direction and oversee the management of the Standing Police Capacity and its deployment to field missions.
- Represent the United Nations and/or the Department of Peacekeeping Operations, as appropriate, in meetings, conferences and seminars on police-related issues.

Competencies:

Professionalism: Demonstrates professional competence in police matters at the strategic and command levels; identifies issues and uses sound judgment in applying expertise to solve a wide range of problems; works well under pressure; has strong conceptual and analytical abilities and proven negotiation skills.

Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies. Identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required. Allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work. Foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning. Monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary. Uses time efficiently.

Leadership: Is proactive in developing strategies to accomplish objectives. Anticipates and resolves conflicts by pursuing mutually agreeable solutions. Establishes and maintains relationships with a broad range of interlocutors to understand needs and gain support. Provides leadership and takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work; demonstrates knowledge of strategies and commitment to the goal of gender balance in staffing.

Vision: Identifies strategic issues, opportunities and risks; clearly communicates links between the Organization's strategy and the work unit's goals; generates and communicates broad and compelling organizational direction, inspiring others to pursue that same direction; conveys enthusiasm about future possibilities.

Judgment/Decision-making: Identifies the key issues in a complex situation, and comes to the head of the problem quickly. Proposes a course of action or makes a recommendation based on all available information and on consultations with other affected units. Determines that the actions proposed will satisfy the expressed and underlying need for the decision. Demonstrates an understanding of political sensitivities.

Qualification:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) preferably in criminal law or related field. A first level university degree with a relevant combination of academic qualifications and relevant police experience may be accepted in lieu of the advanced university degree. Graduation from a police academy or similar law enforcement training institution is required.

Experience: Must be a senior professional police officer on active duty with the rank of Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner or rank equivalent to Major-General level. Must have at least 15 years of relevant experience, with command experience, progressively responsible national law enforcement experience in field and headquarters locations in police policy-making as well as strategic and operational police management experience. Service in a UN peacekeeping or other field operation is highly desirable. Experience in other international organizations is desirable.

Languages: English and French are the working languages of the United Nations Secretariat. For this post, fluency in English (both oral and written) is required; knowledge of French is desirable. Knowledge of another UN official language is an advantage.

Assessment Method:

Kindly note that you may, as part of the evaluation of your application for this position, be requested to undergo written knowledge-based assessment exercises, which may be followed by a competency-based interview depending on the result of the test.

Special Notice:

Circulation of this Job Opening is limited to Member States. Only serving police officers who have received authorization by their National Authorities to apply for this Job Opening will be considered. Appointments are limited to service on posts reserved for active police officers who serve on secondment financed by the support account of peacekeeping operations.
