in accordance with the terms, conditions and restrictions of a licence granted under this section, unless it is certified by the prescribed officer that the bull has been effectively castrated by a method and in a manner approved by the Deputy Superintendent.

Explanation.--Where a person keeps more than one bull, he shall obtain a separate licence in respect of each bull.

(2) Every licence under this section shall be granted by the Deputy Superintendent or any officer or person authorized by him by general or special order. It shall be in such form, for such period, and subject to such terms, conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed. No fee shall be charged for the grant of the licence.

5. Refusal and revocation of licences.

(1) Subject to such rules as may be prescribed, the licensing officer may refuse to grant or may revoke a licence in respect of any bull if in his opinion the bull appears to be—

(a) of defective or inferior conformation and consequently likely to beget defective or inferior progeny, or

(b) suffering from an incurable contagious or infectious disease or from any other disease rendering the bull unsuitable for breeding purposes, or

(c) of a breed which it is undesirable to propagate.

(2) The licensing officer may also revoke a licence granted in respect of any bull kept within his jurisdiction (whether such licence was granted by himself or by any other officer) if in his opinion—

(a) the licence was granted under circumstances of which the licensing officer was not aware at the time of granting the licence, or

(b) there has been a breach of any of the terms, conditions or restrictions of the licence.

(3) If a licence is revoked under this section, the officer revoking the licence shall give notice thereof to the person keeping the bull or to the person stated in the licence to be the owner of the bull. The notice shall set out the grounds for the revocation.

(4) No person shall be entitled to any compensation for the refusal or revocation of any licence under this section.

A licence granted in respect of a bull shall be surrendered without delay to the licensing officer, if—

(a) the period specified in the licence expires, or

(b) the licence is revoked under this Act, or

(c) the bull dies, or is certified by the prescribed officer to have been effectively castrated by a method and in a manner approved by the Deputy Superintendent.

7. Inspection of bulls.

The licensing officer may by order require any person keeping a bull to submit it for inspection by himself or by any officer or person deputed by him for the purpose, at any reasonable time, either at the place where the bull is kept for the time being or at any other reasonable place specified in the order, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the person keeping the bull to submit it for inspection accordingly, and render all reasonable assistance in connection with such inspection to the officer concerned.
8. Power to order castration of bulls.
The licensing officer may by order require any person keeping a bull which in his opinion has attained the prescribed age, and in respect of which no licence is for the time being in force under this Act, to have it castrated, within one month from the date of the service of the order, by a method and in a manner approved by the Deputy Superintendent and specified in the order.
(2) Such castration shall be performed or caused to be performed by the licensing officer free of charge, unless the owner or other person keeping the bull desires to make his own arrangements for complying with the order.

9. Duty to inform owner of contents of notice or order of castration.
If any notice or order is served under Section 5, Section 7, or Section 8 on any person who is not the owner of the bull, it shall be the duty of that person forthwith to take all reasonable steps to inform the owner of the contents of such notice or order, and if he fails to do so, he shall be liable to indemnify the owner against any loss the owner may sustain by reason of such failure.

10. Production of licence.
It shall be the duty of any person who for the time being keeps a bull in respect of which a licence has been obtained and is in force, to produce such licence—
(a) within a reasonable time, at any place where the bull is for the time being, on demand by licensing officer or an officer of the Veterinary Department not below the rank of Veterinary Assistant Surgeon or an officer of the Agriculture Department not below the rank of Agriculture Assistant or an officer of the Revenue Department not below the rank of the Naib-Tahsildar, or such officer as may be authorized in this behalf by the Chief Commissioner by general or special order, or (b) before a cow is served by the bull, on demand made by the person in charge of the cow.

11. Penalties
(a) whoever keeps a bull in contravention of this Act or of any rule or order made thereunder, or of any terms, conditions or restrictions of a licence, or
(b) neglects or fails to submit a bull for inspection when required to do so under Section, or

12. Power of licensing officer to castrate bulls.
(1) If a person who keeps a bull neglects or fails to submit it for inspection, or to have it castrated when required to do so under Section 7, or Section 8, the licensing officer may direct that the bull shall be castrated by a method and in a manner approved by the Deputy Superintendent and marked with prescribed mark in the prescribed manner free of charge.
(2) (a) If it is not known in whose ownership, possession or custody a bull is for the time being and the fact cannot be ascertained after an inquiry in the prescribed manner, the licensing officer may seize the bull or cause it to be seized, and if he is of opinion that the bull has attained the prescribed age and is unsuitable for breeding purposes on any of the grounds specified in sub-section (1) of Section 5 may direct that the bull shall be castrated by a method and in a manner approved by the Deputy Superintendent and marked with a prescribed mark in the prescribed manner, free of charge.

(b) Every bull seized under clause (a) shall, after it has been castrated and marked as aforesaid where necessary, be sold by public auction or sent to pinjrapole or infirmly recognized by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf.

(c) In case the owner of any bull seized under clause (a) appears before the licensing officer within such time as may be prescribed in this behalf and proves to the satisfaction of such officer that the bull is owned by him-

(i) in case the bull has been sold by public auction, the proceeds of such sale be paid to the owner after deducting therefrom the costs charges and expenses incurred for maintenance and sale of the bull; and

(ii) in any other case, the bull shall be delivered to the owner on payment of the costs, charges and expenses incurred for its maintenance.

(d) The costs, charges and expenses referred to in sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of clause (c) shall be determined in the prescribed manner.

13. Power of licencing officer, etc., to inspect or mark bulls and enter premises.

For the purposes of this Act, a licensing officer or any officer or person authorized by him in this behalf shall have power at all reasonable times-

(a) to inspect any bull;

(b) to mark any bull with a prescribed mark in the prescribed manner;

(c) subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, as may be prescribed, to enter any premises or other place where he has reason to believe that a bull is kept.

14. Dpty of officer to report offences etc.

It shall be the duty of all village officers and servants and of all officers of the Veterinary, Agricultural and Revenue Departments—

(a) to give immediate information to the nearest licensing officer of the commission of any offence, or of the intention or preparation to commit any offence punishable under this Act, which may come to their knowledge;

(b) to take all reasonable measures in their power to prevent the commission of any such offence which they may know or have reason to believe is about or likely to be committed; and

(c) to assist any licensing officer in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

15. Cognizance of offences.

No Magistrate shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act except upon a complaint made by a licensing officer or any person authorized by such officer in this behalf.

16. Officers to be public servants.

The Deputy Superintendent, every licensing officer, all officers and persons authorized by the Deuty Superintendent or a licensing officer under this Act, and all village officers and servants, shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.
